Well, it's sad that there's so few people in this world that love God. But you know what? That's okay, because whether they love him or not, we will love God. Amen. Whether they serve God or serve Satan, that's on them. But for me and my household, me and my brothers and my sisters, we will serve the Lord Jesus. Amen.

So sad that the world is full and overflowing with people that believe that they are saved, and they are definitely in love with the ideal that they are saved when there could be nothing farther from the truth than that.

Let's go in prayer. Lord Heavenly Father, we come to you not only by command, but because we want to serve you. You are good, you are right, you are true, you are the way, the life, the door, the only way, the only truth, the giver of life.

And you can give and you can take away, and you can bless and you can curse. You are the Almighty Judge, the Creator, the First, the Last, the Eternal, the Beginning and the End, the Alpha and the Omega.

You are strong and bold. You are not soft, you are not weak. You see all things and know all things. We trust in your perfect plan.

We accept and abide to your Spirit, your commandments, your will. Not ours, not the world's, not religion, but your will, your way.

We ask Father for your special help and anointing on today's services, this message, and people's reception thereof. But whether they accept or reject, as usual, we're here to learn, to grow, to serve.

We're here to be in your presence, to follow you wherever you may take us. Most people don't want to go on the journey and follow the way, the agent path and the path to safety.

Most people would choose the broad, wide way of destruction, a way which promises peace, prosperity, riches, luxury, and all the glamour of that Babylonian empire of billionaires, millionaires, money and greed.

The scripture says that it's easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter into the kingdom.

And I see that as being extremely accurate and true. While people idolize and worship Trump and other kings of the earth, we know, Heavenly Father, that your plan was originally that you would be our king and not man.

But you did allow them to serve David under you as David was a reflection of you.

But even Samuel, of all of his weaknesses, you still worked through him for quite a while until he fell away.

We ask, Lord, that we would not fall away, that you would tie us and root us and chain us and help us to be your prisoner, a willing prisoner, a willing servant, a servant that does not feel only the obligation and the requirement and the commandment, but the love of your heart, the love of your presence, the love of your wisdom to know you intimately and personally, and to willingly wash your feet, anoint your feet, and attend to your needs and your desires. Father, we are here to talk about the end times, but the end is only the beginning, and we praise you for that.

Please help me to deliver this message despite the fact I have this cold, this flu, whatever it is.

Please help me to deliver this message accurately, in truth, in your spirit, with the help of your Holy Ghost, through the blood of Jesus, in Jesus' name.

We accept it. In Jesus' name the Church says, Amen.

Let's turn to Ezekiel 33, verse 1.

The word of Jesus came to me saying, Son of humans, speak to the children of your people, and you will say to them on whatsoever land that I should bring a sword, any land, any nation, that I should bring a sword or war.

The people of that land, they take one man of them and they set him for their watchman.

And he should see the sword coming upon the land and blow the trumpet and sound an alarm to the people.

And he that hears the sound of the trumpet shall hear indeed, and yet not take care to listen and obey, and the sword should come upon him and overtake him.

His blood should be upon his own head. Of course, that's because he heard the trumpet but did not take action. Well, not only about physical war, but also in the New Testament talks about how Jesus said that the piper has played the flute, but the people did not dance. So this is not only physical, but also spiritual, that the trumpet has been sounding, the sword is coming, there is spiritual judgment, there is physical judgment for physical sins and spiritual sins. We see in the land that there are military generals blowing the trumpet. In addition to God's true prophets, in addition to the false prophets of Babylon, both the wicked and the righteous can see that trouble is brewing. Both the saved and the lost can see that World War III is at the door. But this scripture says that if a person hears the trumpet blow, but he does not take action, his own blood, his own death is upon his own thought. He was warned. He did hear the warnings. Rather, the warnings come from spiritual leaders or physical leaders, military leaders, church leaders. Whether those warnings come from righteous people or wicked people, the warnings are everywhere. Everywhere as you look, there's warnings. There's no excuse for people. People have no excuse. When the judgment comes upon them, there's no excuse. And that's true of every generation, World War I, World War II, and World War III. The captivity of different races, different groups, different nations throughout different generations, even the Jews, even the Hebrews, even the Israelites, even the so-called Native Americans of the United States and other tribes worldwide. There's always been people to forewarn of impending events. There's no excuse for people to be caught unaware or to be caught by surprise in any generation. There's no excuse for it. There's always warnings and signs. Always. But verse 6, but if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not sound the trumpet, and the people do not watch because they weren't warned, and the sword comes and takes his soul from among them, that soul is taken because of its iniquity, its lawlessness. But the blood thereof will require the watchman's hands. If I do see all the signs that we're going to talk about today, and yet not preach it, not blow this sound of alarm, then when the judgment comes, I'm held responsible for what I saw, for what I knew, but did not declare. As I said a year ago, that I'd rather share what I see, share what I know, and share my thinking, and what I feel, and how things have evolved, share these things, rather than just keep it to myself in fear that I might be wrong. I can either obey a fear that I might be called a false prophet, which they're going to call me a false prophet anyway, regardless. Or I could not live in fear and share what I actually do see with my own eyes. And what God has definitely said, share reality, inform people, educate people, and if I'm wrong about any of it, then so be it, but I'm not going to live in fear to shrink back and withhold the knowledge and information that God has given me. The scripture in the New Testament that says, what I whisper in your ears shall on the house talk. Amen. We also know Isaiah 58, verse 1 and verse 2, to spare not, but to sound the alarm, and tell my people their sins. Let's turn over to Ezekiel 38, and we know that Ezekiel 38 talks about the Gog and Magog war. And many different people have many different interpretations of this, and a lot of people think that it's talking about after the millennium. Crazy enough that they would think that. But the reason they think that is because there is a verse in Revelation that talks about after the millennium, at the second resurrection. When Satan is let out of the prison for a hundred years, that he and the devils go and deceive the Gog and Magog nations. So they're like, oh, Gog and Magog, so this is Ezekiel 38, don't happen until after the millennium. That is the very brain cells that are dysfunctional type of theology, type of thinking that a lot of so-called preachers have. Very ignorant of scripture, extremely ignorant, jump into conclusion. I mean, that's a huge jump of conclusion. The context of Ezekiel 38 is extremely clear. You got chapter 37, where Israel has been brought back from all the nations. Of course, we know that Ezekiel 37 also refers to the second resurrection. But Babylon doesn't even know about the second resurrection at all, for the most part. So they're not making that connection. But chapter 37 has two different meanings. So J, what's the two different meanings of Ezekiel 37? The valley of dry bones, restoration of Israel, right?

R, what's the second meaning of Ezekiel 37? The restoration of Israel in the second resurrection. The second resurrection. So it's spiritual and physical. Spiritual and physical both in the restoration of physical Israel in the Middle East. That's both spiritual and physical right there. And then also it's both spiritual and physical with the future second resurrection as well. Two different meanings. Nevertheless, getting sidetracked a lot under this influence of a code, flu, whatever it is. Nevertheless, try to move forward.

Ezekiel 38 context, you also have to look at chapter 39.

You have to look at the chapter before and the chapter after it. People never do that.

Chapter 39, if you look at verse 9, they're going to burn their weapons for seven years.

It's going to take seven years to burn their weapons. This is not going to be after the second resurrection there.

Even the burial in verse 11 of the president of Russia, Putin buried in the ground.

But in the second resurrection, there won't be anybody buried in the ground, right?

Because in second resurrection, everybody that's ever lived will be out of their graves and alive on the earth, whether in the flesh or in the spirit, one or the other.

So if you look at that, Putin is actually buried in chapter 39 after this Gog Magog war.

And then that completely rules out their false theology. Now, going back to chapter 38, look at the word Persia in verse 5.

That's Iran. Iran is going to help Russia and China invade Israel. Now, a lot of people, like I said, have different interpretations of who these nations are.

But we all agree that Persia is referring to Iran, however you want to pronounce that.

The context is somewhere between the restoration of Israel in the 1930s and 1940s and all those years, 1948, whatever it was.

After that was fulfilled the first fulfillment of Ezekiel 37. This is an end-time great tribulation prophecy.

This is a prophecy of war, invasion, conquest of Israel in the great tribulation.

Whether people accept that or not is regardless. That's the reality. So when I am required to sound the alarm, five chapters earlier, and here the sword is coming in chapter 38.

The sword is coming upon the land. We see what's happening in the news right now with Trump.

And yes, for a couple of days there, I thought that Trump was not going to have the military strikes against Iran this time.

I thought that he had chickened out. But now I believe very firmly that he is still going to attack Iran pretty soon now.

I don't know how many days or weeks, but the reason my thinking changed is because two things.

One is we see that we continue to see the massive military movement into the Middle East.

That's one thing. Even last night there was evacuating American military bases in Saudi Arabia and so forth.

I believe that they think that Iran might actually attack us first maybe as well.

That's a real possibility, something they have to watch out for. But the other reason I changed my mind and concluded that Trump is still going to attack Iran is this.

And that is that we know that this particular Purim, March 3rd, March 4th, 2026, looks like it's going to be fulfilled because everything that we see in the news, everything, all the events unfolding, and therefore there's got to be something that's going to provoke and develop into that war in heaven of Revelation 12, which I've always said is not just a war in heaven but a war on earth at the exact same time, a fake battle of Armageddon, a Middle Eastern war that triggers or provokes Assad, the Antichrist, to manifest himself at that time of Purim of whatever year, which looks like it's going to be this year.

The situation with Iran is the perfect trigger in which to provoke that and bring that to fulfillment, the perfect trigger. Assad was always extremely connected with Iran, always. For one thing, his family heritage is not only Assyrian but also from Iran.

His family, his grandparents were from Iran. They came from Iran, took over Syria.

Basically, Syria was ran by Iranians. Iran was also his closest ally, along with Russia and China and the Vatican.

We must also understand that Hezbollah in Lebanon is part of the Iranian Empire, and that Assad was extremely affiliated with Hezbollah.

He created Hezbollah. That's the fact. I've written about that at least once, maybe twice. Hopefully at least twice that I have talked about that, mentioned that, wrote about that.

It seems like a lot of the things that I write get lost in history, but I know I wrote it.

It's the reality. It's the facts. It's the history. Hezbollah was invented and created by Assad, and that is a major part of the Iranian Empire.

You cannot separate Assad, Hezbollah, and Iran. They are a trinity of one. They are one and the same. When Trump attempts to overthrow the Iranian regime, then Hezbollah is also at risk.

We have for the last few weeks been hearing a lot of rumors about Israel preparing a major, massive military invasion of Lebanon in order to fight and try to, well, let's say fight Hezbollah.

So that's been building up and getting closer and closer and closer there, a war between Hezbollah and Israel.

All these things are strongly connected, very strongly connected. We see all the different pieces of the puzzle coming together.

And I've always said that we know that at the time of Purim of some year, that there's going to be that Middle Eastern war that will be part of this Assad's manifestation of the Antichrist.

And I've always said, I don't know how many days or weeks before Purim, that that war will begin and how long it will last.

But that there would have to be some type of war, some type of battle in order to get all of that to be and come into fullness.

This is what I've always said. So now that we see this Iranian situation and Hezbollah, one and the same, these situations becoming so close to fulfillment, and we see it better, we see a better picture of it.

We have a better focus on this. We see it coming closer as out the door and how big it is and how serious it is.

It resolves that mystery of what would the battle be? What would the war be? What would provoke it? How would it come to pass?

How is it going to happen? Now we can see all that. We can actually see it. So that's a huge sign.

When you can finally actually see the pieces of the puzzle come together, you can see it better.

You can see what you did not previously know and understand. And you can see it actually unfolding right in front of you.

Well, that's huge. And we can't just ignore it. We can't just ignore the sound of the trumpet. We can't just ignore the heavenly signs.

We can't just ignore the reality on the ground. The military movements and the huge events that are unfolding in front of our eyes.

Trump is, we know that he is very much led by his ego and his pride and very much so as well as his money and the desire for more money.

And so he's still riding on the high. He's high on his fake victory in Venezuela.

I say fake because he's ruling Venezuela at gunpoint. And as soon as that gunpoint is removed, they're just going to go right back to their old ways.

And yes, the gunpoint will be removed from Venezuela because America is going to have to focus on the homeland, our own nation, defense of America, as well as defense of Israel in the Middle East and the UK and Taiwan.

The U.S. aircraft carrier Abraham Lincoln was removed in the past week from the South China Sea to protect Taiwan and moving into the Middle East to protect Israel.

How come we don't have enough aircraft carriers to keep one where we may already have more than one by Taiwan?

I don't know how many, but why would we have to remove the Abraham Lincoln from the South China Sea?

We shouldn't have to do that. We should have enough aircraft carriers, which is why Trump is going to he wants to wants to build more aircraft carriers.

Obama and Biden both destroyed the U.S. Navy. They did by far. That's a fact. That's on the books. That's a matter of actual history of the great reduction in our military equipment and supplies during the Biden administration and Obama administration.

So every time you have a Democrat, our military gets slashed and cut and destroyed.

And then every time you get a Republican come in, then they have to rebuild it again all over again.

Back and forth and back and forth. It's insanity. And I tell you this, Democrats will not be protected by me, by God, by any guardian angel, by the blood of Christ.

Democrats, they are the sin and the plague of humanity. Democrats are equal to Muslims, Buddhists and Hindus and Satan worshippers and witches and homosexuals.

Democrats are the filth of the earth and they will receive the harsh punishment that they deserve.

Now let's go over to 1 Thessalonians chapter 5, verse 3, While they were saying, Peace and safety, security and stability, then destruction will come upon them suddenly like labor pains upon a woman with child. And they will not escape. Amen. This is talking about a time, end time. Context is the end times. The coming of the Lord. There's only three and a half years difference, basically, not down to the very day. We're going to say in general, close to three and a half years from the time of Purim to the time that the Lord comes. So this is like a thousand years as one day with the Lord. A very short time period that we're talking about. Context is a great tribulation that people are being told, you don't have to worry about invasion. You don't have to worry about the Antichrist. You don't have to worry about the mark of the beast. You don't have to worry about prophecy. All you got to do is just believe and be saved and peace and peace and peace. Peace and safety. Well, the same thing was happening during the time of Jeremiah. Jeremiah was sent by God to tell the people, your nation will be invaded. You are full and overflowing of sin and hypocrisy. When you say that you're following God and you say you're obeying all my law, that you're not obeying my law at all. And the prophet stood, prophet Jeremiah stood boldly and courageously and told the people off and pissed the people off and told the people their sins and that invasion and war and destruction is coming. And for the most part, the people, the religious people and the religious experts and the government, for the most part, people were, you're crazy, you're lost, you're deceived, you're a false prophet. But the true prophets of God are always, always called false prophets. So why should I live in fear of somebody calling me a false prophet when God's true prophets are always called false prophets? If I wasn't called a false prophet, then I would have a real problem. Amen. I would have a real problem. God would have a real problem with me. If nobody was calling me a false prophet, it would mean that I actually am a false prophet if nobody was calling me that. If the world loves you, when the world loves you, it's because you are tickling their ears with lies. Amen. But anyway, we're in this time when we're about to see major war and destruction. And yet, Trump is declaring, I'm going to make peace with Russia. I'm going to make peace between Russia and the Ukraine. I'm going to make peace with all these different factions, groups, so forth. He even said it about Iran a couple of times, more than a few times actually. But sudden destruction is coming. We know that the Nobel Peace Prize winner, the last Nobel Peace Prize winner, that woman that is an opposition leader in Venezuela, she was at the White House just yesterday or the day before and presented her Nobel Peace Prize to Trump. Because he's always wanted it, has always repeatedly over and over a million times said that he deserves it because he's always exalting himself. His ego, his pride is equivalent to the true Antichrist. His pride is equal to Satan himself. You know how much Trump's pride is extreme, very extreme. But when we look at this prophecy in 1 Thessalonians 5 verse 3, we've got to realize that the Great Tribulation is definitely coming during President Trump's reign, his term. He's got, I guess, three years left, two years, three years, whatever it is. And he's not allowed to be president again. How do I know it's going to come during Trump's term? Is you're not going to have all this degree of peace, peace, peace, peace, peace, peace, peace, peace. And his constant desire for a Nobel Peace Prize and all of his trying to solve wars all across the entire world. We had before in all of American history, have we had a president that has tried to manifest his persona, his image so powerfully worldwide as a so-called man of peace, bringing peace to the whole world, which is what we always was taught falsely about the Antichrist himself, even though the Bible never teaches that, right? But we was always taught by false churches, false Christians, false television evangelists that the Antichrist is going to make peace deals and bring peace to every nation and be a big man of peace. That's always been taught. The Bible never says that at all. I mean, they make movies about this. There's a million movies that's been made about this man of peace Antichrist that stands up and makes peace everywhere and signs peace covenants with multiple nations. And here Trump is doing this, fulfilling this imaginary role created by Satan as a decoy to make all these fools think that Trump is the Antichrist.

And so just in the last day or two, he announced the Board of Peace of him plus seven other men, all of them billionaires, the World Bank president and his speechwriter, weird, the insanity, the delusional thinking coming from this man.

Sometimes he's a genius and other times he's got a few marvels loose, like a mad genius, insane genius, different people, different languages.

So the word mad in English can mean insane, not just angry, but it can also mean insane.

So it's like an insane genius. But this prophecy of this everybody hollering, screaming peace and safety can not be fulfilled any better at any other time in history than right now when we have Trump as this alter ego of this Hollywood Antichrist fulfilling the prophecies of these Hollywood movies.

Look at Luke 21. I do have my brand new updated Alpha and Omega Bible. So if you have an old copy and if you're following along from an old copy and I read this and it be any different from your copy, then you can see that maybe these are new edits and you can even read the Alpha and Omega Bible on the Internet for free.

And you can check out what it actually says right now in the most recent update.

But Luke 21 verse 20, that when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that her desolation or destruction is near. Amen.

So I kept the word desolation there because we know that term abomination of desolation, but it means destruction.

But I purposely kept it as the word desolation to help draw that connection. And so I like to also add to that because a lot of people just read so quickly that they never stop and think what they just read, like the word desolation.

Where does that come from? What does that mean? How does that connect with other Bible verses about this? So we got to just spell it out to them because they're not going to use their brains.

So we have to spell it out and bottle feed people constantly every day. So at the end of the verse 20, we're going to put a note that says desolation equals destruction equals abomination of desolation.

Desolation equals destruction equals abomination of desolation. That will help people see and think.

And then there's the fleeing. In verse 21, people flee for safety and protection, trying to escape the destruction.

So and the word Jerusalem here, we need to also add in the footnote. Actually, what we'll do is after the word Jerusalem, we'll put parentheses.

No, let's just add it at the end of the verse. Let's do out of footnote at the end of the verse that says Jerusalem is well accepted as often being symbolic of Israel, all of Israel.

So again, Jerusalem is often accepted as being symbolic of all of Israel. Throughout scripture, Bible scholars often will actually tell you in the Bible commentaries.

The word Jerusalem isn't talking about just only that city of Jerusalem. It is used in scripture many times to refer to all of Israel, just like people will often use the word Washington DC or Washington.

When they're referring not really to the city of Washington DC, but rather the American government and the American administration.

Right? So it doesn't have to be just the city of Jerusalem with armies actually on the border of the city.

It don't have to be that. We may eventually see that eventually. Absolutely. We will at some point.

But to get to Jerusalem, they have to cross the border of Israel first. Right? People don't use their brains. There's people on this earth that think it refers just to the city.

But how do they get to the city without passing other cities of Israel? You're already invaded if they're on the border of Jerusalem.

Come on, people don't use their brains ever. That's like that's like saying. Give me a town or Chicago. That's like saying Chicago invaded, but the United States not invaded.

Right? Or Chicago surrounded, but the United States not surrounded. So how does this relate to this year? This winter and this spring and this current context?

That's pretty easy. That's very easy. We have Trump's plan to bring in the Pakistan army, the army of Turkey, the army of Egypt, and other 666 market that means Satan worshipping Islamic communist armies into Israel, into Gaza.

Gaza is Israel. So I don't understand people when they don't see why it's so obvious and easy to understand and easy to see.

You've got to be totally blind in order to not see these things. The peace and safety Bible verse and this Bible verse.

But here is something that they not so easily see is the planetary alignment of Pentecost.

That's the year before Jesus comes back. If strong delusion, the manifestation of Assad is the Antichrist.

If it occurs at Purim of this year, March 3rd, March 4th of this year, 2026, then that means Jesus would come back in late 2029.

And the year before that would be 2028. The Pentecost of 2028 would automatically within that context, within that timeline, be the opening of the sixth seal.

Be the opening of the sixth seal. We already know that according to Joel 2, Acts 2, and Revelation 6, John, what would we find in the book of Joel chapter 2?

Earthquakes and a dark little sky. And the sun and the moon and the stars, right?

The heavenly signs. We see that in Acts 2 as well. We see that in Revelation 6. Multiple Bible verses, the heavenly signs of the sun and the moon and the stars, at the opening of the sixth seal, which would be a year before Jesus comes back.

And that's going to happen on Pentecost. We have said all of this for multiple, multiple years.

We have said that this would occur on the day of Pentecost, the year before Jesus returns.

So that would be June 4th, 2028. So I've been following some earthquake experts that they look at the solar flares.

They look at the planetary alignments and the things that the planets are doing and the things that's happening with the earth and volcanoes and daily earthquake reports.

And these are people that are real experts. But even though they are real experts and they really know what they're talking about, they're not accepted by the mainstream earthquake experts.

Just like I'm not accepted by mainstream religion and mainstream pastors and mainstream Bible commentaries and websites and so forth, it's always good to listen to the outcasts, the black sheep, the people that the mainstream hate and despise and disagree with.

If the person that you're talking about and following, paying attention to, have intelligence and common sense, not demonic, not satanic, not being led by dark spirits, not being led by stupidity and false conspiracy theories, but being led by facts.

You have to be extremely careful who you follow, what you read, what you watch, what you pay attention to.

The problem is most people have no discernment whatsoever at all and don't have any common sense and no intelligence and therefore they are following any just absolute moron, idiot, insane people that have all type of absolutely ridiculous theories and ridiculous teachings such as the flat earth insanity and nebula, planet X insanity, things like that, bullshit, and they'll follow that bullshit but they won't follow the truth very much at all and even if they follow the truth, they won't obey the truth.

We have people that listen to these sermons every week but it don't make no difference in their lives.

They don't change nothing about their lives. They don't really obey God or serve God or surrender to God.

They just like that I'm shirtless or that I'm cool or that I have long hair or that I say bullshit or something like that, just carnal reasons.

And then there's also spies that are watching as well.

But there's a planetary alignment on that Pentecost, June 4th, 2028.

I'm going to put that picture up on the monitor. How would I make that full screen?

I guess that would be on YouTube as a full screen, on YouTube it would. Okay. So it shows you a planetary alignment from March of last year and compares it to the June 4th, 2028 Pentecost alignment.

And the difference is how close the planets are to each other. Now, of course, that's still millions of miles between each and every one of those planets.

There's still millions of miles between each one. Nevertheless, that distance is much shorter than normal on that date.

And it's much shorter on Pentecost of 2028 than what it was of March of last year.

Much shorter. Also, you see how on Pentecost, the earth is higher up and more level.

The planets are more level, is more of a straight across. So they are tighter together on two different levels, two different ways that they are closer and tighter.

Of course, you will read on the internet from mainstream science, the same mainstream science that says we come from monkeys, right?

The same mainstream science that don't always know what they're talking about. You will read on mainstream science that the planetary alignments have nothing to do with earthquakes because they look at any and all planetary alignments and make no difference between things like this.

They're not going to go into the detail because they're not looking at the details because they don't want to prove that there is a connection between the planetary alignments and earthquakes and volcanoes.

If they don't want to prove it, they're not going to prove it. They're not going to look at these details like we are.

The fact that the earth is more level and the fact that they are tighter and closer together, much closer than what they would normally be as well as the alignment.

Why would it be looking as it does look on that date, that particular, specific date, the date, the holy day, biblical holy day in which we are to expect heavenly signs, events in the universe?

I believe that this alignment will bring forth an explosion of a super volcano. That's what I believe.

A super volcano because that would perfectly, perfectly explain why the sun and the moon both day and night are looking red according to the scripture that they both turn red and they even stop shining their light, that you won't be able to see them.

There's atmospheric clouds, dust, debris. Now some people would say with a super volcano that would destroy everyone on earth, not necessarily.

You have different degrees of explosion, you have different volcanoes, you have smaller ones, you have larger ones, you have giant ones.

I guarantee you there's some they don't even know about. There's some under the ocean.

You've got all different kinds, different types, different depths, different magnitudes.

God can control it. Amen. Some people would say you're trying to explain away the power of God and trying to explain biblical things with the things that are natural, planetary.

And I'm not trying to do that at all. You can have both. You can have God controlling the earth, the sun, the moon, the stars. I hated all this.

It belongs to Him. Amen. God can control it. The Bible says He actually did turn the sun backwards and He even made it stand still in the sky.

God can control the earth and the plates of the earth and the volcanoes. You can have both at the same time without dismissing God's power.

When we see things right in front of our eyes, we need to pay attention to them. When we can see this alignment on that specific date of all dates, we can't just say, oh, that's nothing, that's not important, that's not unusual.

We have alignments all the time. That's the thinking of Babylon. When we're looking at Pentecost of the year before Jesus comes back, if strong delusion does happen this year in that context, and it's the holy day in which we can see heavenly signs in the sky, talking about the sun and the moon, dust and debris, then it makes sense and we're not to just dismiss it and just throw it away like it's nothing.

We don't have planetary alignments every day, every week, every month, and especially this tight, this close, where they're so close to each other.

Look at Revelation chapter 13, verse 1. And the dragon stood on the stand of the sea shore. Then I saw an evil beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads, and on his horns ten crowns, and on his heads blasphemous names.

Pause. And that is the ten horns. We know that the ten horns symbolize the same thing as the ten toes. And Daniel 2. We know that. Almost all Bible scholars agree as well. It's ten end-time leaders. Now, a couple months ago or however many months ago, Trump said that he's coming out with a board of peace for Gaza that would have ten members.

Of course, immediately, these idiots get on YouTube and start teaching, well, these are the ten toes.

It's just an automatic jump to conclusion without praying about it, without fasting about it, without hearing from God about it, without really studying what the Scripture teaches about it, without using any common sense, without using any real logic and thinking, without using any critical thinking.

Just an immediate jump of conclusion, a board of ten men. Oh, it's automatically, it's got to be the ten horns.

That's the way a lot of people function. No brains. Just automatic reaction. That's very effeminate, right?

And yet these male leaders acting that way, very effeminate. Nevertheless, the fact that Trump is doing this and now has announced the names of seven of those leaders, and then I read this morning that he has sent a letter to the president of Turkey inviting him to be the next one to be on the board.

And I say he will accept. Of course, he would, right? Now, whether it's going to end up as being ten, I don't know, but originally it was said to be ten, probably will be.

It doesn't matter whether it will or won't be, but the fact that it was declared originally as being that there's going to be ten on that board is significant.

It is significant. We can't just ignore it completely, but neither should we take an immediate jump of reaction and claim it as a fulfillment of prophecy.

The reality is it's a foreshadowing and a decoy. It's foreshadowing because it's something that happens that looks like what is going to happen.

It points to a future event. And not only does it point to something that's going to happen, but it points to something that's going to happen in which looks like what is already occurring.

So a foreshadowing, if you think of a shadow, a shadow, when you look at your shadow on the ground and the sun is shining and you're outside and you look at your shadow, your shadow is a copy of you, right?

It looks like you as far as your shape. If you're, of course, you know, whatever direction that the sun is and the height of the sun in the sky, if the sun is high in the sky or low in the sky, different factors and different variables will influence the shape and size of your shadow.

But regardless of that, it's still going to be some type of a copy reflection of you and how you're built, whether you are tall and skinny or short, whether you're heavy set or not, it's going to be some type of a copy of you.

So a foreshadowing, having that word shadow as part of it is something that's going to happen.

That's the word for the word for and then the word shadow. So as a copy of an event, it is history repeating itself, right?

History repeating itself is a copy of a historical event in which is pointing to a future event.

And many times it will happen more than once and more than twice and more than three times.

So the board of peace of ten is a copy of the real ten. And because it is a copy of the real ten horns, it confirms what I said a long time ago, that the ten horns are going to be ten business leaders.

Did I not say that? And the reason I knew that is because the Bible says they have no kingdom.

And so when we say that the ten horns are going to be the president of Russia, the president of China, the president of Turkey, so forth, so forth, that can't be true.

It's impossible because they have kingdoms. They have nations. They have empires. Excuse me.

But business leaders, Bill Gates, do you want to know who the ten horns are going to be?

George Soros, Charles Schwab, is that his name? Sometimes I get his name very often confused.

Is that his name? Klaus. Is it Klaus? Whatever his name is, Klaus is right. I always get his name confused.

So J, I want you to learn his name because I've got to have help.

And everything I know, every one of you should already know everything. Every little detail that I know, everybody that's been listening to me for multiple years, you ain't been listening to me for three weeks.

You've been listening to me for years. So you should already know everything I know.

And my brain's getting old. So I need help. So I need everybody to step up to the plate and start learning and memorizing all this information to help fill in these gaps as I get older and older and weaker and weaker and my memory becomes more frail that you guys will already know all this stuff.

But the ten horns is coming quicker, faster, is very close. The real ten horns are about to come.

Now that we have this decoy and this copy, it's a major sign, it's a major, huge development.

Also here in Revelation 13, go down to the head wound. Verse 3, one of his heads seemed like it had been slain, but his fatal wound was healed.

And the majority of the earth was amazed or shocked and followed after the evil beast, Assad.

So we know that Assad's removal from power from Syria was the fulfillment of that deadly head wound.

And yet the Bible says that head wound will be healed, that he will recover from that.

So Assad will come back to power. How? Because of the war in heaven and the war on earth, all the chaos, major war, fake battle of Armageddon, it's going to be major, it's going to be huge.

So imagine Iran, massive American military strikes attempting to bring about regime change.

Hezbollah becoming involved, Hezbollah has thousands of missiles. Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Turkey, different parties, different nations, different players, how they might become involved in this.

There's a lot that we don't know, but we can see enough of this picture now to much, much better understand this.

So we see all this coming closer. So rather we're looking at the South China Sea, Ukraine, the situation with Russia, Iran, Hezbollah, all these different things, Taiwan, all these different things.

The board of peace, the peace and safety, Nobel Peace Prizes, all these fake peace agreements, the way Trump is manifesting himself as the fulfillment of the Hollywood prophecy of the Antichrist and his board of peace.

The decoys, when the decoys become this strong, when you've got a man like Trump on earth that is acting like he is the Antichrist in such an amazing, powerful way, but not like the biblical Antichrist, but rather the Hollywood Antichrist, the Babylon Antichrist, the Antichrist that we've always heard about, not what the Bible describes, but actually some of what the Bible describes too, right, with the board of peace.

So a mix of really some of the biblical stuff and the magnitude of pride. So yes, actually I correct myself, a mixture of biblical prophecy of the Antichrist and Hollywood's version, false religion version.

Trump is manifesting himself as a copy, a decoy, a foreshadowing of the Antichrist in such a way that has not been fulfilled since Hitler, right?

Now when will this head wound be healed? So we're reminded now about the Islamic prophecy, not that we believe in Islamic prophecies, but we must consider everything, we must consider everything, and Islamic prophecies are important when we're going to have an Islamic Antichrist.

When you're going to have an Islamic Antichrist, when he comes to power, common sense says, logic says, that he's going to bring up the Islamic prophecies, right?

So we have the Islamic prophecy that does say that there would come a battle in the nation of Syria that would overthrow its previous leader, that would bring a change to Syria, and that new leader would last only 15 months, and then the Mahdi will manifest and come and defeat and overthrow that Syrian leader.

The Muslims acknowledge that the Mahdi is Shiite, and that the Syrian leader that lasts only 15 months would be Sunni.

We have a current president of Syria that is Sunni, and Assad is Shiite. This current president of Syria, his 15 months would be expiring in March.

Why would his 15 months, how would that be coincidence for that to be March? When we see something that is so powerful, so amazing, so mind-blowing, as this Syrian president, his first 15 months would come to March, the first week of March of this year, how can we ignore that and turn a blind eye to it?

It's huge. It's absolutely huge. It cannot be overstated how huge that is. It's absolutely mind-blowing, just like the planetary alignment on Pentecost 2028 is mind-blowing.

We also must consider that this is the last year of the alignment of a total lunar eclipse on the day of Purim during Ramadan.

We have the Islamic hadith that says that there would be a lunar eclipse during Ramadan when judgment comes.

Jesus has shown me for many years, many, many years, that Purim of whatever year would be associated with the full moon of March, scientifically.

Sometimes Purim is not in March. It does not always occur in March, I don't think.

But God said that it would occur, the end time prophecies would be fulfilled on a Purim of March, scientifically.

A full moon of March, scientifically. You combine that with the Islamic hadith of a lunar eclipse during Ramadan.

Then you have this alignment of Purim, full moon of March, and Ramadan, and the eclipse.

Purim and the eclipse, full moon of March, during Ramadan. That's four things. This is the last year that we have all four occurring on the same day, until, I don't know when, another 40-some years or more?

Anybody that thinks we've got 40 and 50 or 60 years left before the Great Tribulation starts, you're spiritually dead.

Therefore, to conclude, for all these reasons and more, I can't just say, that this might be the year of the strong delusion fulfillment of the Antichrist manifesting in the start of the Great Tribulation and the Gog-Magog War.

Therefore, that word might is very weak, but all of this that I've talked about and more, the more appropriate words would be that everything, everything, looks as this will be the year.

I've not heard thunder and lightning. God hasn't said directly to me, this is going to be the year, but I can see the sword coming, as Ezekiel 33 described.

It didn't say, it did not say, the Lord told you it's going to happen, but rather, it said, the watchman sees the sword coming. Amen.

Do we always have to hear God command everything or spell everything out and bottle feed us on every little thing?

When we need to be adult enough and mature enough and logical enough and using our brains and say, hey, I see this, I see that, I see this heavenly sign, I see this other heavenly sign, I see this and I see that.

And the conclusion is the only thing that we can conclude that makes any sense is this, 2 plus 2 equals 4. Amen.

If 2 plus 4, I mean 2 plus 2 equals 4, should we then go into 40 days of fasting, Lord, I think that 2 plus 2 equals 4, I don't know, it might not be true, give me a sign.

Right? But that's the way Christians act every day. Amen. If 2 plus 2 equals 4, why do you have to fast about that?

Could Jesus pull the plug like Trump did and back out? Yes. God is supreme. I can't tell God, hey, don't change your mind.

I can't do that. God can do whatever he wants to do. But when I see 2 plus 2, then I'm going to say 4. Judgment coming, abortion, even the abortion pills in the Trump administration still accept it to the best of my knowledge, false doctrine, Catholic Sunday, Catholic Trinity, Catholic Easter, Catholic Christmas.

And yet people contact me and say, "I know the Lord, he's been my Savior all my life. I've served him since I was 2 years old." And yet they still serve Satan with Catholic Sunday, Catholic Trinity, Catholic Easter, and Catholic Christmas.

And they still believe the pre-tribulation fairy tale as if they were 2 years old.

And people have this Babylon self-mentality. Babylon self-mentality. They are offended when I say bullshit. They're offended when I raise my voice.

They're offended when I say that the Bible does call people idiots. Morons, stupid, unreasonable, brute, dumb, beast. Never mind that the Bible actually does say this, but they're offended that I say what the Bible says.

Another reason for the judgment is the feminism in modern Western society. Feminism.

Women preachers. Women in control of their husbands. Women controlling their boyfriends. What their boyfriends and husbands can say, what their boyfriends and husbands can do, and where they can go and where they can't go, who they can talk to, who they can't talk to, who they can look at and who they can't look at.

The women are in control. Women in control of churches. Women in control of businesses. And women in control of men.

And they are very deserving of the slap in the face that God is going to give them.

Women that have divorced and destroyed their families and took their children away from their dads because the man had sex with a woman.

When God told men to have sex with women. When God gave men not one ball, but two balls.

Another reason why people deserve what they're about to get is their once saved, always saved boycraft.

And their resistance to go vote. Their reluctance to be involved in politics. Which is the reason why Western society is so extremely wicked is because so-called Christian men don't want to do their duty of being involved in politics.

Of course, a woman should never go vote because women should not have any authority over men and society.

Women, most of them, always vote for the communist, for the Moslem, for the atheist, for the homosexual.

Women normally always vote for those that would destroy our society. But even the men now are acting like this.

And it was the Seventh Day Adventist cult that created a lot of this feminist control of our modern Western society.

Women prophets and women leaders and women pastors, women preachers. It's a big, giant reason why our society now is the way it is.

And people not believing in God's true prophets is another reason people deserve the judgment that they're about to get. And the people have chosen to believe, ever lie, ever false minister, ever false pastor, ever false theology, but not believe who God has really sent in God's true words and God's true theology and God's true messages and his true prophecies.

Then the people deserve what they are about to get. The lazy mentality. People are lazy. Beyond imagination, people in our modern Western society are lazy as hell.

I thank God I am as old as I am. Despite all the pain and aches, sickness and weakness of an old body, I praise God that I am this old.

Because I'm old enough to remember when people were raised with a work ethic and did not have the luxury of all the riches of modern Western society.

The rich mentality, throwing money at everything, thinking that you have to pay money to learn when you can learn anything for free in our society now, but yet throwing money at this, throwing money at that, buying this, buying that, paying this, paying that.

And it's ridiculous, this rich mentality, thinking they got to go to school or learn or get a college degree or another certificate and another certificate and pay for it to learn to do something, but they can't figure it out themselves.

I don't think I've ever paid anybody in my entire life to learn something. There's such a thing as YouTube.

There's such a thing as the Internet. There's such a thing as a library. There's such a thing as teaching yourself and using common sense and using your brains.

Why do you have to pay somebody to bottle feed you, to teach you everything? Our ministry website, I don't know how many pages it has, hundreds of pages.

And I started that website in February of 2006, February 2006, that's a long time ago.

Did I go to college or somewheres and pay them to teach me how to make a website?

No, absolutely not. How did I learn how to make a website? How did I know how to make a website? The Internet already existed at that point in time, of course.

And I went on the Internet and I looked at how do I make a website? And I read it for free.

And I did it. And I made it. And I learned how to make a website. And that was with HTML.

Not drag the little thing across the screen and hope it falls into place. But rather I taught myself HTML to where I can make everything on the website be exactly the way it needs to be.

Not just drag it across the screen. I've tried those things, drag across the screen.

I've tried those things a million times and they never look right, ever. I hate those things.

I hate those things with passion. And I've tried multiple different sources and brands and companies and websites and I hate every one of them.

Because I'd rather do it with old school using your brains instead of dragging it across the screen.

I'd rather use my brains that God gave me. This microwave, easy society. Easy. Instead of teaching yourself, pay somebody to bottle feed you.

And I've got to talk about Hs. How, I don't know how many years ago, two years ago, three years ago, I don't know.

When he was doing that college bullshit. And I told him you need to think about how much is this costing you?

How much time is it taking? You've got a full-time job, you've got children, you've got a wife, you're reading the Bible, you're studying the Bible, you're listening to the services, you've got all this going on in your life.

And you're doing this college course and paying money for it? And he said, yeah, but when I finish this college course, I get this degree, I get this certificate and I'll be able to get a better job and I'll be able to have more money and I won't have to rely on the ministry for money.

I won't have to rely on you for that. I can make a better life for me, myself and my family.

What happened to that? A waste of money, a waste of time, a waste of energy. I'm an old man. I have never seen a college course help anybody other than the doctors and the lawyers and people like that.

But as far as everyday normal people, street people, average people, poor people, poor people that struggle to take money and throw it away and give it to a college thinking that it's going to help them get a better job.

And it never does ever, ever, ever in my lifetime of anyone I've ever talked to and met.

But rather the opposite. The opposite is this. The reality of what I've actually seen and experienced and maybe my experience is far different from everybody else.

I don't know. But what I've seen in my life is everybody saying, yes, I went to college and yes, I got this course and yes, I got this degree.

And no, it's never helped me with anything. And that's been over and over in the next person and the next person and the next person and the next person and the next person and the next person.

The same thing over and over and over again. But when I try to tell this to people, they won't listen.

Oh, I've got to spend this money that I don't have to better my life and make something out of myself, which is not going to do.

But I'm going to do it anyway and go against your advice and go against everything that you have known for this last 60 years.

But I'll go against it and throw my money away. But please make for sure you give me another thousand dollars so I can do it and drive cars. I won't even drive myself and expect me to pay for it.

And then when I finally pull the plug, when I finally pull the plug.

Will they still think I'm such a great prophet? Or will I never hear from them again?

I know what God gave me in that second Peter chapter two and that book of Jude about the greedy person that is an unreasonable brute beast that does things by instinct instead of by intelligence and wisdom.

When somebody has blown the money every month, every year for multiple years and still can't stand on their own two feet, then it's time to pull the plug and let them learn how to walk on their own two feet.

Even though they are absolutely going to hate my guts for not paying everything for them anymore and treat them like a baby.

Hey, but I don't regret having helped the children and I don't regret having helped people who were sick.

I don't regret helping people who were in need. I don't regret any of the money I sent to anyone in any year.

I don't regret any of it. I don't regret any of the money that this church, this ministry, your tithes and my money has sent.

It was all sent rightfully according to God's will and God many times helps people and reaches out a hand of help to people.

And then God will endure with those people, feed those people, take care of those people and try to help those people. But then after a long time, when those people still have not learned to come out of this baby lawn mentality and still can't take care of themselves and still acting like babies and still are dependent upon the mama eagle, then God says, I am withdrawing my hand of help.

It's time for you to fly the nest. And when you fly out of the nest, you might hit the ground, but it's time to fly the nest. So I don't regret that God has stretched out hand all day long to a wayward and rebellious people.

I will reach out my hand to anyone in which God leads me to reach my hand out to both the lost and the saved.

One final thing is the victory. In the final year of the Great Tribulation, the war will turn around and there will be the greatest number of people ever saved in all of human history.

In that final year of the Great Tribulation, from June 4th, 2028 until late 2029, in that final year, more people will be saved at that time than at any other time in history.

Because Jesus will raise up young, young white men, young white men to preach God's word and teach God's word to the entire world, to people of every color, every language, every nation, every nationality.

That nationality across the entire world will learn the truth, the real truth, this truth that I've been preaching for these last 20 years.

They will hear it. The whole world will hear it and receive the same thing I have been preaching.

That final year of the Great Tribulation will be spiritual revival and physical revival.

The war itself will turn around. It's not going to happen overnight as far as everyone being saved and all nations being delivered from war.

It's going to be a process of that entire year, but it's going to happen and it's going to happen very quickly and very powerfully and evolve and roller coaster and increase over the entire year.

It's not going to happen everything overnight. We still have a whole year. Amen. But we'll see battles, spiritual battles and physical battles, won.

And we won't win all of them. That will win more than the first two years, the first two and a half years.

So it will start turning around and there'll be certain communities, certain neighborhoods that will be delivered from their invasion forces.

And that will spread across the earth, more and more towns and neighborhoods and cities and states and regions to be delivered from the Russian and Chinese and Iranian and Cuban invasion forces.

So anytime we talk about all this judgment, we must remember to also talk about redemption and deliverance.

God is angry and God is bringing judgment. But the reason that he's bringing judgment is to spank us, to get us to do right.

The good father has to yell. The good father has to scream and spank and discipline his children.

And it doesn't feel good and the children cry and the children act like babies and cry and boohoo and boohoo.

But it causes the children to stop doing wrong and start doing right, to turn around, to repent.

And then the deliverance comes. That deliverance comes and it will increase. And then we'll have the redemption and we'll have the first resurrection and we'll have the kingdom of God to come.

And we have the millennium and we have justice and restoration and victory. We have to remember the finish line.

As we enter into this very dark time of destruction and death and evil and wickedness, we must remember this is only going to be three and a half years and then we're going to have, even that final year, a lot of victory.

And then we're going to have the millennium, the kingdom, Jesus, restoration, redemption, deliverance, rescue.

Three and a half years is nothing. Time goes quickly and we're going to be busy. We're going to be very busy. And when you're busy, time goes faster when you're not being lazy, when you're not just complacent and nothing to do, bored.

When you're busy, time goes faster. And we're going to be busy gathering firewood, cooking, cleaning the deer, cleaning the turkey, eating yummy, cleaning the dishes, washing our clothes, building things, talking, having conversation, being humans, getting to know each other, sharing stories, testifying about all the trials and tribulations we've been through up to that point and how God has delivered us out of this and out of that and out of this and out of that.

We're going to be busy testifying among each other and worshiping and praising. Amen.

We're going to be busy. Amen. But I have to warn you, it ain't going to be all easy, easy, easy, easy. There's a lot of work to do.

It won't be all partying. There'll be some parties, but it's very labor intensive, labor intensive.

So I go back to that work ethic in this lazy society that we live in, in modern Western society.

With frozen food, I love frozen food because it meets a need for me because I don't have much help at all.

But a lot of people, they have wives and children and grandchildren and brothers and sisters and neighbors and co-workers and friends and buddies and all the help they need.

Most people, most people have tons of help, all the help that they could ask for.

If they ask for it, if they was to manifest that they have that need, they've got their resources, they got their families, they got their support.

They don't need frozen food. They use frozen food only because they're lazy, not because they don't have help.

So their context and my context is in two entirely different things. But this modern Western society of frozen food and microwaves and push the button and remote controls and have everybody do things for you is an awful, very awful society and upside down society.

The Great Tribulation is going to restore things, even in the dark times. It's going to restore masculinity and restore females back to being females and men back to being men and people to be active and not fat, but to be active and to move their bodies, to move their arms and legs and actually do something with their lives.

So even in the worst of times, that's a wonderful and bright light. Even in the very worst parts of the Great Tribulation, even when people are on a machine of torture, pulling their arms and legs off their bodies, those moments are going to be the brightest, most wonderful moments.

The most wonderful, greatest gifts, because those are the moments in which we become God's testimony, God's witnesses, God's martyrs, filled with honor, filled with glory, delivered from this body of corruption.

The darkest moments of the Great Tribulation will be our moments of deliverance. Paul said that we are to glory in our tribulations.

I praise God for all my sicknesses and weaknesses. I praise God for the curses upon my family.

I praise God for every affliction that I've suffered in my life. I praise God for my absolutely horrible childhood, for I was raised in hell.

I praise God for all of my trauma and every time anyone has attacked me and abused me and hurt my feelings, called me false prophet, betrayed me and forsook me.

For it is all of these times that have been the brightest, most glorious moments in my life to bring me to the man that I am now and the man that I am to become.

I praise God that I was not raised with a silver spoon in my mouth. I praise God that I have known times of great poverty, twelve kernels of corn.

I praise God that I know what it's like to eat nothing but bread with something, anything I could find to put on the bread, a little bit of mayonnaise to put on it.

That that's all I have. I praise God I know what it means to get only fifty cents worth of gas when it was three dollars a gallon.

I praise God I know what it means to struggle and to work and to work hard and to teach myself and to not depend upon others.

I praise God for every night, for in the morning the light is going to come. Remember that a thousand years is one day with the Lord and God will cut time short in the mannerism of bringing it in to the death and to the destruction, to pain, to tears, to agony.

The curse will be removed from Africa. The curse will be removed from black people.

The curse will be removed from women. The curse will be removed from men. The curse will be removed from all humanity and death would no longer exist and it will be as if Satan never ever existed.

It will be as if we have always been with the Lord because the truth is we have always been with the Lord.

We were not always saved but we've always been in his presence. We are the children of God.

We are his seed. We are his breath. We are his fire. And we shall shine as the stars of heaven and we shall inhabit the entire universe and we will receive our crowns of precious jewels and of solar systems.

Galaxies where no man has been before but they were created for us to receive and rejoice and to rule and reign.

And we shall all be the sons of God and they will not be any daughters of God. Even the women will become the sons of God.

They won't be male, they won't be female, but they will be the sons of God. But the loss, the dogs will exist no more and it will be as those animals, those dogs, those pigs, those swines, it will be as if they never existed.

We must keep our eyes upon the finish line, not upon the pain, but upon the finish line.
We have a work to do and it must get done. We are not to complain and gripe as they did in the first wilderness.
I don't want to hear the complaining in the wilderness. What I want to hear is the praising that God will take care of us, the faith, the knowledge, the foreknowledge that God will take care of us.
I will be extremely controlling because God has made me as his apostle on this earth and I will not allow laziness and complaining and negativity and nonsense and foolishness.
I will not allow those things in the wilderness. We will not be a repeat of that foolishness, that lack of faith.
We will not repeat their mistakes. We are going to go in and we are going to praise the Lord and believe in the Lord and trust in the Lord, for we are God's people.
And if you cannot agree to that and commit your heart and your mind to that mentality, then die.
Because you would only die anyway and let the dead bury their dead. Amen?

Reminders, Tuesday will be New Moon. Tuesday, January the 20th is New Moon, so we'll have services that day.
And also Monday is R's seven year anniversary. He was baptized seven years ago, Monday the 19th.
So praise God for that. He's endured a whole lot and passed a lot of tests. Amen. Praise God.
And then J as well, he was baptized three years ago. Upcoming this January the 31st, January 31st will be three years for J.
Congratulations to both these brothers. These are great things. Very rare that anyone get baptized and actually continue to grow and continue to stay in the truth and continue to stay in God's true church.
Extremely rare, extremely. So praise God for both of these brothers. They've passed a lot of tests. There's more tests for both of them still yet, but they have passed a lot of tests.
Pray for my wife. She's sick as well. Common sense. And again, as I said, on Parrhesia, please stop telling me or asking me if I'm feeling better because when I start feeling better, I'll let you know.
I know I'm a grumpy old man and I know that you just hear, but I wish people would learn to think before they speak and use vocabulary and words that are logical and make sense.
When somebody comes down with a sickness, a flu, a cold, a virus, and then it's less than 24 hours later, are you feeling better?
Does that match logic? Is that using your brains? We've got to be careful with the words that we use. I'm trying to teach a principle.
People are like, why does it matter? It matters because I want people to start using the neurons of their brain because if you're not using your brain cells, that's going to lead to death.
If you're not using your brain cells, you're going to have a car wreck or you're going to be bitten by a snake or you're going to burn your hands or cut yourself or something if you're not using your brain cells.
So it's a matter of principle of people to start having their brain cells functional and using their brains.
Common sense says it's going to take several days minimum before I could even possibly begin to feel better unless there's a miracle.
So the better words to use would be, I'm praying for you to get well. I'm praying for your recovery.
I'm praying that you will recover quickly. Amen. B is just now getting into her severity and she's a bigger concern for me than what I am for myself about sickness, even though my health demands a very large degree of concern, but I trust God. Amen.
But I have to get through this storm.

So we need to proceed within these next few weeks with caution and preparation, but I want people to use their brains.
We don't need 20 different people to buy a shovel and then we end up with 20 shovels, but then no rake, no trash can, no spoons, no forks, no knives, no axes, because anything, the only thing everybody brings is shovels.
That would be pretty stupid. We need to work together and communicate together. That's very extremely important is that we communicate with each other what we are doing or what we're thinking about doing and what needs to be done and where are the gaps and what needs to be filled instead of just every person going out on their own and just doing whatever you want to do.
There needs to be communication. There needs to be organization. There needs to be cooperation. We need to look to the leadership of the ministry for direction instead of each and every person going out in their own direction.
And this is true physically and spiritually. This is true with preparations. It's true with everyday activities of church activity, church activity, ministry activity, there needs to be organization and direction instead of people doing whatever they've come up with on their own.

We are an organization. We are a structure. We do have leadership. I don't think the leadership is missing.

Okay, what time it is, but I've covered everything and I do want, I need, I know, I need like a clock be brought in this room.

I don't know where we'll put it, what type of clock that I need to be able to see what time it is because all my screens are covered.

I'm gonna try to find a song, put on a song and we'll be right back.
