In the mighty and holy name of Jesus. And the Church say, Amen. You may be seated.

Let's turn to 2nd Corinthians chapter 11.

If you have the one volume paperback, Alpha and Omega Bible, you're welcome to try to follow along in any translation that you have that we're reading from the Alpha and Omega Bible. A restoration of the original scriptures.

Today's sermon topic and title is Demonic Antichrist Lights of Diwali.

And all saints day and Christmas and Halloween. Diwali, I don't know if I'm pronouncing it correctly.

It's a Hindu holiday that they call the festival of lights.

I don't know if it's one day or not, but the last two days it's been all across the internet.

President Trump and many government officials in the United States and Israel and Canada and other nations all declaring a happy Diwali.

And this is very demonic. And it's an infiltration of demonic worship and false gods in the American and Israeli government.

Second Corinthians 11 verse 14. No wonder, for even Satan disguises himself as a messenger of light or angel of light.

We're going to change that. Well, let me think for just a minute here. Let me tell you my thinking. And that is, where it says message for messenger, the Greek word is angel.

But the word angel, just like in Revelation 2 and 3, is not always talking about an angel as we know it.

There are places in the Bible where it is referencing humans, a messenger. So words change definition over time.

There's a Greek word that has two different meanings. An angel being as well as a messenger, whether it's human or angel, either one.

An angel is a messenger. An angel is, they are the messengers of God. Satan is an angel, a demonic angel, a fallen angel. But he disguises himself as an angel of light and as a messenger of light, both, right?

He's already an angel, but an angel of darkness. And he disguises himself as an angel of light, which he does have light.

We are lights, but spirits even more so are lights. Angels are light even more than we are because they don't have flesh.

Satan has light. He has brilliant light, bright light. He's an archangel. He's a powerful angel.

So in that sense, it's more appropriate to say messenger because he's already an angel that is bright, but it's a demonic light.

His light, God gave him his brilliance, his shining light, his power. But Satan disguises himself as a messenger of light.

So messenger is the best translation here. Nevertheless, I think we should put messenger slash angel.

Verse 15, therefore it is no surprising if his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness.

Also, notice that. So that right there tells us that messenger is more correct because it says also, just as Satan also disguises himself as a servant or a messenger of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.

The Pope, the head of the Orthodox Eastern churches, and all the TV evangelists, radio evangelists, and all the false prophets, ministers of the synagogue of Satan, they claim to be servants of righteousness, messengers of righteousness. But we know that they are workers at breaking the law, promoting breaking the law of God, teaching false doctrines, lies, and deceptions in huge numbers.

It's not Satan himself only, but also his servants in government, in society, in churches.

In many areas of life, servants of Satan, co-workers of Satan. We have to realize that if a man or woman is a pastor of a church year after year after year after year, people are asking them questions, they're preparing sermons.

Why are those ministers not growing in truth? Even 10 years and 20 and 30 and 50 years after they begin their ministries, they still preach the same thing, same doctrines, year after year, decade after decade, even though they're preparing a sermon, at least one sermon every week, sometimes two sermons every week, some of them three sermons every week, year after year, but they're not growing in the truth whatsoever at all.

Is that light? Is that loving God? Is that being a true servant of God? Is that being a true Christian, a true pastor, a true leader?

The servants of Satan disguise themselves as servants of righteousness. We know that Matthew 7, we need to add Matthew 7 as a reference to verse 15 here, Matthew 7 verse 21 through verse 23, because we know what that says.

We know it by heart what it says. These religious leaders, they are lost, but teaching and leading congregations and churches and ministry organizations, but they themselves are workers at breaking God's law, his holy days, his Sabbaths, and teach others to do the same.

We have to be careful about who we endorse, who we promote. We have to be careful what videos we share on social media, what videos we watch, who we listen to their preaching and their teachings across the internet, TV, radio.

We have to be very careful about these things, because they disguise themselves as servants of righteousness, and they are very good at doing that, excellent at doing that.

We have to make up our mind, are we going to be part of Babylon, mainstream religion, or are we going to forsake Babylon and come into God's kingdom, his church, his congregation, his truth?

It's one or the other. You can't have it both ways.

Let's go to Mark chapter 7 verse 7. But in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of mankind, neglecting the commandments of God.

You hold on to the traditions of mankind. Amen. Setting aside the commandments of God in order to keep your tradition. Amen.

Now your mainstream religious false Christians would claim, they'd say, but look at the context, it's talking about washing of the pots in verse 7, washing hands, washing cups, washing dishes for the purpose of spiritual cleansing. That's the context, and therefore they claim that we're taking this out of context when we're talking about Christmas and Easter and other pagan days and their other false laws that they make up.

And yes, I acknowledge the context, but when Jesus talked about people laying aside the commandments of God and going on to the traditions of mankind, he was not limiting what he was talking about to only this context of spiritual cleansing of dishes, OCD of cleaning the hands, washing the hands.

He was not limiting to just only that tradition all by itself. Absolutely not. If anybody thinks that he was limiting what he was talking about when he referred to traditions of mankind, if anybody thinks that he was limiting in his heart and his mind that he was talking only about the OCD washing, then these people need to get down on their knees and cry intensely for God to give them a brain and understanding of Scriptures.

We know that he was talking about any traditions of mankind, right? Common sense.

If we have half a brain in our head, we should have enough common sense to know that he was talking about all the false traditions, not just one false tradition.

We also have to be careful here to understand that there are some traditions that are acceptable.

We are not against all human traditions, just the pagan ones. Amen. We have to be very careful about this because there are a lot of legalistic people out there, a lot.

There's a lot of legalistic people out there. Religious Pharisees, even among the people that do abstain from the pagan holidays of Christmas and Easter and so forth.

There's a lot of very extremely religious Pharisees that teach against all traditions, such as Thanksgiving, Fourth of July, and so on.

We have to be very careful about that, to not be legalistic, to not be a Pharisee.

There are some traditions that are completely acceptable if they have no origin in paganism and not associated with pagan symbolism.

The Christ here definitely was not, absolutely was not, limiting what he was talking about.

When he referred to the traditions of mankind, he was talking about all of the pagan traditions and false traditions and demonic traditions and vain and useless traditions.

Absolutely, if we have half a brain, we could understand that. And as he says, they declare their own commandments, many different commandments that they make up themselves or want to hyper-focus on rather than the true commandments and continual commandments of God, including Christmas and belief in the Trinity.

Nowhere is in the whole entire Bible, nowhere is in the entire Bible, does it command the observance of the birthday of Jesus on a yearly annual basis or of his resurrection on an annual basis, observing the date of his resurrection.

The Bible is extremely clear, it spells it out for you. Keep the Passover, observe Pentecost, the Fiesta of Tabernacles, so on, so on, so on.

It's very clear, it spells it out for you. And yet, never commands, not even a little bit, not even slightly, does it command the annual observance of birthdays, Christmas or of his resurrection, but rather the commemoration of his date of death, the complete opposite.

So absolutely, the synagogue of Satan, traditional mainstream Christianity, false Christianity, has their commandments. You must worship Satan. You must do this, you must do all these different things that the Bible never commands, observing Sunday, the first day of the week.

The Bible never commands it, but it does command the seventh day. The commandments of mankind, the fake, false commandments of mankind, which they proclaim as light to the world, falsely so.

As they proclaim as righteousness to the world, falsely so. As they claim as worship to the true God, falsely so.

They are messengers of Satan, and that is the synagogue of Satan, that is the church of Satan.

Every Sunday church is the church of Satan. Every Sunday church is the church of Satan.

Get this in your head, that you was raised in the church of Satan. You either accept the commandments of God or the commandments of Satan.

It's one or the other. Christmas, you must do Christmas, you must do Easter, you must do birthdays, you must believe in the Trinity.

These are the commandments of Satan, Satan has commandments. You must forsake the Sabbath day of Saturday, that is a commandment of Satan.

Go to Jeremiah chapter 10. Even if a mainstream pastor is talking about mercy and grace and love and marriage relationships, why do we want to listen to him or her if we know that he is doing Christmas, which is a demonic holiday, and Easter, which is a demonic holiday, and has a sermon and worship every Sunday, which is a demonic holiday.

Sunday is a demonic holiday. Why do we want to listen to that pastor of Satan's church about marriage relationships, about mercy, about grace, about anything at all, period, when we could go to the Bible, the Scriptures, God Himself, and the true servants of God.

Why would you want to go to the demonic ones? They don't make no sense. Jeremiah chapter 10, verse 1, Hear ye the word of Jesus, which hath spoken to you, O house of Israel.

Thus saith Jesus, Do not learn the ways of the heathen or the pagans, and do not reverence or worship the signs of the sky, for they reverence and worship them falling on their faces.

The signs of the sky being the sun, the moon, the planets, the comets, the constellations.

We do not promote the worship or the idolization of the sun, the moon, the planets, the comets, or the constellations, or the heavenly signs.

We acknowledge that these things exist, that God created them, and God created them for signs, God created them for end-time signs, God created them as His system of the calendar in which we are born under, which Jesus was born under, which all mankind are born under.

We recognize the connection between the constellations and the planets, and God Himself, and us, that we are part of the universe.

We are part of the universe. Are we not? Are we outside of the universe? Or are we inside of the universe?

Are we part of the universe? Are we not part of the universe? We recognize reality. We don't worship the creation.

We worship the Creator that created all these things. We recognize the significance of these things.

But the people that do Sunday, Christmas, and Easter, they're worshipping the creation.

They're worshipping the actual tree on Christmas. They're worshipping Saturn, the sun itself.

Sunday is worship of the sun. If you've got half a brain, Sunday is worship of the sun.

Easter is worship of the sun. Christmas is the winter solstice. All this is simple stuff. Even a child can understand these things, but you have to be willing to learn, which most people are not, yet be willing to let go of the demon worship, which most people are not.

You have to be willing to let go of the worship of the sun and the day of the sun, which most people are not willing to let go of. Amen?

Jeremiah 10 verse 3. For the customs, traditions of the nations, the Gentiles, are vain.

We know that Jesus said, the customs of the people are vain. We know that Jesus said, the customs of the people are in vain.

They worship me in vain. So we need to add a reference here, the end of verse 3, to Mark 7, verse 7 and 8.

Here in Jeremiah 10, verse 3, adding the reference to Mark 7, 7, and verse 8. It's a direct connection.

How can we ignore the words of Jesus in Mark 7, verse 7, and hear the words of Jesus in Jeremiah 10, verse 3, where in both places he calls this a vain worship?

So these people say, well, I'm not worshipping creation. I'm not worshipping the tree.

I'm not worshipping the sun. I'm not worshipping demons, but I'm worshipping Christ.

And yet Christ says, you worship me in vain. It's useless. But they're worshipping something. Are they not?

If they're not worshipping Christ in a useful manner, in a way that he accepts, in a way that truly glorifies him in the truth, in his righteousness, in his truth, in his law, his commandments, and the way he desires to be worshiped, then what are they worshipping? They're worshipping something.

Verse 3. It is a tree cut out of the forest, the work of the carpenter, or a molten image. They are beautified.

Those things are beautified with silver and gold. They fix them, fashion them with hammers and nails.

They set them to where they won't move. It is worked silver. They will not walk. It is forged silver, brought from Tharsis.

Gold will come from Mophaz, and the work of goldsmiths. They are all the work of craftsmen.

They will clove themselves with blue and scarlet. They must be lifted by humans. They cannot mount themselves. Fear them not, for they cannot do any evil.

There's no good in them either. Footnote says this is the origin of the Christmas tree.

It was an evergreen tree and other materials, silver and gold, used to make an idol to false Assyrian gods.

Especially at the winter solstice, around December the 21st through the 25th, all the way up into January, the 12 days of Christmas.

To this day, people are presenting gifts at the feet of the Assyrian idol Christmas tree decorated with silver and gold and other decor.

A lot of people say this is not a Christmas tree. And it's true that it wouldn't look exactly the way our Christmas tree does today.

It could have been a totem pole, but whatever shape, whatever appearance, it was a tree that was decorated with silver and gold.

Now, rather, you want to cut that tree into the shape of a pyramid, a shape of a cube, a shape of an angel, a shape of a dog, a shape of a cat, whatever shape.

Shape of a totem pole that's three levels high with different faces on it. I don't care.

The principle was the same, that they were taking wood, cutting a tree down, bringing it into where it won't fall down and decorating it, and claiming that it's worship of God is the same as the golden calf.

So it doesn't matter whether it's made out of plastic, glass, metal, copper, gold, or wood.

The spiritual principle is the same. It's idolatry, and it is not worship that is accepted by the true God.

It is a vain tradition, a custom that is useless in the worship of God and really and truly worships Satan and the creation.

Notice that there's a connection with worship in verse two, worship of the sun, the moon, the planets, and the constellations in connection with this tree that they cut down.

It's connected. The reality and the fact is that the winter solstice, first day of the winter, they recognized the evergreen tree as a symbol of eternal life, as all the other trees, for the most part, would lose their leaves and appear dead for the entire winter season.

But the evergreen tree would remain green and alive and fertile all year long, all four seasons, all winter long.

It was a symbol of eternal life to them, and therefore they worshiped it, the evergreen tree, as well as the oak tree as well that they did worship.

So we have to be careful about the oak tree festivals that almost every town has, every county has.

The oak tree festival, absolutely not. We don't go to that crap. The evergreen tree, the festival of Christmas, the tree is the center of Christmas, not Christ, not Jesus, not even the birth of Christ.

They do not focus on that. They focus on the tree. It's all about the Christmas tree, all about it. The consolation is the winter solstice, the consolation that would reveal it's the first day of winter.

They understood in that day and time how to look up into the sky and tell exactly what was the first day of winter and spring and summer and fall.

They would know exactly what day was the beginning of each season and would worship that day.

The start of all four seasons was a high holy day in witchcraft, paganism. Witchcraft is worship of the creation.

Witchcraft is worship of the earth and the planets and the stars and the constellations.

We can't deny any of this. This is all truth, 100% truth. Christmas is the worship of the consolation that signified the first day of winter.

It is worship of the evergreen tree as a tree that would never die, as if it was a god.

We also know that the Catholic Church and some of the other churches confess that they believe that December 25th was the day that Adam and Eve sinned, the fall of men, the fall of mankind, the fall of Adam and Eve.

They claim that whether it was or not, I don't know. I can't guarantee it, but it very well could have been, very well could have been.

But the Catholic Church and other churches do believe that is when it occurred. So think about that.

What happened at the fall of Adam and Eve? How did they fall? They went to what they see, what they symbolize as a tree, a forbidden tree that they're not supposed to have, that they're not supposed to associate with, that they're not supposed to touch or taste.

So what is Christmas tree is a symbol of the forbidden tree. In fact, it's called a paradise tree in those churches.

The Garden of Eden in the Greek is called the Paradise of Eden. Why in the world do they put a rope that is silver or gold colored, a rope around the tree representing a snake?

What else could it represent? What's the purpose of a rope that is circling the tree?

Some people actually put apples in their tree. We know that some people put those metal balls or aluminum balls in their trees.

That's representative of an apple. Absolutely. No doubt of that. Some people say it's representative of testicles.

I don't believe that. But it's very clear that it's representative of an apple. We know it wasn't originally an apple. We know that crap.

That don't make sense. An apple is good for you. It wasn't an apple. But by tradition, by legend, we've come to know the fruit of the forbidden tree is an apple.

What do they put up on top of the Christmas tree? An angel. It's the worship of angels. Everything about Christmas is demonic based on a lie.

It's actually the birthday of Zeus and other demons. The anniversary of the fall of mankind is very demonic, so it's a false light.

It's a light that claims to be a light of righteousness, but it's a demonic light.

You could call it a festival of lights because of all the Christmas lights, and that's a big part of it.

All the Christmas lights is a huge part of Christmas, but it's not reflecting the light of Christ when it's based on a lie.

When a lie is the foundation of it, when it honors the fall of mankind, when it honors sin, when it celebrates the birthdays of demons, December 25th we know actually was when Antiochus Epiphanes defiled the temple during the time of the Maccabees.

It was December 25th. We know that for a fact because it was the birthday of Zeus, and he chose that day to do it in honor of Zeus.

December 25th Christmas honors the defilement of God's temple. December 25th Christmas honors Antiochus Epiphanes and the abomination of desolation of that day and time.

Christmas is a demonic light to the world.

Now we also have to understand here that the giving of gifts is not a pagan thing.

It's not paganism to give somebody a gift or to exchange gifts. We have to be careful about that because you've got a lot of those legalistic Pharisees out there that want to include that as a pagan thing.

But the giving and receiving and exchanging of gifts is not paganism. We can read about Purim and Hanukkah both.

When we read about both of those holidays in the Bible, it says that they gave gifts at Hanukkah and at Purim.

There's nothing wrong with giving people gifts.

But it is demonic to cut down a tree out of the forest, bring it in your house or even buy a plastic one and decorate it with gold and silver.

Put apples and snakes on it and an angel on it and bow down to it and give gifts to it and then claim you're serving God.

That's number one, it's stupid. And number two is demonic. And how anybody in this world can't see that as being demon worship and worship of the tree when you're bowing down and giving gifts to the tree.

And you can't see that as being idolatry, then there's a few screws loose in your head.

Is that simple? Is that clear? Is that easy to discern?

Exodus chapter 20 verse 1.

Jesus spoke all these words. Beneath whatever are in the waters under the earth, you should not bow down to them nor serve them.

I am Jesus, your Theos, the Almighty Alpha, and I am jealous. Amen. They bow down to them. Bow down to the Christmas tree.

The Christmas tree is taking an image of something that is in the earth and then bowing down to it.

The Christmas tree breaks the First Commandment and the Second Commandment. Absolutely.

Absolutely. We must be careful to have only one God, not two, not three, not a million.

The Hindu religion has literally thousands and thousands and thousands of gods. A lot of people that have left Hinduism, they'll tell you that.

They will confess. Absolutely. Hinduism has thousands and thousands and thousands of gods. They will tell you that.

They should know because they were born and raised in it. They know what they're talking about.

After they leave it, they know what they're talking about. People that are still involved in Hinduism, they don't know what they're talking about because they're under the delusion, the deception, the darkness, the bondage of that very demonic religion.

And Hinduism is just as demonic as Islam. Just as demonic. People need to understand that. So when I see President Trump and other officials of the United States government and Israeli government and even surprisingly Ted Cruz, Senator or Representative, whatever he is right now, and I see Ted Cruz and even the governor of Texas, this is very surprising of these very conservative Republicans idolizing and promoting the very demonic Hindu worship.

Now of course in their minds, it's just a festival of lights. Diwali.

They think it's just a harmless, just lighting candles and eating. And that's it.

They're blind. They have no spiritual discernment at all. Zero. They call themselves Christians, but they're doing Christmas.

They're doing Easter. They're doing Sunday. They believe in the Trinity. Every one of them.

A lot of them are Catholic or married to Catholics, one or the other. So it really should not be surprising to me at all if they already embrace demonic lights of Christmas and Halloween and Easter and Sunday and Trinity.

If they already embrace those demonic lights, what's one more? What's one more false god?

What's one more demon of Hinduism? We know that the true festival of lights is Hanukkah.

So Diwali is a counterfeit, a demonic counterfeit of Hanukkah. The festival of lights is Hanukkah.

Hanukkah being a biblical holy day and when Jesus was conceived. Jesus is the light of the world.

Jesus is the true light. But I was encouraged to see a lot of people on the internet speaking out against Diwali.

A lot of conservatives, a lot of Republicans, a lot of Christians were saying that Trump is worshipping demons.

I have never seen this many Christians and this many conservatives and this many Republicans actually expose Trump and speak against him for the first time.

So I'm impressed and encouraged that a lot of people was very upset with the governor of Texas, President Trump and Ted Cruz and the other that are normally a lot of times really good conservative leaders having involved themselves in this demonic Hindu worship now.

So I'm very encouraged to see so many people speak out against it. Nevertheless, the majority of these people speaking out against this demonic worship, they themselves are guilty of demonic worship every Sunday, every Christmas, every Easter and a lot of them every Halloween.

So it's hypocrisy. It's a package deal. Satan's holidays are a package deal, just like God's biblical holy days are a package deal.

So it's hypocrisy for these people to expose Diwali as demonic, which it is, but yet they continue in the synagogue of Satan.

The church of Satan with Christmas and Easter and Sunday and Halloween and Trinity.

Let's go to 1st Corinthians 5, verse 8, Therefore celebrate the feast, not with old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

We see very clearly here that the Apostle Paul, the Apostle of the New Covenant, which by the way, we need to always capitalize old covenant and new covenant.

These are proper nouns. But the Apostle of the New Covenant taught the continuation of the biblical holy days.

That's very clear and easy to see right here. He didn't say don't keep it. He didn't say it's done away with or removed or erased. He said keep it.

Even in chapter 11 also he talks about keeping the Passover as well. So it's very clear and this was decades after the crucifixion and resurrection of Christ Jesus, decades later.

And yet the New Testament Church and the leaders of the New Testament Church was still observing the biblical holy days.

They clearly did not believe that they was done away with. So if we have a very clear decoration to keep the biblical holy days, but we have no biblical decoration to observe Christmas or Easter or Trinity or Halloween or All Saints Day or Ash Wednesday or St. Valentine's Day or St. Patrick's Day.

We have no biblical commandment from the apostles or disciples or Christ or the Old Testament prophets.

We have no biblical example of them observing it, not only the commandment, not only commanding us, but even them observing it.

No such thing. They never observed the birthday of Christ, never did. It would have said so if they did. How come we have no words in the Bible describing them keeping the birthday of Christ? Nowhere.

Deuteronomy 18, verse 10.

Verse 10 says, we're going to back up to verse 9, and when you have entered the land as Jesus your Theos gives you, you should not learn to do according to the abominations of those nations or of those Gentiles.

Yes, he's talking about the land of Canaan, but we can also also reference this to even when God gave the English the land of America and the land of Africa and the land of India.

God did give the Israelites the land of India with the British Empire. God did give the land of Africa to the British.

God did give the land of Africa to the Boers. God did give the land of the Americas to the British.

God did. So even though this was in the immediate context and primary context of the Israelites entering Canaan, we're not taking it out of context at all when we're talking about other times that God brought the Israelites into Gentile nation lands. Amen.

God had brought the British and the Israelites into other lands throughout history.

Any time that God brings us into the land of the Gentiles, we should be careful to not break the First Commandment.

So whether we're talking about 3000 or 4000 or 5000 years ago or 200 years ago, the same spiritual principle applies when you enter into a foreign land because God is bringing you in as invaders against the heathen that deserve to be invaded, deserve to be enslaved, deserve to be conquered because of their rich craft, because of their worship of the creation, because of their worship of the earth itself, because their worship of pagan gods and trees, they deserve to be conquered.

When we come into that land, be careful that you not fall into the trap and bondage of worshiping the same gods that they worship as a very easy spiritual principle to understand.

Verse 10, there should not be found in you one who purges his son or his daughter with fire, one who uses divination, who deals with omens and fortune telling.

A practitioner of witchcraft employing incantation, one who has in him a divining spirit, an observer of signs questioning the dead.

The observer of signs is in the context of a divining spirit, fortune telling. This is not a forbidding of recognizing that Jesus was born under the sign of the virgin, lived as a virgin all of his life, born from a virgin under the sign of a virgin. That's not demonic, that's not witchcraft, that's just acknowledging facts. Amen.

And to do that with our own birth is also just only acknowledging facts. It's not in the same context in which this signs is where they're worshipping the constellations, worshipping the planets, worshipping the first day of winter, worshipping Halloween, worshipping the trees, these things is a different context.

Verse 12, and everyone that does these things is an abomination to Jesus your Theos, for because of these abominations Jesus will destroy them from before their face. Amen.

And you should be sinless before Jesus your Theos, and all these nations whose lands you should inherit, they will listen to omens and deviations, but Jesus your Theos has not permitted you so to do.

We have to be careful about talking to the dead in verse 11, questioning the dead, where they have the seances, talking to the dead, this is forbidden in scripture.

And yet they do this on Halloween, they do this on All Saints Day. Now Halloween is also called All Hallows Eve. It is a sacred holiday to witches and to Catholics. It is also known as the Day of the Dead in the Caribbean, in Mexico, in the Latino nations.

The Day of the Dead honors the dead. All Saints Day honors the dead. Halloween, All Saints Day, and the Day of the Dead, all three are Catholic, demonic, darkness, ritual, demon, Satan worship.

And all three are the same thing over a 48-hour period. They're the exact same holiday, a day of darkness, a day of death, glorifying witchcraft, glorifying vampirism, glorifying death and destruction and darkness.

And yet they go out and put candy on the grave and flyers on the grave and they build altars in their homes and put flyers and food and drink for the dead to drink and eat when they cannot eat and drink or see or smell or touch those things.

They parade skeletons through the streets. And yet they call themselves Christians.

They do. That's not loving God, that's not respecting God, that's not honoring God, that's not fearing God.

And the Bible says that the fear of God is the beginning of wisdom. These people have no wisdom because they have no fear of God, they have no wisdom.

It is demonic worship to the extreme and yet they call themselves Christians. They put a candle, a light inside the pumpkin.

They even put up their Christmas trees on Halloween, a lot of people. Christmas and Halloween are very closely united.

It's the same spirit. Witchcraft. We are not practices of witchcraft in any way, shape or form. We expose witchcraft.

The letter Y, Assyrian names, is witchcraft. Yahweh, Yahshua, Yahuwahshua is witchcraft.

Sunday, Christmas, Easter, Halloween, the Day of the Dead, All Saints Day, all of it, witchcraft.

Trinity, witchcraft. It's all witchcraft, every bit of it. We expose witchcraft and encourage people to leave the church of witchcraft. Witchcraft is a religion.

It is worship. They believe in gods, but it's the god called Earth. They worship the Earth as a god. And they even call female witches, goddesses, worship of the self.

But there's another demonic light that we must be aware of. 2 Thessalonians chapter 2, verse 3.

Let no one in any way deceive you.

It is not until the hypocrisy, the falling away comes first, and the appearance or the personage of the lawlessness, is manifested the son of destruction.

The antichrist, we call him. Verse 4, who opposes and exalts himself above everything that is called god, or worship of worship.

He was sit, the object of worship. He was sit in the temple of the theos, exhibiting himself as being theos.

If he is exhibiting himself as being god, it's going to be a bright light. If you can see it from heaven, on earth, it's going to be a bright light.

It's going to be a bright light. For even Satan himself and even his son, the son of perdition, the antichrist, the son of Satan, also projects himself as a light, a bright light.

But it's a demonic light. And this is going to happen on Purim, God's holy day of Purim, to help the Jews worship him, as well as the Christians.

We must beware of these angels that are bright lights, but are demonic. We must beware of the false holy days, and we must beware that even Satan knows the date of God's holy days, and will do magic on the date of God's true holy days, in order to draw people in to worship him.

We must beware of this. Many times I have told you over and over and over to beware of the miracles and amazing things that we're going to see in the future, to not fall for those demonic things, demonic miracles, raising of the dead, healing of the sick, through the demonic energy of the Catholic Church and of Islam.

You must be extremely cautious, aware of these things. Matthew 24, verse 24. Page 646, 24, verse 24. Page 646.

Because false christs or false messiahs and false prophets will arise and will show great signs and wonders, who has to deceive, if possible, even the elect.

You must be aware that there are prophets, so called, out there that know the truth about certain things in the future.

There's a lot of people that know the truth about the Chinese and Russian invasion of America.

There are a lot of people out there, YouTube preachers. There are warning the people of the Chinese and Russian invasion, but that still doesn't make them true prophets of Jesus.

Satan knows the future. Satan knows prophecy. Satan knows God's holy days and God's law and God's commandments. We must be aware of people that are YouTube preachers and local preachers and Internet preachers that have elements of truth.

They have miracles. They know the Sabbath. They know the holy days. But they still worship the letter Y of Syrian witchcraft names.

And they're very legalistic. Or they still believe in the Trinity. Or they still believe in the fairy tale of the pre-tribulation of the rapture. Or some other demonic doctrines that they still hold onto and promote, even though they know a lot of truth.

Perhaps even some true prophecies. Perhaps even a very good healing ministry. And they're really great and much better than we are at making videos and memes. And so they really draw people in by large numbers because they're so good at making videos, which we are not.

So we're handicapped in that. We're disabled in that. But we have the truth, as evidenced by the magnitude of the number of Bible verses that we use in every sermon.

As evidenced by the fact that I have stood up here every year and said I was wrong about something and that we need to grow in the truth on that issue.

Because that's what any pastor, any leader, any true servant of the Lord should be doing is growing in the truth.

You cannot grow in the truth if you're not willing to let go of the untruth. Every pastor, every Christian must acknowledge on a yearly basis something that they still don't have right, still don't have right.

That's the definition of growing in the truth. Amen? Right there is an excellent meme.

And finally, Ephesians 5 verse 11. There's a time to answer questions and explain things for people that actually want to learn.

But when people just straight out reject it and they don't want to hear the truth, they're not asking questions to learn but rather they just straight out declare that we're wrong, that we're deceived.

They're right. It's impossible for them to ever, ever, ever be wrong, ever. They know everything. They never grow in the truth because they already know everything.

Their mentality is it's impossible for them to grow in the truth because they already have all truth and it's impossible for them to ever be wrong at any time in their entire life.

That's their mentality. That's your average Christian, your average pastor. And both of those people, they are very deserving of review. We're willing to answer questions, explain things, teach and be patient.

But when people reject God's truth after being shown and being given that opportunity, then they're deserving to be blocked.

So that we not waste our time arguing with Satan and his servants. We have to be careful not to waste our time, our energy and our focus when we've got work to do and finish and accomplish.

Today, this sermon exposes Diwali, the Hindu demonic worship that has entered into the Trump administration by means of the FBI director, which I was against the very first time I ever heard his name or saw his face, a Hindu.

Gentiles have no place in the American government. I don't care whether you're talking about African, black, Hindu, Indian, Chinese, Russian, Mexican, I don't care.

Gentiles have no business being part of the government of an Israeli nation, whether it's in Israel, America, UK, Scotland, Ireland, England, Australia, New Zealand, or South Africa.

Wherever you're talking about, these Israeli nations, Israeli tribes, the tribes of Israel, are to be led by members of the tribe of Israel.

That's just common sense. That's not prejudice. That's not racism. That's common sense.

Americans should lead Americans. Amen.

Hindus, Indians, and Africans and Chinese do not need to be leading Americans because that's how your nation loses its identity, its culture, its history, & breaks its foundation.

Your nation falls apart when you allow the Gentiles to rule your nation.

That concludes today's sermon.

I appreciate you listening and hearing me out all the way to the end. We'll put on a song now.
