Let us go in prayer. Lord Heavenly Father, in Jesus' wonderful name, thank you for getting us through these previous three months of the Biblical year and through last year and every year of our lives that you have shown us great mercy. You have preserved us, that you have preserved a remnant for yourself. Even though it seems that the whole world have fallen to worship the enemy, even though it seems that we are the only ones that still stand to serve you, but we know that you have preserved many more than what we know of.

Many of them without the internet, without cell phones, that do not get on Google and YouTube, many of them that have already distanced themselves greatly from the corruption of the world.

And we shall be united with them in the great tribulation and in your kingdom. We thank you for a new beginning, a new month.

We thank you for your mercies anew every day. We thank you for this word that we're about to receive.

We pray that it will penetrate the most stubborn minds, help people to grow in the truth and let go of false perceptions.

We ask, Lord, for the truth. We ask for your help, your blessing, your anointing and an increase of your presence.

We ask for more of your Holy Ghost. We pray for your help and we accept it and embrace it in Jesus' wonderful name.

In Jesus' name the entire Church said, Amen. Amen. You may be seated. Praise Jesus.

Let us turn to Ezekiel 38. For people listening for the first time, we're reading from the Alpha and Omega Bible.

But you're welcome to follow along in any translation that you might have in front of you.

And we do encourage you to follow along. And we do encourage you to follow along in any translation that you might have in front of you.

And we do encourage you to actually open up the Bible in front of you and read the Bible with your own eyes as we read it.

And to do so with a real copy of the Bible rather than the online electronic editions.

Because there is power in actually touching the Word of God. In Ezekiel 38, verse 1, And the word of Jesus came to me saying, Son of humans, set your face against Gog, against the land of Magog, Rosh, prince of Mesech, and Tobal, and prophesy against him.

And say to him, Thus saith the Lord Jesus, Behold I am against you, Rosh, prince of Mesech, and Tobal.

And I will turn you about and put hooks into your jaws. And I will gather you and all of your hosts, horses and horsemen, all wearing breastplates and a great multitude, shields and helmets and swords.

Verse 5, Persians, Ethiopians and Libyans, all with helmets and shields, Gomorrah and all belonging to him, and the house of Thorgama from the end of the north, and all belonging to him, and many nations with you.

Verse 7, And be you prepared, prepare yourself, you and all your multitude, that is assembled with you, and you should be to me for a guard.

You should be prepared after many days, and he shall come, he shall be prepared after many days, and he shall come at the end of years, and shall come to a land that is brought back from the sword, when the people were gathered from many nations against the land of Israel, which was entirely desolate previously.

And he came forth out of the nations, and they shall all join you. And he came forth out of the nations, and they shall all dwell securely.

Verse 9, And you shall go up as rain, and shall arrive as a cloud to cover the land, and there shall be you, and all that are about you, and many nations with you.

Thus saith the Lord Jesus, that shall also come to pass in that day, that thoughts shall come into your heart, and you shall so devise evil plans, and you shall say, I go up to the rejected land, I will, and I will come upon you the dwells in tranquility, peace, and dwelling in peace, and all inhabiting a land in which there is no wall, nor bars, nor have they doors, borders, to cease plunder, and to take their spoil, and to turn my hands against the desolate land that is now inhabited, and against a nation that is gathered from many nations that have acquired property, drowning in the midst of the lands.

Now we know, if we just keep reading, and because of all the teachings over the years of this ministry, we know that this is a prophecy for the time of the great tribulation, the Gog-Magog war, World War III, Russia and China, and Iran, and their allies, North Korea, Venezuela, Cuba, and others, against America and Israel, and other American and Israeli allies, including the UK, the United Kingdom, Ireland, Scotland, England, and Australia, Taiwan, and others.

The sermon topic today is that we are giving an answer to those people who believe that there is one globalist order behind both the American allies, and the Russian, Chinese, Iranian allies on both sides, that there is one organization, one globalist order, one group of people that control everything, and they orchestrate everything, they're in control of everything, they choose all the presidents, when to start war, when to end war, who wins the war, that everything is propaganda, that everything is controlled, that everything is propaganda, that everything is controlled by a group of men.

We're going to give an answer today from the Bible, not my opinion, not my own thinking, but what the Bible says about that.

Is it true, or is it not true? One group of people controlling all things. We read here in Ezekiel 38, verse 4, that Jesus himself says, I will turn you about and put hooks into your jaws, and I will gather you and all of your hosts, which means all of your allies, all of your armies, all of your people that are going to fight with you, your multitude. God says, I will do this. Amen. And then over in the verse 10, thoughts would come into your mind to do this, to invade Israel and America, so forth.

In none of this chapter, and throughout the entire Bible, it never says that there is a group that controls everything, whether you want to say that that is the Freemasons, or the Jews, or the Catholics, or the Vatican, or any other group, whoever you want to blame it on, whoever you want to say is that one specific group that controls the whole world. The Bible actually shows us that it is God, not Satan, not a group of evil men, not Satan, not a group of evil men, not a secret society, but God himself that will gather these 666 nations against the American-Israeli allies, nations. God would do this. Thoughts come into the Russian president's mind. I think back about the Pharaoh of Egypt. Amen.

Let's look in Exodus Exodus 9, verse 16 concerning the Pharaoh of Egypt.

Give some more people time to get there, and I'm sorry I forgot to turn the camera toward me.

Verse 16, And for this purpose have you been preserved, that I might display in you my strength, and that my name might be published in all the earth.

This is what Jesus is telling Moses to speak to Pharaoh, that the Pharaoh existed, had been preserved, had been kept in power, for this very reason that God would overthrow Pharaoh during the Exodus of the Israelites, page 59.

We know that the scripture says that God hardened Pharaoh's heart. We also know that the scripture gives a prediction ahead of time that God tells Moses, I want you to say to him, let us go a three days journey into the wilderness, but I will harden his heart and he will not let you go.

Now God saw from way before this event, the heart of Pharaoh, the mentality of Pharaoh, the character and personality of Pharaoh, that he was that type of man, to have a stubborn heart, rebellious, resistant, hateful for the Israelites.

He had free will, which is why God had Moses to even speak to him. But at the same time, God was working in the heart and in the mind of Pharaoh, in the same way in Ezekiel 38, where it says thoughts would come into the mind of Gog and Magog, the prince, the president, the prime minister of the Russian confederation, to devise plans to invade Israel.

I believe that God hardens the heart of the Russian president, knowing the character and personality and heart and mind frame of the Russian president that he chose to have himself, that he developed himself of his own free will.

It's just like God using us with good things because of our abilities, skills, and gifts that are not God-given, but that we developed on our own accord.

Sometimes he gives us gifts and skills, but there's also gifts and skills that we develop on our own accord of our own free will and our own heart, our own mind frame, our own character, our own personality that we have developed over our entire lifetime based upon decision after decision after decision, choice after choice after choice, what we've decided to do and what we've decided not to do that has made us who we are.

Even though God has been involved, we have the free will. But then God comes in and says, because I know your heart, because I know your skills, because I know your way of thinking, because I know your actions, what you're capable of, good or bad, righteous or evil, I'm going to use you.

That's why he used Nebuchadnezzar. That's why he used the Pharaoh of Egypt. That's why he uses the president of Russia. So on, so on, so on.

Both good and bad, wicked and good, kings that God uses upon the earth. God does use both sides, the good, the righteous and the wicked.

God uses both sides to fulfill his will. Even as the Bible does tell us that he uses the Antichrist to fulfill different purposes.

So we see it's the interaction of both God working his will in the earth, as well as each individual king, leader, and their thoughts, their hearts, their mentality, their mind frame and their plans, their thoughts of their heart, sometimes influenced by God and other times more influenced by their own plans and their own will and their own desires. Amen.

Now, look at Daniel chapter 2 verse 21.

We'll read the old Greek version. And he changes seasons and times, removing kings and setting them in place, giving wisdom to the wise and understanding to them that have knowledge.

Let me think about how King Nebuchadnezzar saw the statue of the head of gold and then the chest and arms and so forth as it goes down to the feet, that each part of the body represented different kingdoms that would come and go upon the earth, each kingdom replaced in the previous kingdom.

We know for a fact, scripture is clear, that it was God that brought each one of those kingdoms to conquer, to fight a war, to defeat, to win the war over each previous kingdom.

Even though none of those kingdoms were completely righteous, completely godly, every one of those kingdoms had false gods and idols and paganism and witchcraft, but God did use every one of those kingdoms and brought every one of those kingdoms to power and to authority and gave each and every one of those kingdoms victory over the previous kingdom, to fulfill God's will.

And many times it was to punish the Israelites, his own people, many times it was to punish the Israelites, his own children, to spank his own children, to discipline his own tribe, his own people, the Israelites, and as well as to discipline the previous kingdom that he brought to power. Amen.

We see that in the Babylonian, Assyrian Empire, that King Nebuchadnezzar, for a while, did serve God, to some extent, claimed that he would, but yet, his descendants, and perhaps he, even he himself, strayed away again, just like the Israelites have many times, multiple times, strayed away again and again and again. Amen.

The events of the earth, they are a combination of our own will, what we have done upon the earth, our choices, and the choices of our votes, the choices of our leaders, our parliament, our congress, what they have done, and a combination of all that and God's will and what God is trying to do and what God is doing in discipline, in punishment, in judgment, and in bringing prophecy to fulfillment.

It's not a secret society that is controlling everything. We don't reject that there are secret societies, of course there are. We know that there are secret societies that are controlling everything. We know that there are secret societies, the Illuminati, the New World Order, the Freemasons.

We know that there are people that are competing to control the world. We know that there are people, members of the World Economic Forum, the World Health Organization, and other organizations, both known and unknown.

We don't deny this. We're not ignorant of these facts. We know that there are mad scientists and insane, wicked, demon-possessed people, multiple, that do want to control everything in the world.

And we do know the prophecies that the Antichrist, Bashar Assad, will eventually be given power over all nations of the earth during the Great Tribulation.

That is written in Scripture more than once. That is a prophecy for the future. But at the current time, according to Scripture, it is the choices and decisions and thoughts of the heart of each individual king and how God is working and interacting with that king, and our own obedience and disobedience to God affecting that king and that kingdom.

Look at Deuteronomy 28 verse 1.

And it shall come to pass that if you indeed obey the voice of Jesus your Theos, to observe and to do all his commandments, which I charge you this day, that Jesus your Theos shall set you up on high above all the nations of the earth.

That is a blessing in exchange for your obedience to God and his commandments. That if we obey God, that God will prosper our nation.

He will set our nation above other nations of the earth. If he's setting Israel or America or any nation over and above other nations, multiple other nations, then that means conquest, victory in war, domination, control, imperialism, monarchy, kingship, theocracy.

It means all these different things, and it means God is in control, and it means that our own decisions as an individual, even if you are not a leader, even if you are not a president or prime minister or king, that the citizens of the land that are obedient to God or disobedient will affect the national and world events.

God brings nations into other nations, whether it's Israel and America and the British Empire into nations, or whether it's the Russian and Chinese and Koreans into nations, or even the Japanese into nations, even the Nazis, the Germany into nations, even conquest of Africa, even conquest of Cuba, Haiti, Jamaica, the Native American Indians.

No matter what group, no matter what generation we're talking about, our sins of the population, the citizens of any land, of any tribe, of any race, of any generation, this affects what's going to happen to our nation. Amen.

Look at verse 15, I think it is. Yes, verse 15. But it should come to pass that if you would not listen to and obey the voice of Jesus, your Theos, to observe all his commandments, as many as I charge you this day, then all these curses rather than the blessings shall come on you and overtake you.

Look at verse 32, your sons and your daughters shall be given to another nation, and your eyes wasting away shall look for them, your hands shall have no strength.

So God not only blesses and loves and has mercy and has grace, but God also judges and dispel and punishes, because he is the good father. Amen.

Wars and conquests are won and lost based upon any kind of evil, but wars are won and lost based upon any nation's obedience to God or disobedience thereof.

This was true both in the New Testament and Old Testament, both in the Old Covenant and in the New Covenant, both in ancient times and modern times, God changes not.

He's the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow. He will always be like this, that these are the conditions.

This is the reality of life. It is part of the creation, of how creation works. It is like the laws of gravity. Amen.

Let's look at Genesis 16, verse 11. And the angel the Lord said to her, and by the way, in each one of these verses, is this where it is?

Or is that another chapter? This is the chapter. So, in these verses, Genesis 16, even though we're starting in verse 11, notice how verse 7 has that phrase, angel of the Lord, and verse 8 has the same phrase, angel of the Lord, and verse 9, verse 10, and verse 11.

In every one of those cases, we're changing the word angel to manifestation. In every one of those verses, verse 7, verse 8, verse 9, verse 10, verse 11, manifestation.

It was Jesus himself speaking to Sarah. So, going back to verse 11, the manifestation of the Lord said to her, Behold, you are with child, and will bear as fun.

And you shall call his name Ishmael, for the Lord has listened to your humiliation.

Verse 12, He shall be a wild man, his hands against all, and the hands of all against him.

And he shall dwell in the presence of all of his brethren. This is a prophecy that Ishmael, his tribe, his descendants, the Arabs, would be at war, would be hostile against his brothers, his family, all the tribes in the region, his neighbors, against everyone.

He should be a wild man, and his hands would be against all, everyone. Amen? And all against him. As compared to his brother Isaac, this is a prophecy that the Arabs would be a troublesome people, a thorn in our side.

There are curses upon certain races of people, multiple, different curses upon multiple different races, and this particular one is upon the Arabs, that they would be a troublesome people, hard to get along with.

They have a temper, a very bad temper. Amen? They're difficult to get along with as far as nations getting along with them. We know that the majority of Arabs worship Satan, unfortunately.

But thankfully, many more of them are now learning about that Jesus is God. But what they need to learn is that not all Christians believe that God is three people.

Not all Christians observe pagan holidays like Christmas and Sunday. Not all Christians are extremely legalistic, like the Pentecostals and others.

Not all Christians deny the Old Testament writings. They need to learn that there is such a thing as the true Christian Church, the true Church of Jesus, that honors all of the Holy Scriptures, Old Testament and New Testament both, that serves one God, not multiple Gods. Amen?

But to learn that Jesus is God is a first step. But this is a prophecy that remains to this day. It still affects the relationships between different nations.

It remains to this day. It still affects the relationships between different nations today. Amen.

Look at chapter 25 here in Genesis, chapter 25, verse 23, talking about the birth of Esau and Jacob in the next generation.

After Israel and Isaac, the next generation was Esau and Jacob. Verse 23, and the Lord said to her, "There are two nations in your womb, and two peoples shall be separated from your belly, and one people shall excel the other."

In other words, each one of these men would become their own tribe, their own nation.

That's why it's talking about people and peoples. But one people or one nation shall excel the other, and the elders shall serve the younger. Amen.

And the days were fulfilled that she should be delivered, give childbirth, and she had twins in her womb.

Now the firstborn son came forth red. We know that is Esau. Red all over like a hairy garment, and they called him Esau, which means hairy. And after this came forth his brother, and his hand took hold of the heel of Esau.

So she called his name Jacob, which means to take hold of the heel or supplant her or replace her.

And Isaac was 60 years old when Rebekah gave birth to these two men. So we know the story here that all the lifetime of Esau and Jacob brothers, that they were always, could not get along.

We know that not only with Ishmael, but even with Isaac, that Isaac, not Isaac, but Esau, that Esau was a difficult person and a difficult nation, tribal people, nationality, race, a race of people that are difficult to understand.

We welcome Arabs into the true church. It's not impossible for anyone of any race to be saved, to be delivered, to accept the true God of Israel, to repent, to receive the Jewish blood of God.

To repent, to receive the Jewish blood of Christ as a sacrifice for their sins. The Passover Lamb of God is not impossible.

God wants to save everyone of every nation. All nations are his creation, even if they are cursed.

Even if they are cursed, all nations are his creation, his physical children. What parent doesn't want all of their children to do well, amen, to prosper, amen?

When we look at the wars and activities of the earth, the United Nations, when we look at other things upon the earth, we have to understand everything in the light of Holy Scripture and prophecy.

That there's a reason for everything. And the reason is not a secret society, but the reason is our ancestry, our DNA, the events of the past, history, curses, blessings, obedience, disobedience, and prophecy.

All of these things, rather than just a group somewhere sitting behind a curtain trying to pull the strings.

There's so much more to it than that. Even though such groups do exist, trying to control things, and they are succeeding and gaining more and more power every year that we get closer to the Great Tribulation, because all of those organizations, Bill Gates and Microsoft and Google and Amazon and all those different things, they're all going to be combined, even Elon Musk, going to be combined under that Babylonian-Assyrian empire of Bashar Assad, is all going to come under Bashar Assad's leadership, kingdom.

So we see it leading up to that. But even then, it is God removing empires and kings and presidents, and Trump will be removed because of his pride.

Remember the example of Nebuchadnezzar, that God was blessing Nebuchadnezzar, God was using Nebuchadnezzar, God was prospering Nebuchadnezzar in his kingdom.

But Nebuchadnezzar said, oh, it's my power, my intelligence, my decisions, my choices that have made me great.

And God struck him down, and Nebuchadnezzar was an animal walking and feeding on the grass for seven years.

And Trump's absence for the last four years was partly because of a similar situation, where God was striking him down, trying to humble him, and Trump will be removed again, whether it is at the end of his four-year term, or whether it is way before then, I don't know.

But regardless of when and how, I'm confident that God is going to strike Trump down sooner or later, because nobody can be of that magnitude severity of pride that Trump has, a tremendous pride that is equal to the Antichrist himself, even though he's not the main number one Anton Antichrist, even though there are many Antichrists upon the earth, but his pride is of that same level, and he will be struck down by God.

But sooner or later, no doubt, amen, his time will come, even though I support most of his policies, not all of his policies, I support most of his policies, but he is so blasphemous in his degree of pride, and he will pay for it, amen.

But we've got to consider all these things, and America will suffer and be invaded because of Trump's pride, and because of how Americans have really become stupid in large numbers, and evil and demonic, everybody is covered with tattoos all the way up their arms and up their neck, and all over their face, and it's nasty, and it's disgusting, it's demonic, it's sickening, and it's everyone and everywhere you look, that instead of looking like humans, they look like demons, everywhere as you go, and they will pay for it, I can promise you that.

Look at Proverbs 21, verse one. As a rusheth water, so is the king's heart in Theos's hand.

He turns it wherever he may desire to point it, which is like a water hose, that it will go the direction that you point it. God is pointing the direction of the king's heart as far as not every little tiny thing. Trump's pride is Trump's pride. We can't blame God for Trump's pride, just like we can't blame God when Nebuchadnezzar was also, became extremely proud for and God struck him down for that. So it's not every thought and every little tiny thing that God controls and directs, they still have the free will. The pride of Nebuchadnezzar and the pride of Trump is their own fault, but nevertheless, in some of the other events of life, wars and battles and decisions that they make, many of those are directed by God.

Look at Isaiah chapter 10, starting in verse 5.

Woe to the Assyrians! The rod of my wrath, my anger, and anger are in their hands. I was seeing my wrath against a sinful nation, and I would charge my people to take plunder and spoil, and to trample the cities and to make them dust. But he meant not thus, neither did he devise this in his soul, but his mind so changed that to destroy nations and not a few.

What this is saying is that God is going to control the Antichrist, and that thousands of years ago, God did control the king of Assyria in certain instances, when the king of Assyria and the Assyrian Empire came in to Israel and took the northern ten tribes of Israel and carried them into Assyria, and then eventually we know that those northern ten tribes became the Americans and the British.

So the forefathers of America and the forefathers of the United Kingdom were taken as slaves, white slaves, by these Assyrian Arabs because of our forefathers' sins and adultery, because our forefathers had embraced the Assyrian gods. And so God said, if you want to serve the Assyrian gods, then I will carry you into the Assyrian nation.

You can serve them better there as slaves. Amen? That's what happened. We serve for the consequences of our decisions.

It's free will. If we want to obey God or disobey God, if we want to obey God or disobey God, that we will suffer the consequences of either blessings or curses.

This isn't the cause of a secret society. It's because of our own individual and national sins or obedience, whichever the case may be, in each generation.

Genesis 22, verse 17. Absolutely with blessing I will bless you, I will multiply your seed as the stars of the universe and as the sand which is by the shore of the sea.

And your seed shall inherit the cities of their enemies. And in your seed, that is your descendants, shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, because you have listened to and obeyed my voice. Amen?

That is a covenant, a promise made by God to Abraham and his descendants. But the blessings in that covenant was passed down not to all of Abraham's descendants so much, but more so to his sons of promise, his sons of covenant, his sons of obedience, his sons of choice.

From Abraham to Isaac to Jacob to Joseph to Manasseh and Ephraim. Through that specific branch of the family tree more than the other branches.

Even though all the branches of the tree are somewhat blessed, the Arabs have been blessed by God to at times win wars, control the gates of their enemies and so forth.

But the main branch of the family tree of the covenant, of the promises, of the blessings, has primarily gone from Abraham to Isaac to Jacob as we see and look what happened in the Bible with each generation.

And from Jacob to Joseph, from Joseph to Manasseh to Ephraim, I think that's Genesis 38 maybe.

So we see that in the scripture, how the blessings are primarily carried down through a specific branch of the family tree and of history.

That goes all the way down through the kings and queens of England, Queen Elizabeth, King Charles, the American and the British Empire.

And as far as Judah, the tribe of Judah goes, being only one of the twelve tribes of Israel, Israel today.

So America patrols the gates of their enemies. The British Empire patrols the gates of their enemies.

It's not because of a secret society, it's because of the ancestral blessings and curses, persons, decisions of God, choices of God, blessings of God, curses of God, about who controls the gates, the borders, the gateways, the canals, the Panama Canal, so forth.

And who has been blessed, who has blessed the entire earth beyond anyone is Israel, the British Empire and America.

Those brothers, those tribes, that is why America stands with Israel, even the Democrat Party.

America stands with Israel because we are blood brothers, because Judah is the tribe of Israel and America is a tribe of Israel.

The British Empire is a tribe of Israel, that's why we stand together. Amen. And it is also why other nations stand together, because they're closely related, bloodline in their family.

The Arabs stick with the Arabs and so forth and so forth. The different nationalities and races of the earth mostly stick to their own because they're more closely related, even though we're all related because we know that Israel was the brother of Isaac, we know that Esau was the brother of Jacob, so we're all related, but we've gone our own way because of the blessings or the curses.

And then we stick together and birds of the same feather flock together. Amen.

And let's go to Romans chapter 13, verse 1. Every person is to be in subjection, in subjection, submit to the Governing Authorities, for there is no authority except from Theos, and those which exist are established by Theos. Amen.

No authority exists except by God. Not because of a secret society deciding, every president, every king, every war, when to start war, when to end war, who will win war, but rather God doing all that.

God is your secret society. God is in control for the most part, even though people do step outside of His will, but it will eventually come back into alignment with what God wants sooner or later. Amen.

And finally, Revelation 6 is the last verse that I've got prepared.

And I'm not going to actually read this, but we know in Revelation 6 you've got the white horse in verse 2.

We know we got the red horse in verse 4, the black horse in verse 5, and then the green horse in verse 8.

The first four of the seven end-time seals. Those four seals are called the four horsemen, and they are basically, they are fallen angels, demons, spirits, that God Himself and God's holy angels that are obedient to God, that they release upon the earth in the late 1800s, early 1900s, beginning primarily upon the earth, dealing with the interactions of humanity, kings, presidents, leaders, Alfred Nobel, the Olympics, the Nobel Peace Prize, World War I, World War II, the development of the Soviet Union, the October Revolution, 1917, the Holocaust, the Great Depression, all these things released by God upon the earth, because prophecy must be fulfilled.

Kingdoms must come at the end of time. Kingdoms must come at the end of time. Because prophecy must be fulfilled.

Kingdoms must come and pass away.

Kingdoms are replaced by the next kingdom to fulfill prophecy and to chastise rulers that stepped outside of God's will.

People do step outside of God's will, and then they eventually pay for it sooner or later down the line, and here bring somebody else in to do the job, to finish the job. Amen.

God is the ultimate controller, not a secret society. Stop blaming the Jews, because the Jews are the greatest persecuted minority upon the earth.

They don't control the earth, but rather they are greatly oppressed. Amen.
