Sermon Notes:

This sermon has been preached before, but because of the current timing, is necessary to repeat as a fresh new sermon.

2 Thes. 2 Because they love the lies of false doctrine, believe not the truth. False Christians have put their trust in a fairy tale instead of in Christ Jesus himself.

Rev. 16:5-7 The angel said they deserved it, your judgments are true and just

Romans 1:16-32 Sinners given over to what's unnatural, of which they chose to stay in. :20 They are without excuse.

Romans 2 Hypocritical judgment is another reason why people deserve the judgment.

Judges 2:6-23 Jesus left gentile foreigners within Israel to test us, because of the sins we already committed.

Psalm 81:8-16

- People have chosen to idolize and approve of Putin, Assad, China, Communism, Nazism.
- People have chosen murdering their babies.
- People have chosen to continue in unnatural things such as homosexuality.
- People have chosen witchcraft including the letter Y names, Christmas, Easter & trinity & Halloween, which are all witchcraft.
- People have chosen false religion which is every denomination that you could possibly name.
- People have chosen false doctrine including everything already listed plus Flat Earth stupidity, Planet X stupidity, and pre-tribulation rapture stupidity.
- People have chosen laziness and low standards and complacency.
- People have chosen twisted, corrupted bibles such as the KJV only idolatry.
- People have chosen their false gods such as NFL, other sports, horror movies, anime movies, video games, etc.
- People have chosen the sorcery of going to a fortune telling, palm reading, tarot cards & potions.
- Israelites have allowed gentiles to vote & rule in their nations. Confirmation this morning: I saw that Vance said that Europe is committing "civilization suicide" by not protecting their borders.
- People have allowed women and children to rule them. And made women not only equal, but as heads/leaders.
- People have put their children in government brainwashing concentration camps, & then call it "school".
- People have chosen to sacrifice their children to Satan via all of the above.
- People have chosen their own path to destruction.

Confirmations: Sister D had already prepared to share with the congregation Psalm 73. Around verse 15 or so, until the end of the chapter. This greatly, powerfully confirmed the sermon. She had already prepared this scripture before learning the subject of the sermon.

Then later, after the ending of the worship services, my wife said that she had also read this exact passage earlier today!

Let us all go in prayer and wherever you may be, please stand if you're not already standing.

And let's go in prayer. O Lord Heavenly Father, creator of Heaven and earth, the great Alpha, the great Omega, the beginning and the end, first and the last, the author and the finisher of our faith, our kinsman-redeemer, praise your holy name.

Thank you, Lord Heavenly Father, for what you've already done and for what you're about to do and what you are already in the process of doing.

Thank you that you go before us, that you prepare a way that we do not have to go alone.

Praise your holy name. Father, we trust your timing and your will. This is your earth, your universe, your Heaven, your throne. We wait, we watch, and we trust your will.

We praise you on the mountain, we praise you in the valley, we praise you in between.

We praise you in the night and in the day and in between. We praise you forever without end, for you are worthy.

Father, we do ask for your special help, anointing, and blessing on this word that we're about to receive.

We pray that it will be edifying to the church, but also will provoke repentance where necessary.

Your church be edified, your kingdom increased, and may this gospel of the kingdom be multiplied throughout all the earth.

Use us and see in us as your messengers. May you be glorified in all of it. Heavenly Father, we do say, happy and very blessed to you and to your kingdom. In Jesus' name, amen.

You may be seated. Let's turn to 2 Thessalonians 2, page 767. If you have the one volume, AOB Bible, the Alpha and Omega Bible, a restoration of the original scriptures using older ancient Bible manuscripts, older than what was used for the King James Version.

Page 767, we're in 2 Thessalonians chapter 2. We know that this chapter is extremely relevant to the date of Purim.

Whether we're talking about Purim of this year, or whether it's going to be next year, or whatever year that the strong delusion event will occur, which for people that might be listening for the first time, the strong delusion that it's talking about in this chapter is very specific.

Many different people try to use it for every little thing, but it's very specific to the Antichrist manifesting himself as if he is God.

And that's going to happen on the day of Purim, whether we're talking about this year, or next year, or a future year.

Maybe we'll see in the next few minutes, next few hours, before Purim is finished, perhaps it will be fulfilled.

If not, then we'll praise the Almighty that we'll have another year. That's a great, amazing, blessing provision for the Church, for His Kingdom, for His people.

If we are given another year, we don't know yet. It only takes one second for the entire world to change.

One second. That breaking news could come across at any time. It only takes one second, and we've got several hours. Amen.

We have until sunrise tomorrow morning, Eastern time zone, for the end of Purim, in our time zone, the way that we calculated the two Churches.

And then the Jews are going to continue with even a third day of Purim, into tomorrow.

Because if the second day of Purim, or perhaps even the first day of Purim, as well, if either one of those two days of Purim, if that falls on the weekly Sabbath, they automatically add a third day, because they're so legalistic that they think you can't do certain forms of worship, certain things, even on the Sabbath, which is a day of worship.

So that's insanity, but nevertheless, that's the way they do it. And so we actually have a third day tomorrow, Sunday, for Purim, and we cannot rule out that Jesus would fulfill the prophecy in the Jews' timing.

We have always said that Jesus could choose to do it at the Jews' timing, rather than the correct timing, even as He did not die on Passover, as many people claim, but rather He died the day after Passover, when the Jews were observing the Passover, so that they themselves could recognize the significance when Jesus died at the exact second that they were slaughtering the Passover Lamb, on the wrong day of Passover.

So He could possibly do that, to do it on a day that they are observing it, so that they can recognize the significance, so we can't rule it out.

So we even have an extra day now, even as well, not only until sunrise, but even as the Jews continue to observe a third day of Purim this year, which is different and unique from some of the other years.

But we just have to wait and see, and just trust in the Lord's timing, and as we say, we'll continue to work and do the work of the kingdom, follow Jesus, not give up, not turn back to Babylon, to the false churches and false denominations, not go back to those cults that every doctrine is a lie just about, the majority of their doctrines. We're not going to return back to the cults of Babylon, of Assyria, we'll continue to do the work of the kingdom. We'll praise Him in the day, we'll praise Him in the night, we'll praise Him at all times. Amen.

Second Thessalonians, chapter 2, verse 1, Now we request you, brethren, about the coming of our Lord Jesus the Christ, about our gathering together to Him, that you not be quickly shaken from your composure, or be disturbed either by spirit or a message or a letter, as if it was from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord has come, that no one in any way deceive you, It's not until the Fallen Away, the apostasy comes first, and the personage of the lawlessness is manifested, revealed.

The reason the AOB says personage, rather than the man of lawlessness, is because the Greek word there does not refer to a male, but a being, a being, but he's not human, he's a fallen angel, and therefore we're translating it as a personage, rather than a man, rather than humankind, that is a personage where a being of lawlessness is manifested, the son of tradition.

We're going to just go ahead and take out revealed there. It can be translated as either way, manifested or revealed, but the context is really talking about him being manifested, not just revealed, because God's true Church has revealed his identity for quite a few years now, amen, so it's about him being manifested in the sky, in the temple of God.

So he's going to be manifested as the son of destruction, the son of perdition. Now people don't understand what perdition means, so let's change that to destruction.

We'll continue to do the work to translate this in a way that people understand why it is sin, that this occurs first.

Before Jesus comes, the Antichrist, which is of course vocabulary of the world, the Bible doesn't actually call him the Antichrist, but we use that vocabulary because it's what the Church world uses, but the Bible is calling him the personage of destruction, the son of destruction, the personage of lawlessness, breaking the law of God.

He comes first, and he's manifested. He actually claims himself as God before Christ comes.

This is so clear. There's no way you can misunderstand this. This is as clear as clear can be. And yet, look at how many false Christians, deceived Christians, deceived blind, ignorant pastors that don't understand this and tell you the exact opposite, amen.

Then verse 4, if we get past the footnotes, go to verse 4, who opposes everything and exalts himself.

So we need, because it's kind of confusing, does he oppose himself and exalts himself?

So we're going to add in parentheses, after the word opposes, everything, or all other gods, let's put it, all other gods and religions, all other gods and religions, who opposes parentheses, all other gods and religions, and he exalts himself above everyone called God that includes Allah, or object of worship.

Verse 5, do you not remember that while I was still with you, there's more in verse 4.

I can't see it. My eyes. So that he will sit, going back to verse 4, the second half of verse 4, that he will sit in the temple of Theos, the temple of God, exhibiting himself as being Theos.

So this is how we know that this is going to be a heavenly event, even though all the ignorant pastors and ignorant, deceived Christians think he's going to be in a temple mount temple, a third Jewish temple, which the Bible never, ever, ever mentions at all in the end time.

They assume, they make assumptions that this is in an earthly temple. But Revelation 11 verse 19 says that the temple of God is in Heaven.

So that's not my interpretation. That's not my interpretation. That's not my rendering or my opinion. But it's scripture.

It is scripture. Whereas you can never find scripture saying that there's going to be a temple built on the temple mount.

It's just not there. So this is a heavenly event, which deceives the entire world, as Revelation 13 tells us, that the majority of the earth, of those that survive the events surrounding those days, that they are going to be worshipping the Antichrist.

And so this is a fake rapture 30 days before the Great Tribulation. Exactly 30 days because we understand Daniel 12, where Daniel is told that there will be 1290 days from the time of the abomination of desolation, which is another way of saying the strong delusion.

The strong delusion of the abomination of desolation is the exact same event spoken of by Daniel. Amen.

Matthew 24. Amen. Luke 21, Mark 13. So this is a heavenly event. Now we go down to verse five here. Do you not remember that while I was still with you, I was telling you these things?

And you know who, talking about Michael the archangel, according to Daniel 12, verse one, not our opinion, not our interpretation, but using scripture, is referring back to Daniel 12, verse one, about Michael the archangel, steps out of the way, stops protecting the throne of God momentarily.

We don't know how many seconds, how many minutes, but for an extremely short period of time, obviously by common sense, that Michael stops protecting the throne of God, steps away by the commandments of the Lord to step away, and that allows the strong delusion to occur, Assad to sit in the seat of God in Heaven momentarily, a few seconds, a few minutes, we don't know how long, and allows the Great Tribulation to be ushered in 30 days later.

So verse six, do you not know, and you do know who, restrains him, restraining the antichrist from taking the throne momentarily, restraining him now, because angels biblically is what restrains.

You can see that throughout scripture, that angels are restrainers. So Michael the archangel is restraining him, the antichrist, the other angel, the false angel, the fallen angel, so that in his time he will be manifested.

So we remove the word revealed as we continue to perfect the AOB Bible. So Brother J and R, because none of these edits I've got written down, they're just coming to me as we read that Jesus is helping me to get this perfected.

Verse seven, for the mystery of lawlessness is already at work, of course, amen. Even back then when this was being written, amen, that that mystery of lawlessness was already at work.

Only he who now restrains would do so until he's taken out of the way. This is not talking about the Holy Spirit.

This is not talking about Jesus, the Holy Spirit of Jesus, the Holy Ghost of Jesus, being taken out of the way.

That's crazy talk, but that's the crazy talk that these ignorant pastors, ignorant churches, ignorant deceived false Christians believe these fairy tales that they teach you by twisting scripture they do, amen.

The Bible never says that the Holy Spirit will be taken off the earth. In fact, we find in the Bible it talks about after the sixth seal is opened that there's going to be such a great number of people that become cleansed in the blood of Christ of every language, every tribe, every color on earth, that there's going to be a great multitude in that final year of Great Tribulation of people saved.

It's going to be the greatest time of salvation that's ever existed for all of humankind, the final year, 12 months of that, of the Great Tribulation.

How can you say the Holy Spirit is removed from the earth, amen? The Bible contradicts these false churches, the synagogue of Satan.

Now, verse 8, then that wicked one would be manifested, again, remove the word revealed, he would be manifested from whom the Lord was slain, J, I'm counting on you for that, manifested whom the Lord was slain with the breath of his mouth, amen, and bring to an end by the appearance of his coming.

Verse 9, that is the one whose coming is in cooperation with the strong work of Satan with all power and signs and deceiving wonders, amen.

So this is a fake coming of Christ in the clouds. It's actually the Antichrist coming in the clouds in a fake rapture 30 days before the Great Tribulation, and that's the express purpose of the pre-trib rapture doctrine is to get the so-called Christians to fall down on their knees and worship the Antichrist when he appears in the sky.

That's the purpose of the pre-trib rapture fairy tale, which is why it is a topic that is directly related to salvation and is a topic worthy of disfellowship when people disagree with it.

Remember that, leaders of the church, H, AJ, that it is a topic to disfellowship over because it's that serious they're going to worship a fallen angel, a demon.

You've got all these people saying it's not important, it's not a salvation issue, and yes it is, amen.

Because it seems like nobody's ever read this chapter before. It really does seem like no pastor and no Christian on this earth has ever read this chapter before.

It really does seem like that. But there's going to be great signs, deceiving wonders, as I've warned about recently and warned about over and over and over and over over the years, to not be deceived by statues bleeding, statues crying, statues and stones speaking that we're going to see in the Great Tribulation, the pope and the head of the Eastern Orthodox Church, which are the two horns of the false prophet, when they are going to be working great miracles, and so many other things, and the Antichrist in the sky, and they're going to even raise the dead of confidence of it.

Verse 10, that next page, verse 10, And of all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, amen, bingo.

I know I need a bell to hit. Write that down. A ding ding ding ding ding bell. Amen.

I want one. It's going to be here for next worship service. Ding ding ding.

They received not the love of the truth, so as to be saved. Amen.

And they say they love God. And how many people have come into the truth over the years, and they contact me and they say, my parents love God.

My grandparents love God. My brother, my sister, they love God. My pastor, my church, where I attend on Sunday, and they worship Christmas and Easter, which are satanic holidays, they love God.

Cry me a river. Amen. They love not the truth. If they love the truth, they would seek the truth.

If they loved God, when you showed them the holy scriptures about the Sabbath and the holy days, and one God rather than three gods, when you showed them the scriptures, they would immediately repent, because it's that simple in scripture. Amen.

The new covenant church, decades after the resurrection of Christ, still keeping the biblical holy days, still keeping the Sabbath, still worshipping one Lord, all of this is so abundantly clear in scripture.

If they loved God, and you showed them the scripture, they would immediately repent and join you for worship, and join the true church, and be baptized, and get saved.

But they love not the truth to be saved. Amen. Revelation 12, is it verse 9, maybe, that says that Satan has deceived the entire world?

The entire world is not half the world. But the churches want you to believe that less than half of the world is deceived. The Bible says the whole world, that Satan has deceived the entire world. That's all the pastors.

That's all the churches. That's all the denominations. Every one of them. Not every one, but one.

But every one of those denominations, meaning a division of the Catholic Church. That's what the word denomination means, is a division.

Christ is not divided, Paul said. Amen. We are not part of a division. Amen. Verse 12 now. He says, In the order that they may be judged, who did not believe the truth, but took pleasure in wickedness.

And the wickedness he's talking about is more specifically the pre-trib, rapture, wicked fairy tale.

It's a wicked, wicked, wicked, wicked fairy tale. So it is a salvational issue. Amen. It is good.

As we say, it only takes one second for this to occur. If it don't happen this year, we'll praise God that we have more time to make more psalms for the Church, to perfect the AOB Bible even more for the Church, so more people can get saved, more people can find the truth.

We'll wait. We'll praise God either way. But this will be fulfilled. It's written.

It's written. It will be fulfilled on Purim, and I will never repent of that. If the stone delusion does not happen today or tomorrow, I will not repent, because that timeline cannot be broken.

It's written in Daniel 12, exactly 1,290 days, coming up to 1,335 days, and you examine it yourself.

I've always said many times over the years, you look at that timeline, Brother R, have I not said, because some people are new, but you've been with us long enough, have I not said for people to look at the timeline yourself, your own self, calculate the number of days, look at what every one of those seals, what those events are, the holy days, what each holy day symbolizes, what each holy day represents.

You decide, is that timeline correct? Is that timeline correct? Amen? You're either going to believe it or not believe it, but that timeline cannot be broken.

It will not be broken. The only question is, what year does it begin? That's the only, only question. Amen?

And God is the one that's going to give Michael the Archangel the order to step aside, not us. Amen?

God Himself will be the one that tells Michael the Archangel, move out of the way, release it, release it. Amen?

We've got to be ready. And we'll continue if it doesn't happen. It may happen by the time we get done preaching, I don't know, but we will continue to serve the Lord, regardless. Amen?

Let's go to Revelation chapter 16. Now what we're about to read is in the context of the wrath after the Great Tribulation is done.

People don't understand that either, that the wrath and the Great Tribulation are two different time periods.

And actually there's two rafts, but we're talking about the final 41 and a half days after the end of the Great Tribulation.

Revelation 16 verse 5. And let's go up to verse 4 so you can see a little bit, a little bit of the context.

Revelation 16 verse 4. Then the third angel poured out his bow, or vow, into the rivers and the springs of waters, and they became blood.

And I heard the angel of the waters saying, righteous are you, talking about Jesus, who are and who were oh holy one, not holy three, amen, but oh holy one, because you judged these things. Amen?

Verse 6. For they poured out the blood of the saints and prophets, and you have given them blood to drink.

They deserve it. So this angel says that the people deserve what they're getting, blood to drink. Amen?
Today's sermon is called, Why We Deserve the Judgment of the Great Tribulation.
Even though that particular verse is talking about the wrath after the Great Tribulation, the spiritual point, the spiritual principle that's behind what that angel is saying is true beyond just 41 days, right?
Come on now. It's true beyond that 41 and a half days. It's always true. It's always been true that the judgments of God are righteous, that God is the righteous judge.
He is fair. Amen? And we deserve the judgment that we get, every one of us. As I've said many times over the years, I don't understand it when people, when they suffer, and they use that phrase, what have I done to deserve this?
When they use that phrase, it always comes into my mind and my heart how ignorant they are to their own sins. Because if I suffer and if I think that it's something that I have done, then I know what I have done.
But most people don't. Most people don't judge themselves enough to know what they have done.
There's a mystery to them why they suffer. Now not everything, not all suffering is the consequence of your sin, but of the sins of Adam and Eve and society and government.
It's not all your fault every time you suffer, so don't misunderstand me. But many times it is the consequences of our decisions, our sins, our actions, our wrong choices, wrong decisions, wrong direction, our own will. Amen.
Many times it is. But why we deserve the judgment of the Great Tribulation? We're not going to escape the Great Tribulation as far as being, that we're not going to fly off into Heaven, amen.
We're going to be here on this earth, and not only do we deserve the Great Tribulation, but we need it.
We need the Great Tribulation because there's going to be a time of purifying. There's going to be a time of testing. There's going to be a time of repentance, as we said. There's going to be a great time of salvation, amen.
We not only deserve it, we need it, amen.

Let's go to Romans chapter 1 now. Romans 7, 28. Romans 1, verse 16.
Romans 1, verse 16. For I am not ashamed of the gospel, amen. For it is the power of Theos for salvation to everyone who commits to the Judeans first and also to the Greek, amen.
Verse 17. For in it the righteousness of Theos is revealed or manifested from faith to faith.
So I'm going to say that word revealed there. Let's do revealed slash manifested.
From faith to faith. As it is written, but the righteous shall live by faith. For the wrath of Theos, or the anger of God, is revealed or manifested from Heaven against all ungodliness.
Again, let's do revealed slash manifested. From Heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of people who suppress the truth in unrighteousness.
Please underline, suppress the truth. Because that's exactly what's happening. Why our families, our friends deserve the judgment. Why these churches, why every church on every street corner deserve the judgment.
Why your brothers and your sisters and your parents, aunts and uncles deserve the judgment.
Why these television evangelists deserve the judgment. Why these governments and empires on the earth and schools deserve the judgment. Amen.
Because they actually suppress the truth and fight against the truth in unrighteousness.
Verse 19, because that which is known about Theos is evident within them. For Theos made it evident to them.
For since the creation of the world, his invisible aptitudes, his eternal power, and divine nature have been clearly seen. Pause. Stars, the constellations, the eclipses. Amen. All of these are testimonies that God exists. Amen.
The fact that the comets and asteroids have not destroyed the earth. Amen. These are testimony to the existence of God. Even the fact that nuclear war has not yet destroyed all and will not ever destroy all of humanity is proof of God.
These things have been clearly seen through nature. His power has been seen. Even ignorant people without scripture knew that there was a God that exists just because they saw the sun and the moon.
Unfortunately, they thought the sun and the moon was God. But at least, at least, they had enough sense to know that was proof that there was a God.
And yet today, people don't have that much sense. Amen. It's clearly seen being understood through what has been made, the creation, so that they are without excuse.
I couldn't count the number of times that that question has come up over the years.
What about the people in the jungles, people that don't have the Bible, never had the Bible, never heard the name of Jesus?
And I always refer this scripture to them. They're without excuse. Because the constellations, they are a form of scripture. Absolutely. Amen.

Absolutely. Verse 21. For even though they knew Theos, they did not honor him as Theos or give thanks, but they became futile.

Futile. How do you say that, R? Futile. Futile in their speculations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

Professing to be wise, amen, they became fools, and they exchanged the glory of the incorruptible Theos for image in the form of a corruptible man and of birds and four-footed animals and crawling creatures.

That's exactly what the Native Americans did. So-called Native Americans. That's exactly what the Hindus have done. That's exactly what the Buddhists have done. Amen.

And that's exactly what the Catholics have done. Amen. And witches and wicca, they have done this.

So many different groups are guilty of this. And verse 24. Therefore, Theos gave them over, and that's going to be a major part of the context of the sermon as well, is that God gives people over to the things that they have chosen to serve.

They have chosen their gods. Gave them over to the lusts of their heart, not talking about sexual lust, but rather idolatry, to impurity so that their bodies would be dishonored among them, for they had changed the truth of Theos for a lie. Amen.

Two Thessalonians, two. And worshiped and served the creation rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever.

He is sacred forever. This is true. Amen. The word amen means this is true. I've taught that a million times, and yet people in the church still yet don't use the word amen correctly.

So I translate it as this is true. Verse 26. For this reason, Theos gave them over to degrading passions, including homosexuality in this context, for their women exchanged the natural function for which which is unnatural.

And in the same way also the men abandoned the natural function of the woman and burning their desire toward one another, men with men committing indecent acts, and receiving in themselves the due penalty of their error.

So very clearly that the Bible does speak against homosexuality for both the men and the women.

I have repeatedly talked about the women, homosexual acts, being a sin just as much as the men.

We don't approve of it, never have approved of it. I've never said one word in approval of lesbianism, even though Kiki claims that I have taught that lesbianism should be performed.

I've never taught that. Verse 26. Just as they did not seem fit to acknowledge the Theos any longer, Theos gave them over to a disqualified or impure mind to do these things which were not proper.

God gave them over to what they have chosen. You have free will. Amen. You have free will.

You are not pre-designed to be saved. You're not pre-designed to be lost. You have free will, and God gives you over to what you have chosen to serve. Because in that way, it's like a father that might allow his son to smoke a whole cigarette and force him to smoke the entire cigarette to make him sick so that he won't smoke it again.

God is doing that to humanity. If that's what you've chosen to do, then do it. And suffer the consequences and learn your lessons so that you repent. He does this out of love.

So that you see the consequence. Because you can preach it and you can say it over and over and over and over, but you don't really learn until you experience it.

And you learn and you see, oh, God was right after all. Amen.

Verse 29. Amen. What a list. Amen. Although they know the ordinance of Theos. Amen.

They know. They know. Many of them have read the Bible. Many of them have read the Bible.

That those who practice such things are worthy, worthy, of their judgment.

The title of today's sermon is why we deserve the judgment. Amen. Such things, they are worthy of death. They not only do the same, but they also give hearty approval to those who practice them.

So they're actually proudful of it. Gay pride. Amen. They're proud of witchcraft.

They actually have it tattooed on their body that they're witches. So on, so on, so on.

They're not shameful of their sins. The pride of sin is everywhere. Everywhere you look, they're proud of their sins. Amen.

I want you to look at Chapter 2 now after I get me a sip of drink here.

Sometimes this list of names appears on my computer screen that you're present, that you're listening.

Sometimes your name drop off the list. It's a glitch in the system. If you're still listening, I'd appreciate if you just say amen in the chat room or click on a heart or something or a smiling face and let me know that you're still listening.

I really appreciate it when you do that. But over here in Romans Chapter 2, let me get a breath for a second.

Verse 1, Therefore you have no excuse, every one of you who passes unjust judgment.

Now that word unjust is not in the Scripture. We add that in parentheses so that people can understand the Scripture. They look at verses like this and also over in Matthew 7 verse 1 where it talks about judgment there as well.

They look at verses like this. Thank you everyone that is commenting and hearing.

Thank you very much. And so they look at verses like this and they go by what they have always been taught by pastors that are not called to preach, not called to teach, amen, that are twisting the Scriptures.

Because the Bible does say that we are to judge correctly with righteous judgment and that we are going to judge angels, that we are going to judge the world in that, and that we must even judge one another before we take communion.

That's biblical as well. So it's not wrong to judge people because actually it's impossible not to judge people.

The very people a million times in my lifetime that I've heard people say I don't judge, I don't judge, I don't judge. And they're lying. And they're lying to themselves. And they're deceiving themselves. It's impossible to not judge.

You judge the waiter. You judge the police, the president, the governor, the mayor, preachers, other Christians.

You judge your family. You judge your friends. You judge everyone. It's impossible to not judge.

It's impossible. And it's absolutely necessary to judge. If you don't judge people, you're going to end up dead really quick. And that's the God-honest truth.

You must judge, but with righteous judgment, as the Bible says. So Matthew 7 verse 1 and then Romans 2 verse 1 right here is really talking about hypocritical judgment.

It's really talking about that we should not judge when we ourselves are guilty of the exact same sins or even worse sins. Amen.

Hypocritical judgment. Unjust judgment. Or judgment based upon false doctrine.

Being over-judgmental. Being over-condemning. Having that legalistic spirit. Amen. That's what it's talking about. So in that context, with that understanding, we read this verse 1 again.

Therefore, you have no excuse, every one of you who passes hypocritical judgment.

For in that which you judge another, you condemn yourself. For you who judge hypocritically, practice the same things.

That's key. Underline that phrase. Practice the same things. That's talking about hypocritical judgment.

When you're judging people, but you're guilty of the exact same sins. Amen.

Verse 2. For we know that the judgment of Theos rightly falls.

He's the righteous judge. Rightly falls upon those who practice such things. But do you suppose this, old man, when you pass hypocritical judgment on those who practice such things and do the same, underline, do the same yourself.

You see that context? It keeps repeating. The context. Amen. People always miss the context when they read these verses. That you do, that you will escape the judgment.

Do you think that you're going to escape the judgment of God? It's asking a question there.

Do you think you're going to escape the judgment of God when you're hypocritically judging?

And that's what a lot of the people that have fallen away from God's true church has done.

Hypocritical judgment. Amen. Why we deserve the judgment of the Great Tribulation includes hypocritical judgment.

And many of the things that was listed in verse 29, 30, so on, these different things, all these different things that we've mentioned in passing, including idolatry, Christmas, Easter, Trinity, pre-Trib rapture, accepting the fairy tales of false religion, blindly following those teachings and not questioning those teachings. Amen.

That's why people deserve the Great Tribulation that is coming. Let's go to the book of Judges in the Old Testament, the book of Judges, Chapter 2.

Page 165. I don't want you to blindly accept the Sabbath or the Holy Days or the Purim Timeline by examining it with Scripture, with history, with all the facts, with all the proof, with all the evidence.

You need to examine all of it and weigh each topic, each doctrine, each teaching, weigh each thing individually on all the evidence for that particular topic and make up your mind.

And once you make up your mind about whether these teachings are the truth or not, don't turn back. Amen.

If it is the truth and you got the proof of it, then do not even allow me to push you away even with a broomstick because where else are you going to go for the truth? Amen.

If I was you and I pushed you out the door, I would be right outside this garage door with my ear to the door. Amen.

I would because where else would I go? Amen. Am I going to go to that church down the street or that website or that video or that website or that video where all these people, every one of them are ignorant of Scripture or legalistic?

Amen. No. Amen.

Judges chapter 2, verse 6. And Joshua, Jehoshea, dismissed the people and they went every man to his inheritance, to inherit the land, and all the people served Jesus all the days of Jehoshea, and all the days of the elders that lived many days of Jehoshea, as many as all knew the great work of Jesus, what things that he had worked in Israel. I'm going to call him Joshua. It's easier to speak. The son of Nun, the servant of Jesus, died 110 years old and they buried him in the border of his inheritance in that town, in Mount Ephraim on the north of the mountain of gas. It's called the mountain of gas because the inhabitants had much gas. I don't think that's a good interpretation. I confess that's my interpretation. Verse 10. And all the generation were laid to their forefathers, and another generation rose up after them who had not known Jesus, and yet the work which he worked in Israel, not yet even that. And the children of Israel worked evil before Jesus and served the devil, and they pursued Jesus, the theos of their forefathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt and walked among other gods, of the gods of the nations, the Gentile nations around about them, and they worshiped them. We know that they worshiped the Assyrian and Egyptian and Canaanite, Palestinian, Philistine gods, Dagon, and others. We know this. They worshiped Easter, which was an Assyrian god, and they still worship Easter, the Assyrian god today, and they provoked Jesus and forsake him and served Baal by Easter. That's how they served Baal is through Easter. There's a debate there how to translate that. It could be referring to the totem poles. So different tribes around the globe, amen, around the globe, had these trees and stone upon stone, different things like that, that they would worship, especially the oak tree and the evergreen tree, but also stone upon stone, and there's different names for that. But some of these would be their representation of Easter or their representation of another god. And so I believe at some point of time that the name of the demon called Easter became what they would actually call for the totem pole. I wish I could speak. Just like the word god and just like the word theos, the word theos originally referred only to the true god, but then you had the Egyptian pharaohs and Assyrian kings, Babylonian kings, saying, I am god, they would say. So the word theos became adopted upon those false gods. I believe the same is true even with the name Easter having been adopted over to the totem pole in some sense.

In verse 14, Jesus was very angry with Israel and gave them into the hands, gave them over to, gave them over to, into the hands of the spoilers, that means the foreign enemies, and they spoiled them, and he sewed them into the hands of their enemies, round about, and they could not any longer resist their enemies. Notice the selling as the selling of slaves, sewed them into their enemies, around about, and they could not any longer resist their enemies, among whosoever they went, and the hand of Jesus was against them for bad, as Jesus spoke and as Jesus swore to them, and he greatly afflicted them. Amen. And Jesus rose judges, and Jesus saved them out of the hands of them that spoiled them, and yet they did not listen to and obey the judges. So God brought leaders to lead the people and correct the people, but the people still were rebellious, even though God showed mercy and grace. Verse 17, they went a-whoring, committing spiritual fornication, spiritual adultery, after other gods, Easter, so on, Christmas, so on, and worshiped them, and they turned quickly out of the way in which their forefathers had walked, to listening to and obeying to the words of Jesus, they did not do like them, and because Jesus raised them up judges, so Jesus was with the judge, and saved them or delivered them out of the hands of their enemies all the days of the judge, for Jesus was moved at their groaning because of them that seized them and afflicted them. So Jesus had mercy on them. They didn't necessarily deserve the mercy, but he had mercy upon them. Verse 19, and it came to pass when the judge died that they went back and again corrupted themselves worse than their forefathers, to go after other gods, to serve them and worship them, and they abandoned not the works, nor their stubborn ways. That's what we're constantly seeing. That's what we are constantly seeing today. The people have changed not. And man, that's exactly what we're seeing today. And let's keep reading here. Verse 20, and Jesus was very angry with Israel, and said, For as much as this nation has forsaken my covenant, which I commended their forefathers, and have not listened to and obeyed my voice, therefore I will not any longer cast out a man of the Gentiles, that can be translated, before their face, which Jehoshea the son of man left in the land, that he left some of the Gentiles still among them, and Jesus left them, not necessarily just any Gentile, but the Gentiles that were not repenting and that were still serving other gods, that they were still left among them, intermixed with them, and Jesus left them, forsake these people.

Verse 22, in order to test Israel with them, that mixed multitude, even as it says in Exodus that a mixed multitude went out with them out of Egypt, a mixed multitude went out, even some of the Egyptians crossed the Red Sea, a lot of people don't know that, in order to test them, as much as we try to weed out people, there will always be another person in our midst, eventually, that is going to be a weed to us, and that's necessary.

No matter how much we try to have discernment, and test people, and question people, and have them to earn their trust, and send them through the same boot camp that we all had to go through, and I had to go through boot camp too, trust me, God was kicking my butt, but no matter how much that we do to try to weed out people, the troublemakers, the double-minded, the gossipers, so on, so on, there's going to be a weed within the church, by God's plan, even as Paul talked about his physical sickness being a thorn in his side, so that he would not be overly proudful.

We need also weeds in the church, that we might pluck out every weed we can, but God will bring another weed eventually, to keep us humble, if everything was hunky-dory all the time, if everything was perfect all the time, we wouldn't be tested well enough, we would not grow enough.

We need trial and adversity in order to grow as people, as part of nature, as part of the plan. Amen.

So they're still among them, and 22 to test them, ears will whip them, whether they would keep the way of Jesus to walk in it, as their forefathers kept it or not, so Jesus would leave these nations, ask to not cast them out suddenly, and he did not deliver them over into the hands of Jehoshea.

However, they should be trying to weed out the people. The leaders, Joshua and the other Israelites, should have been trying to weed out the weeds, nevertheless, and not let them prosper, not let the weeds take over the garden.

We can't allow the weeds to take over the garden. That would be foolish, dangerous, right? Amen. Common sense.

Let's go to the book of Psalms, Psalm 81. Page 347, Psalm 81, starting in verse 8.

Psalm 81, verse 8, Verse 12, Verse 12, Verse 15, I've got a correction on that. I'm going to find that, let's see, where would it be?

I may have put it on Parrhesia. I don't know if I did or not. There's a major correction to that verse. Let me look real quick.

I did not put it on Parrhesia, but I can get it for you real quick, nevertheless. Verse 15, it should read, I'm going to copy and paste that, put it on Parrhesia for you right now, this second, so that it will be in there.

And then we'll grab it from there to make this AOB correction. So let me do that right now while you're waiting on me.

Psalm 81, verse 15, May those who hate Jesus cry out in fear before him, may they be permanently humiliated.

Okay, so that's there on Parrhesia. And we'll move, we will also copy that over to Telegram as well, later on. If I don't forget.

Now I'm going to sum this up. I'm going to sum all this up for you. Why we deserve the judgment of the Great Tribulation.

People have chosen to idolize and approve of Assad, Putin, China, communism, Nazism, which means hatred of the Jews, hatred of Israel, not supporting Israel.

People have chosen murdering their babies, which they call abortion, which is a sacrifice to Satan.

People have chosen to continue in unnatural things such as homosexuality. People have chosen witchcraft, including part of witchcraft is the letter Y Assyrian names, that's witchcraft, Yahshua, Yahweh, Jehovah, YHWH, YHVH, whatever that is.

All of that is witchcraft, guarantee you. Christmas and Easter, that's witchcraft.

Trinity is witchcraft. Halloween is witchcraft. Tarot cards, palm reading, going to witches to have your fortune told. All of that is witchcraft.

Love spells, potions, that is witchcraft. People have chosen false religion, which is every denomination that you could possibly name.

People have chosen false doctrine, including everything already listed, such as also even Flat Earth.

Flat Earth's stupidity, which is nothing but stupidity. Planet X stupidity, and pre-tribulation rapture stupidity.

People don't like that I use that word, but it is what it is, and I'm not going to hold back.

The Bible says, to blow the trumpet aloud, to spare not, and to tell my people their sins.

This is exactly what the Bible says. Somebody's got to say it. If somebody don't say it, the people won't wake up, the people won't repent, the people won't judge themselves.

The people won't question their own intelligence, their own wisdom. They won't question these things if they don't get a rude slap in the face.

That's just the reality. I'm not going to baby you. You're not little children. You're adults.

You should be able to handle some adult language, some adult speech, some tough discipline.

Tough discipline is what the people need now in this generation. Brother R has seen it many, many times, that I try to deal with people with a gentle hand for a long, extended period of time, because the Bible does teach to be long-suffering, and impatient, and gentle, and loving.

And then I finally slap down the harsh judgment and the punishment, and then, like a snap of the finger, they repent. R has seen that many times. Amen. A lot of times, if people don't get the harsh correction, they don't repent. People have chosen laziness, complacency, low standards, because that is the way this generation has evolved.

Laziness, complacency, low standards. People have chosen twisted, corrupted Bibles, such as the King James-only idolatry, where they are worshipping a translation that's named after a man that lived in the 1600s, in which he himself was not a holy person, not called of God. Amen.

Many of the King James translators died during the translation. Many of them did. They were cursed.

The King James Version translators were cursed to death. And yet people were idolizing and worshipping that very corrupted, twisted translation of mankind.

People have chosen their own false gods, such as the NFL, that's the National Football League, that is a major demonic false god among many Americans, even women, which is insane.

Women worshipping football, other sports, horror movies, anime movies, and many other video games are demonic.

I'm not against every video game. There are certain video games that would be acceptable, but the majority of them today in our modern society, the majority and even some of the old ones, even some of the original ones, video games, the largest percentage, are demonic.

And it's real obvious about some of them, very obvious about some of them, and yet they continue to play them and claim to be saved.

A lot of the Japanese culture from which the anime has come from is very demonic culture.

The Japanese culture, there's many aspects of their society that is extremely demonic.

I can't believe that America became allies with the Japanese. That should have never happened.

It should have never happened. We should have annihilated that nation. We should have. We really should have, honestly.

We should have annihilated every one of them, every member of that society in that day and time.

We're suffering today because we did not. We're suffering today because we did not destroy every last Philistine.

We're suffering today because we have not destroyed every last Palestinian from this earth yet.

We're suffering today because we have not rooted out evil. That's just a plain and honest truth.

You can call me president, you can call me anything you want to, but that doesn't erase the truth.

The truth will always be the truth. History stands on my side, and history will stand on my side in the future. Amen.

People have chosen the sorcery of going to the fortune tellers, as I said. Israelites have allowed the Gentiles to vote and to rule in their nations. We see the UK right now.

We see Ireland, Scotland, England. The United Kingdom has been ruined, destroyed.

And it started with just giving, allowing those people to vote, and it should have never happened.

Even as in South Africa, the black people today are suffering and will suffer greatly in the coming times because of the communist Soviet Union overthrow of what they falsely call the apartheid government, the white government, the Israelite government that they previously had.

They're suffering the consequences, and they are admitting it. They are admitting that they are suffering the consequences of having removed that Christian government that they did have.

We were taught lies in the history books about what was occurring in South Africa.

We were taught lies. Amen. Whoever wins the war, they are the ones that control what's written in the history books and what they leave out.

Same with the American Civil War. Amen. But people have chosen lies. People have not questioned the lies.

People have embraced the lies, loved the lies, fallen in love with the lies. Amen.

And so the people, the Israelite nations, are guilty for allowing the Gentiles to vote as if they were an Israelite without repenting, without changing, without any repentance, and influencing the downfall and corruption and overthrow of their nation.

So now the UK should not even be called the United Kingdom. England should not even be called England, Ireland, Scotland, because they don't exist anymore.

Their culture has already been destroyed. Who they are as a people, were as a people, have already been destroyed. They are already conquered, already. They're already conquered. And originally I didn't have this written down in my sermon outline to even mention today, but I forget whether it was in the middle of the night that it came to me to bring this part up, or early this morning, or exactly when that occurred, but it was one of the very last things that I added to the list to bring up today.

I mean, lo and behold, I see in the news today that the American Vice President Vance, that he said that the UK has committed civilization suicide. So that confirms. That is a huge confirmation that I have God's blessing to say what I just said, to go with it, to not hold back, to just say the truth, because the truth is the truth no matter who it offends. Amen.

People have allowed women and children to rule them. The children rule the parents now, instead of the parents leading the children. And they have made women not only equal to the men, but they have made women as the head of the household.

Now many, many husbands are afraid of their wives, and then they joke about it. Amen.

Many women have that philosophy that they can slap their husbands, but the husband can't slap at all, whatsoever at all, not none, zero.

But the woman can do it. How is that being equal? How is that the man being the head? It's neither equal nor is it the man being the head.

That's the woman being the head. That's the woman being not only the head, but abusive to the husband and disrespectful to the husband.

It's upside down, right? And we know we should respect each other. We know that we should respect each other. But you know my point.

My point is that the people have chosen to turn society and the household upside down, and the church upside down, and allow the women to rule society, become managers, become police officers, soldiers, electricians, plumbers, that women have these jobs.

It's not right. It's unnatural. It's unnatural. Women, I mean people have put their children in government, they have put their children in government brainwashing concentration camps that they call school.

And they have no problem with it. Sending off your children to complete strangers in a government, communist, brainwashing facility, concentration camp where they're told to not move, to not speak, to sit still and act like you're a statue.

And then expect them to behave and not have behavior problems. And when they do have behavior problems, they've got to classify it as a mental disease. It's not natural.

Parents have chosen to surrender their children to Satan in that way, in that form.

It's one of the good things that Trump is doing to allow parents the freedom to take their children out of the government schools and allow them to take government money to fund the education in a private school of your choice.

That's a great thing. One of the great things he's doing, even though he's doing some very foolish things as well, and a lot of great things as well.

And people have chosen to sacrifice their children to Satan by all of these things, taking them to the Sunday churches, allowing the children to do the Halloween, the Easter stuff, the Christmas stuff.

In all of these ways and more, they're sacrificing their children to Satan. And biblically speaking, this society deserves to be destroyed because of that.

This nation of America is in the process of being destroyed. Four years of Biden was a punishment from God.

It was. Four years of Biden was a punishment from God upon this nation that has, in many different ways, forsaken Jesus.

And as I told Brother J this morning or last night, whichever it was, that even if the Great Tribulation doesn't start this year, common sense says that as we see the policies of Trump increase and have time to take effect and more and more and more of his big mouth and his big pride becomes manifested, that we're going to see the consequences of his foolishness, even though he's doing a lot, a lot, a lot of great and wonderful and perfect things.

But he has such tremendous foolishness that the repercussions of that foolishness will absolutely manifest at some point of time leading to destruction, whether it's war with Greenland or whether it's a required microchip or whether it's a new vaccine or whether it's war with Panama or whatever foreign that comes out to be, if we're not entering the Great Tribulation in this next 30 days, we're still going to suffer somehow some way down the line that will eventually accumulate into the actual Great Tribulation.

So people think we're going to have Heaven on earth under Trump, and that's why the Trump cult, people that literally do worship him, the majority of Republicans literally do worship Trump.

They really, really, really do. That's the God to honest truth. That is the truth. They don't want to admit it, they don't want to confess it, because they don't judge themselves. Amen?

That is the God to honest truth, and they will pay for that. They will pay for it. So even the conservatives and even the so-called Christians are lost and deceived and have forsaken Jesus and set up a man, a human, as God.

I'm thinking we're going to have Heaven on earth and world peace under this very prideful, foolish person called Trump and the devil always mixes some good things in with the bad as a bait, and people have taken the bait. Amen? But this society, all around the earth, every nation, Israel included, and all the Israelite tribes and nations included, the Americans, the British, the Scottish, the Irish, the South Africans, both black and white, the people in India as part of the old British empire, and many, many other people, every tribe on earth, deserve the judgment that is coming and has already come, but will accumulate into the Great Tribulation at some point.

I've given this sermon before, I have, about why we deserve the judgment, but in this context of today, the second day of prom, it's worthy to repeat, to refresh people's minds, and to repeat myself and regurgitate again for all the new listeners.

It is necessary, it is needful, and I hope that somebody, because of this sermon, because of today's word, that somebody, hopefully even more than one person, will examine themselves even more deeply, even more sincerely, come out of Babylon more, more so, more completely, surrender to Jesus more completely, draw closer to the true God Almighty, the Alpha and Omega, Jesus Almighty. Amen.
