

Full Sermon Transcript:
Pre-Tribulation Rapture Doctrine is Demonic

Let's go in prayer. Lord Heavenly Father, Almighty creator of heaven and earth, creator of our souls, our bodies, and our future.

Praise the holy name of Jesus. You are the Alpha, the Omega, the First, the Last, the Beginning, and the Ending. You are the Sustainer, the Kinsman, Redeemer, the Faithful. Amen. Praise your holy name. Thank you for getting us through this week.

Thank you Father that we are now seeing prophecy unfold in front of our eyes, that it is happening just on time.

Thank you for showing us these dates ahead of time so that we don't be called unprepared or unaware.

We know, Lord, that you have a plan, and your plan is perfect. We trust your plan.

The Word of God will be fulfilled. The Scriptures are being fulfilled and will continue to be fulfilled.

Your Word is solid. It is written in stone. What the Bible says will occur, will occur, just as it is written. You're not the God of chaos, but of order.

We ask, Lord Heavenly Father, for your anointing on this sermon, and we accept that you have already anointed it.

We accept and welcome your presence and acknowledge your presence in this sanctuary, and in your people, and in this message, and in this service.

We ask you to speak through me, use my mouth, use me as a willing vessel of your honor.

This message will not return void nor vain, but we'll accomplish the purpose in teaching a new people the Holy Scriptures, helping them to see the light, come to the acknowledgement and the substance of the truth.

We know that prophecy itself, being fulfilled, will do that. But the Word of God, being told, spoken and preached, goes with it, hand in hand.

We know that deaf ears will now hear and blind eyes will now see. We know that people that have never heard the truth will now hear it and see it.

Many will still reject, as they are stubborn and rebellious, even after they see and hear the truth.

But now more people will see and hear and believe and follow you. For we are not alone.

Even as Elijah fell alone, thought he was by himself, but you had preserved thousands that had not worshipped the devil.

You have a people. You have a church that the gates of the grave have not prevailed against and will not.

Your people will be restored to you. Your church will be restored to you. Your Word will be fulfilled. We ask you for continued direction, guidance and instruction for the coming days, weeks, months and years.

We pray for your spirit and your will to prevail in us, each one of us individually.

For your Holy Ghost to grow in us. For us to hear your voice more clearly, more accurately.

For us to follow your will entirely. For us to surrender to your spirit and your will and your voice.

We dedicate this service and this message into your hands, into your spirit, into your power.

Move as you will. Allow us to not quench it. Help these church members to feel your presence. Please help these people to go with the flow more.

Feel your presence. Worship you. Acknowledge you with raised hands, with amens. For them to not fight back.

For them to not hold back. For them to not extinguish your spirit. Help them to embrace your spirit. To embrace your presence.

To feel your presence. To acknowledge your presence. To acknowledge your anointing. To acknowledge your words as you speak through me.

That they would acknowledge your words and your presence with amens, with raised hands, with worship, with praise.

That they would become more at one with you. Active worshipers. Not an audience. Active worshipers.

We ask that we may receive and all of this be in the mighty name of Jesus. Amen. Good job. You may be seated.

Let's turn to Daniel chapter 7. Give me a page number. Page 500 if you have a copy of the Alpha and Omega Bible paperbacks. For people listening for the first time, we are reading from the Alpha and Omega Bible, which is a restoration of the original scriptures.

Based upon the oldest manuscripts. Based upon older manuscripts than what was used for the King James Version.

The topic today is the pre-tribulation rapture doctrine. The pre-tribulation rapture doctrine is extremely demonic.

I know that people that have been following this ministry, you already know this.

You already understand this. But we always have new people listening and especially now that the prophecies are coming true right in front of us now.

The Iranian attacks. Everything is happening overnight today. How the war is not going as well as they thought it would go. People have been very ignorant.

Iran is striking back. Iran has used their missiles to attack eight nations overnight this morning.

They continue to fly their missiles even as we speak. The last update. It's been a couple of hours since I saw the update.

A couple of hours or so ago I saw that they were still flying missiles, Iran.

So even after we have hit them and hit them and hit them and hit them really really really hard all night long.

We still have not been able to stop Iran from firing long-range missiles that are successfully hitting multiple other nations.

American military bases, Italian military base. I think that was in, I don't want to say where it was.

I forget what nation. So Iran is still able to fight back. Powerfully so. And it takes a while to get all the news and information in and of course it's being filtered.

And we're not getting all the information because people on the internet they like to focus only on the victories of America and Israel.

Only on our victories that we're having but they don't want to report very much at all.

The other side of the story which is just as real. How the Iran is doing a good job fighting back.

And it's going to get worse. So prophecy is being fulfilled. It will unfold one moment at a time, one day at a time. We have to be careful about these news reports because sometimes there is propaganda on both sides.

We have to understand that. Propaganda doesn't come from one side alone. It comes from both sides. And the news is filtered.

And it does take time to get updates. And it takes time for things to evolve. But now that things are happening people will be starting to wake up, starting to pay more attention to God's true church.

This ministry and the prophecies proclaimed only through this ministry and no other ministry on earth worldwide.

As far as a worldwide proclaiming, people will be listening and coming to the knowledge of the truth.

The Alpha and Omega Bible is not a new translation. It is a restoration of the original scriptures.

Using the oldest biblical manuscripts on earth that we know of.

Now the pre-tribulation of the rapture doctrine, you've got people watching what's happening in Iran right now.

That thinks the rapture is going to happen any second today or tomorrow. And they say that every day and they say that every week and they say that every month and every year.

But it never happens because it's not biblical. And not only is it not biblical, it's demonic.

The pre-tribulation rapture doctrine is from Satan. It's not from God, it's not from scripture.

It's from Satan. And it has a purpose, a very demonic purpose. So a lot of people try to say this is not something to argue about. And this is not a salvation or issue, they try to say.

But they say those things because they don't know the Bible and they don't know God and they're not saved.

So that's propaganda coming from Satan. That's exactly what it is when they say that.

When they say that it's not a salvation or issue and it's not something to argue about and be divided about.

That is satanic propaganda, which in itself proves it's a demonic doctrine. And we're going to prove all this from scripture.

Not my opinion, not my thinking, but scripture.

Now here in Daniel chapter 7, verse 21 in the Old Greek.

And I considered that horn, talking about the Antichrist, rising up war against the saints and causing them to flee.

Now the Theodotion version of the same verse says, I beheld that horn, made war with the saints and prevailed against them.

I think sometimes Theodotion version and the Old Greek, even though they say two different things sometimes, very often are true in both translations.

Only one can be more accurate to the original, but both can be accurate in prophecy.

Only one of the two translations can be the most accurate to what was originally written, but they can both be true in prophecy, in fulfillment.

It says that the horn, which is recognized as the end time Antichrist, biblical scholars agree on that, that it's talking about the biblical end time Antichrist.

Even the next verse gives the context that the agent of days came and gave judgment to the saints of the most high and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

So that's not 70 A.D., that's not 70 B.C., it's not 130 B.C., or any of those B.C.

years. It's not talking about during the time of Antiochus Epiphanes, the Maccabees, or anything that was fulfilled thousands of years ago, but rather as an end time.

Before Jesus comes, in verse 22, the Antichrist comes first, in verse 21, and then there's a process of time of this war between the Antichrist and the saints.

The Antichrist wages war against the saints, fights the saints, prevails against the saints, causing some of them to flee, to escape, and others to die.

To be martyred. That's all correct, that's all true. That's opposite of pre-tribulation rapture. We can study the entire book of Daniel, every verse, with a magnifying glass, and you will not find any type of clue or indication at all about any pre-tribulation rapture.

None, whatsoever at all, in the entire book of Daniel. You can study it, and study it, and study it, and study it until you turn blue in the face.

You can examine every Hebrew word, every Greek word, every Aromatic word. It don't matter what language you try to translate it in, or what manuscript you look at.

There is nothing in the entire book of Daniel talking about a rapture before Jesus comes.

It's not there. I don't even think there's even claim of any of the verses in Daniel presenting such.

I don't even think there is even such a claim. And if it is any such claim, it's very rarely ever heard of, or thought of, or spoken about, because Daniel is absolutely clear.

There is no rapture. How can the Antichrist, the horn, make war with the saints if the saints have already gone to heaven and are resting in heaven and enjoying their eternal reward?

It don't make sense. Traditional, false, Babylonian doctrines don't make sense. They're not logical. I say this very often because it's absolutely very true that the traditional doctrines of your average church, of the average pastor, I say this very often because it's absolutely very true that the traditional doctrines of your average church, of the average pastor, of the average so-called Christian, the majority of their doctrines are not logical, don't match Scripture, and don't make any sense at all.

How can the Antichrist make war with the saints if they're already in heaven and enjoying their eternal reward?

Of course, some people would say, these saints are only talking about the Christians that are left behind.

But I would like for you to prove that to me, and you can't do it. And then their response might be, well, prove to me that these saints are talking about fully fledged, fully saved, fully obedient Christians.

And then all I have to do is, what in the world does the word saint mean? What does the word saint mean?

Sanctified, purified, saved, set apart by God Himself, His people, His chosen people, His elect.

The elect is easy, this is easy stuff. But people would prefer to just listen to messages and doctrines that tickle their ears.

The pre-Tribulation or rapture doctrine tickles their little baby ears, make them feel good, and then they don't have to worry about surviving the Great Tribulation or being martyred or being beheaded or suffering during the time of Great Tribulation.

It's a feel-good, tickle-the-ear, baby, watered-down, immature message. And therefore it's from Satan, because that is the type of message that Satan wants you to listen to.

He wants you to listen to effeminate pastors that are weak and baby-like, pastors that are ignorant of the Holy Scriptures, and pastors that will baby you and treat you like a baby and pacify you and never offend you and never upset you and never stamp on your toes.

That's the type of false gospel that the Bible warns about. That's the type of false gospel that Satan supports and promotes and fuels and funds.

That is the synagogue of Satan that the Book of Revelation warns about. Those that say they are Jews but are not Jews have nothing to do with Israel, has nothing to do with Judea, has nothing to do with the tribe of Judah, has nothing to do with the Middle East at all, but has absolutely everything to do with people who claim to be saved, claim to be Judean Christians, and are not.

That's what it's really about. Those that say they are Christians, those that say they are saved, those that claim they know the Bible and understand the Bible and teach the Bible, and yet every bit of it is a lie from Satan. Satan is the one that deceives. He is the one that is keeping the people in these false doctrines. And they are willing subjects.

Let's go to Revelation 13. Unlike the average church of the world, we don't go by just one verse or just by two or just by three, but we go by the entire Bible.

We will stand here and we will look at verse after verse after verse after verse after verse after verse today, and every worship service, every sermon is this way.

You will not find that in the average church, because they don't want you to read the Bible, because they don't want you to understand the Bible, because if you read it and understood it, it would expose them as false teachers.

Revelation 13, verse 7, it was given to him, talking about the Antichrist, to make war with the saints and to overcome them, and authority over every tribe and people and tongue and nation was given to him.

Context is extremely clear, the time of 666, the time of the Mark of the Bees, the Great Tribulation.

So the context is undeniable and undebatable. It's the Great Tribulation, a time of martyrdom, a time of beheading, a time of the Mark of the Bees, the end time, and here the Antichrist is waging war against the saints, just like Daniel wrote down, just like he wrote. Amen?

Again, saints are sanctified people. These are not lost Christians or false Christians or weak Christians, but these are sanctified, chosen elect of God, that have to suffer a war with the Antichrist in the Great Tribulation.

It would be satanic and demonic for a person to believe that you're not going to face this, that you're not going to face the Great Tribulation, because you're going to fly off in some fairy tale in some paradise in heaven and not have to suffer when the Bible says the opposite of it.

Because then, when it happens, you're going to be called unprepared, unaware, ignorant, blind, deaf, mute.

You're going to be called dead, starving to death, suffering worse than you have to.

The Great Tribulation is going to be so horrible, not necessarily just because Satan is bringing it or God is bringing it, or a war between good and evil, but rather it's going to be so bad and horrendous, because you have brought the suffering upon yourself, because you yourself believed and talked and promoted and supported these demonic doctrines.

You supported it, and yet the Bible is this clear. You can't get more clear than these two verses we have already read. You can't get more clear even if you were to ask God to breathe fire and brimstone and lightning and thunder from the top of the mountain or out of the skies.

You can't get more clear than this right here. And yet there's no verse in the entire Bible that says you don't have to worry about it.

It ain't coming. You're going to be raptured away. You're going to be taken away into heaven before the Tribulation happens. You can read every word of every one of these thousands upon thousands upon thousands of words throughout from Genesis to Revelation, and you won't find that written or indicated, not even half that way.

It's not there. And every tongue, every language, every nation, every tribe, every people is given to the Antichrist. That would include Israel, the United States, the United Kingdom, Australia, Canada, South Africa, Korea, Japan, Philippines.

It don't matter where you are on this planet. The Antichrist will be given authority over every nation on this entire earth.

The Bible says so. So it doesn't matter how much you think that America is great or Israel is powerful or America is powerful, and God bless America and God bless Israel and God bless America and God bless Israel, and we have a great air force and all this bull crap.

The reality is the Bible says what it says that's written in stone. This is going to be fulfilled.

It can't be erased. It can't be prayed away. It can't be fasted away. It's going to happen.

There's nothing we can do to stop it. You can pray and you can fast until you die.

It still won't change what is written in the Holy Scriptures.

Look at Revelation 20 verse 4. Then I saw thrones, and they that sat on them, and authority to judge was given to them. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their testimony of Jesus and because of the word of the Theos of God, and those who had not worshipped the evil beast, the Antichrist, or his stone, the black stone of Mecca, and had not received the branding, the mark on their forehead and on their hand, which is spiritually, symbolically.

There's no real and true physical mark of the beast, but rather it is spiritual in the forehead, other than it is on the packages, the products.

But there's no mark in people's forehead physically. It is symbolically. It is spiritual. And they came to life, and they reigned with the Messiah, came to life, so they were resurrected from the dead because they had been beheaded. When are they going to be beheaded? The Great Tribulation, when the Antichrist, his armies, behead them. This is so easy. This is easy stuff. All you got to do is read it and believe it. But the average church won't read this verse because it exposes their demonic doctrines.

It's demonic to say that we're going to fly away into heaven because that makes these Christians and new converts totally ignorant.

That there's a war against them, that the Antichrist wants to kill them. That death is coming.

It makes them willing sheep for the slaughter. Willing sheep for the slaughter. You can't get more clear than this.

Notice they're resurrected, that they raise to life.

So if they're resurrected, that means they were in the grave, not in heaven after they died, but they were in the grave after they died.

That they could rise. You can't rise if you're already in Heaven. Again, traditional doctrine is not logical. It doesn't make any sense.

I'm trying to find that word rise again. I'm going to have to read the whole thing again.

Verse 4, And they that sat on them, authority to judge was given to them, and the souls of those who had been beheaded, because the testimony of Jesus, because the word of God, and those who had not worshiped the people of these who were his stone, not received the brand on on their forehead or the hand, they came to life, there it is, they came to life.

That's a resurrection from the dead. So if they're being resurrected from the dead, they're in the grave.

You don't come to life if you're already alive in heaven. So we can word it that way.

If they came to life, they were dead, asleep in the grave. You can't come to life if you already have immortal life, if you are immortal like they falsely teach.

First Corinthians 15 says, This mortal must put on immortality, talking about at the last trumpet.

Again, 1 Corinthians 15 talks about the last trumpet. So we're here in the book of Revelation.

People say, well, they like to read the book of Revelation. They like to study it.

Prophecy is interesting, but they can't understand the book of Revelation. And that's because they don't read it slowly and carefully.

They don't take notes as they go as they're reading it. They don't read it over and over and over.

And they're being distracted by all types of false voices of the ignorant pastors, claiming all kinds of bullshit, all kinds of bullshit that don't make sense.

Things that are just totally ridiculous, the most ridiculous claims that you could possibly think of, all of that bullshit, and people will listen and sit and watch a two-hour, even a three-hour video of that bullshit instead of taking three hours to just read the Bible slowly while taking notes.

That's why they don't understand the Word of God. That's why they're not saved, because they'd rather learn the Bible, that's why they're not saved, because they'd rather listen to false preachers spewing out bullshit rather than to read the Word of God themselves.

Rather than to read the Word of God themselves.

Look at Revelation 12. I was going to say before we read this, before you start reading it, follow with me.

And that is, if you were to study the Book of Revelation, you would see that there's seven seals.

Then you come to that last seal, the seventh seal. Then there's seven trumpets. And it tells you what happens in each one of these seals and what happens in each one of these trumpets.

And then at the very last trumpet, 1 Corinthians 15, verse 52, then that's when the dead rise.

And that's when Jesus comes. He actually comes about 41 and a half, actually 45 days, whatever, 41 and a half days later, but He comes down out of the sky a little bit on that very day when the saints rise from the dead.

He does come down to meet the saints in the sky and then turns around, goes back into heaven for the marriage supper for 41 and a half days, according to the Bible.

This is not my opinion, but according to the Bible, this is exactly what happens.

And then after the marriage supper and after the 41 and a half days, after the wrath of God, then He returns to earth with His army, with His keyboard warriors.

He returns to the earth to subdue the Islamic nations at the Battle of Armageddon and the communist nations at the Battle of Armageddon.

That's when Iran will be defeated. That's when Russia and China will be defeated.

Not today. Not last night. Not this week. Not this year. But at the Battle of Armageddon is when those 666 nations, Ezekiel 38, will be defeated.

Of course, we'll win some battles along the way and lose some battles, many battles along the way.

So study in the book of Revelation, you determine there are seven seals, seven trumpets, and then the seventh trumpet is the saints are called up at the end of the tribulation.

Then you go through 41 and a half days of the wrath of God. Then Jesus returns with His saints, and His feet shall stand on that day on the Mount of Olives, and it shall cleave in two. Zechariah 14.

Now all of this has been written down for you, and it's all been handed over to you on a silver platter.

It would take me a while to stand here and teach all that. That's a different subject.

That's a different sermon. And I have preached that sermon, and it's recorded, and you can go back and listen to it if you want.

It's there for you on a silver platter. It's also written down in an article, both the sermon and the article.

Multiple things have already been presented to you, already laid out for you on a silver platter.

All you got to do is seek, and you shall find. This is why God is upset with people.

This is why I'm upset with people, just like God is. Why me and God are united on this issue is that everything has already been laid out for you on a silver platter.

Everything is laid out in detail. Everything is documented. Everything is verified. Everything is validated.

Everything is just laid out for you as simple and as easy as it can get, and you're still confused, and you still don't know what to believe.

And that's what it is. You still don't know what to believe, and that's ridiculous and unforgivable.

You don't know what to believe. Everything is laid out for you like as simple as a small child could understand.

You just don't want to believe it. Now with all that said, let's go to the next verse in Revelation 12.

Starting in verse 7, and this verse 7 is going to be occurred on the day of Purim.

Purim's coming up, March 3rd and March 4th. It says here in verse 7, there was a war in heaven.

Michael and his angels waging war with the dragon, and dragon and his angels waging war.

So this is a war in heaven between the good angels and the bad angels. This is talked about in Daniel 12 verse 1.

It's also talked about in 2 Thessalonians chapter 2. But continuing here in Revelation 12 verse 8, and they, the false angels or bad angels, were not strong enough, and there was no longer a place found for them in heaven.

Verse 9, and the great dragon was thrown down the serpent of old, who is called the devil and Satan, and who he deceives the entire world.

He was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. And I heard a loud voice in heaven saying, Now is the salvation, the power, and the kingdom of our Theos, and the authority of his Messiah has come.

For the accuser of our brother has been thrown down. He who accused them before our Theos, day and night.

But they overcame him, overcame Satan, by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony.

And they did not love their life, even when faced with death. This is martyrdom. Again, proving there's no such thing as a pre-tribulation rapture, if you're going to be faced with death, and beheading, and martyrdom, and a war with the Antichrist, in the great tribulation.

Verse 12, and for this reason rejoice, O heavens, and you who dwell in them. Of course, they're going to say, that proves we're in heaven.

But this verse doesn't say who is in heaven. Who is in heaven? It would be the angels, if you read the entire Bible. If you read all the book of Revelation, the book of Revelation describes angels in heaven, over, and over, and over, and over.

It never, never, ever, ever describes humans in heaven, except for Revelation 19, where they're in heaven after they have been caught up at the last trumpet, the seventh trumpet of the seventh seal on the Day of Atonement, three and a half years after the great tribulation had started.

So that's the end of the tribulation, not the beginning. You've got to read the whole Bible.

Woe to the earth and to the sea, because the devil has come down to you, having great anger, knowing that he has a short time.

That's three and a half years. And when the dragon saw that he was thrown down to the earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the male.

Now, the male here is both physical Israel and spiritual Israel. That the Antichrist and Satan, and the two false prophets, that's the Roman Catholic Pope, and the head of the Eastern Orthodox Churches, those are the two horns of the false prophet.

The Roman Catholic Pope and the head of the Eastern Orthodox Catholic Churches, the two horns of the false prophet. Those two men, or demons, and the Antichrist, which is also a demon, those three demons, and Satan is still three demons, because the Pope himself is the Antichrist, is Satan himself.

Now, it might not be Pope Leo. It's probably going to be a Pope that follows Pope Leo in just a few days from now or a few weeks from now.

But rather it's Pope Leo or one that follows him, like I suspect. Either way, the Pope is Satan literally.

So, you've got that, three demons, as the Bible says, that they are three demons, three unclean spirits, that are waging war against Israel, physical Israel, and spiritual Israel.

Now, if they're waging war against the woman, Israel, then they're not up in heaven, because look, those devils, they have been cast down out of heaven.

So, they're not waging war with Israel in heaven, but rather after they have been cast out from heaven.

So, if they're cast down to the earth to persecute the church, the true Jews, the spiritual Jews, and the physical Jews, right?

Easy stuff. And we're going to jump down to verse 17. So, the dragon was enraged, angry with the woman, the church, and Israel, and went off to make war with the rest of her children, and who keep the commandments of Israel.

She went off to make war with the rest of her children, and who keep the commandments of God, and hold to the testimony of Jesus, not to the testimony of Yahshua, Yahweh, or all of those false names, those Assyrian names, those blasphemous names, but the testimony of Jesus, very specifically.

So, here in Revelation 12, we see both a fleeing of the church, which we did not read, but you can read it on your own accord, in your own time, but there is a fleeing of the true church, and then there is also a persecution of the true church.

So, different people have different things that God has planned for them, but rather the church is at war against the Antichrist, or rather they are protected by God, as it says here in verse 14.

They're both on earth. So this, you can't get more powerful than this. This is more powerful than thunder and lightning from heaven, if people just read it and believe it.

But they want to point at so many other verses, where they twist and they distort and they add to what it says.

They want to take all kinds of verses in Revelation 2 and 3, the letters to the seven churches, and they want to say, ha ha ha, this means we're going to be called out.

For one thing, Revelation chapter 2 and 3 was written primarily to churches that existed thousands of years ago, and those people did die.

And they were not raptured out. And then secondly, yes, Revelation 2 and 3 also are for living saints in this day and time, but there is Christians that are being martyred by the thousands in Nigeria, Saudi Arabia, Iran, Turkey, China, and across the world, even in the streets of America, and Canada and the United Kingdom.

They're not raptured out.

Let's go to Matthew 24, verse 3... As he was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, Tell us when will these things happen, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the world?

Now, the people that teach that this chapter is talking about 70 A.D. and it's fulfilled in 70 A.D., they try to say this, where it says the end of the world, you can translate that as the end of the age, and that's true, that you could translate to the end of the age if the context determined that.

But the reality is, in 70 A.D., although the temple was destroyed, Jesus did not come.

So it's asking the end of the world in the context of the return of Jesus. So it's impossible for this chapter to be primarily talking about 70 A.D.

Totally, absolutely, 100%, 200%, 1000%, impossible for it to be talking about 70 A.D. as the primary fulfillment, but rather the end of the world, not the end of that age, not that particular age.

And he will list, Jesus does in this chapter, many different things to watch for, many different signs.

But no words does it say, watch for me to secretly make you disappear out of the blue, and you just won't be here, but you'll be in heaven, and you're not going to suffer the war with the Antichrist and martyrdom and death, you don't have to worry about this, it's not there.

Now the closest, they try to twist, verse 15. Verse 15, therefore when you see the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place, let the reader understand.

Now first of all, it says reader, not listener. So that proves that Jesus knew when he said that, or at least the Holy Ghost, at least God the Father and Jesus understood, that this scripture would be fulfilled in a time when there would be a printing press. Amen?

Not 70 A.D. Because in 70 A.D. there was hardly no one on the entire planet had read this chapter or even this book. Hardly no one on the planet in 70 A.D. had read the book of Matthew yet, because it was so new, so recent, and there wasn't printing presses, everything was written by hand.

So you might have had maybe a hundred people on the entire earth, maybe, maybe, that might have read it or heard it read, and that's it.

But they try to say this proves it would be a third Jewish temple, where the Antichrist breaks a peace treaty, mistranslation of Daniel 9, misinterpretation of Daniel 9.

It says spoken of by Daniel, so they want to go to Daniel 9. The problem with that is that the events of Matthew 24 has nothing to do with Daniel 9, but rather Daniel 12. Amen?

You can read all the book of Daniel, and it is Daniel 12 more than any other chapter of Daniel that is really talking about the great tribulation and the time of the end of the world, the coming of Christ as Daniel 12, not chapter 9.

Chapter 9 was already fulfilled. Chapter 12 is the only chapter of Daniel that has not been fulfilled, only chapter 12.

And just a few verses of chapter 2. And of course, Daniel 7, 21 of the war of the Antichrist fighting the saints.

So just a verse here and there. Most of Daniel has already been fulfilled. Daniel 12 has not been fulfilled yet, and really is what Jesus is referring to here.

Not Daniel 9, but Daniel 12. The abomination of desolation and the holy place is occurring in heaven, not on the Temple Mount, because you have to read, and we're going to read here in just a minute, 2 Thessalonians chapter 2.

And that makes it clear, because you can't just take one verse and just make it what you won't want it to say, what you want it to mean.

You've got to study the Bible. You've got to read all of Daniel, all of Revelation, Ezekiel, and Jeremiah.

You've got to read the whole book, all of it, from Genesis to Revelation, and with the help of the Holy Ghost, not as a lost person, but with the help of the Holy Ghost, as a saint.

That's how you understand the Bible. You can't understand the Bible as a lost person.

You can't. It's impossible. The Bible says you can't. The Bible itself says you can't understand the Scriptures without His Spirit.

It says it. So we'll wait about this holy place, this abomination of desolation.

We're going to follow up once we get there, 2 Thessalonians 2. So let's just turn there right now.

But no, wait a minute, just pause for a minute. I want to finish Matthew 24. Look at Matthew 24, verse 30.

And then the sign of the Son of Mankind will appear in the sky, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Mankind coming in the clouds of the sky with power and with great glory.

That's not a secret rapture, if He's coming with power and great glory. And He will send forth His angels with a great trumpet, and they will gather together His elect from the four corners of the earth, the four winds, north, west, south, east, and from one end of the sky to the other.

Now this is the gathering of the saints. When does it occur? Does it occur before the abomination in verse 15? No.

It's happening in verse 30. It's not happening in verse 1. It's not happening in verse 12 and 13. It's happening later in the chapter, after the abomination of desolation, after the manifestation of the Antichrist, after the martyrdom, verse 22, after the martyrdom and all these other verses, and false Christs and false prophets in verse 24, very clearly the great tribulation is occurring.

The great tribulation is occurring all the way from verse 15 onward. Well, plus your 30 days of fling before the tribulation, to be accurate there, to be perfectly accurate.

Your great tribulation plus 30 days of fling occurs from verse 15 onward.

So this is easy. You can't get more easy, more simple than this. It's very basic. And Jesus, just like I have done, has laid out everything for you on a silver platter to make it easy to understand.

And people are still like, oh, duh, I can't understand this. I'm confused. I don't know what to believe. Everybody says something different.

It's not important. There's no argue about it. It's not a salvational issue because it's so confusing. I just don't want to think about it.

Oh, me. Let me dye my hair again. Let me put on my fingernail polish. Let me coat my face in makeup and look like a clown and act sexy and act like a whore and act like a prostitute and claim to be a Christian.

Oh, God bless America. Verse 30, it talks about a trumpet. Amen. Verse 31, rather.

Verse 31 talks about a trumpet. First Corinthians 15:52 matches the Book of Revelation about there being more than one trumpet and then you wait for the last trumpet, the seventh trumpet, then the dead in Christ will rise.

This is easy. You can't get more easy than this.

Now let's turn to 2 Thessalonians, Chapter 2 Verse 1.

Now we request you, brethren, about the coming of our Lord Jesus the Messiah and our gathering together to Him.

Verse 2, that you not be quickly shaken from your composure or be disturbed either by spirit or message or letter as if it was from us or to the effect that the day of the Lord has come.

The end, the great tribulation. That no one in any way deceive you if not until the apostasy, spelling, the following away, confers and also the personage of the lawlessness is manifested.

The son of destruction, the son of perdition. That's very clearly talking about the Antichrist.

Everybody agrees, everybody, all denominations, all Bible scholars, pastors, denominations, it's so simple.

There's not even a debate about it. It's talking about the Antichrist. The problem is, the problem is, your average pastor absolutely refuses to read this chapter to his congregation.

It's a secret chapter. Don't tell no one. They pretend it's not there because if they were to read it to their congregations or if they would make a video on YouTube about this chapter, it would expose their demonic false doctrines as a lie.

It would expose them. So it's a secret chapter because it says, don't worry that the great tribulation has come, the day of the Lord, or that Jesus is coming to gather us because it's not going to happen under any circumstance until the Antichrist comes first.

The Antichrist has to come first so that he can wage war against the Antichrist. He has to be with the saints and be given power and authority over every nation on earth.

That's got to happen first before Jesus comes. According to this, according to Matthew 24, Luke 21, Mark 13, the entire book of Revelation, and the book of Daniel.

According to all of that, not my opinion, but according to all of scripture from A to Z, from Genesis to Revelation, that is the order it occurs.

It never says anything different from it. Verse four, talking about the Antichrist, who opposes and exalts himself above everyone called God or object of worship.

It says the same thing in Daniel 11:39, which proves that the end time picks up in the last chapter of Daniel.

This is almost the last verse of chapter 11. That it's quoting. It's quoting Daniel 11:39. That's almost right at the start of Daniel 12.

Who opposes and exalts everything called God or object of worship, and so that he himself would sit in the temple of God, exhibiting himself as being God.

So that's talking about the same thing as what we read in Matthew 24, verse 15, the abomination of desolation, sitting in the holy place.

Now, both Matthew 24:15, and this verse four in 2 Thessalonians 2, neither one of them, as well as the verses before and after, none of these says anything about a temple being built or restored, a restoration or rebuilding of a third temple.

It just says it's going to happen in a temple. And so the Christians, false Christians, want to assume that a temple is built.

They're like, oh, there is a holy place. There is a temple. There is the temple of God. There is the seat of God.

Therefore, the Jews must be going to build it. The problem with that is when you assume things, you make an ass out of yourself.

You can't just assume it. You've got to prove it. You've got to prove it with Scripture, not by jumping to a conclusion.

That's not proving anything.

You can't just jump to a conclusion and say, there, I proved it. That's not the same thing.

You've got to prove it. I can prove it. I can prove that this temple of God is not on the temple now, but is in heaven because Revelation 11 verse 19 says that the temple of God in heaven was opened.

When? Last trumpet. Seventh trumpet. Amen. But verse four here in second Thessalonians happens at the beginning of the tribulation, and then Revelation 11 verse 19 happens at the end of the tribulation, but the same location, the temple of God in heaven.

So I'm going to say that again for all the new listeners that are not familiar with correct prophetic teaching.

2 Thessalonians 2 verse 4, the temple of God is actually, to be more accurate, 30 days before the great tribulation begins.

It also occurs on the day of Purim, and this is the reopening of the fifth seal, the fifth seal out of seven.

So none of the trumpets have blown yet at this time. Then you go to Revelation 11 verse 19, the temple of God is in heaven, is the same temple.

You don't have two different temples. It's the same temple, but two different time periods in which Revelation 11 verse 19 is talking about.

The end of the tribulation. Now we go back and continue to read here in second Thessalonians, and it says in verse five, do you not remember that while I was still with you that I was telling you these things?

And you know who restrains him, restrains the Antichrist, talking about Michael the archangel in Daniel 12 verse 1 is restraining the Antichrist.

So that in his time he, the Antichrist, would be manifested. For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work.

Only he who now restrains—Michael the archangel—will restrain and will do so until he's taken out of the way.

Not the church being taken out of the way, not the Holy Spirit being taken out of the way, not the Holy Spirit being taken out of the way, but rather Michael the archangel.

The pre-tribulation rapture people teach it's the church being taken out of the way.

So actually I will correct myself. They will read this one verse in this chapter, not the whole chapter.

They will never read the whole chapter, but they will read this one verse, only one verse of this entire chapter will they ever, ever read.

And I'll know this to be accurate and true because I used to sit in those churches for years and years and years, and they always read only this one verse, never the verses before it or after it, ever.

Never once did they read any of the verses before it. They never read anything from context.

They always pick one verse out of context. That's how they teach so they can deceive.

So they say taken out of the way is the church being taken out of the way, or sometimes they word it the Holy Ghost or the Holy Spirit being taken out of the way.

You have to prove that to me, right? You can't prove that to me, it's impossible.

So then you say, okay, you proved to me it's talking about Michael the Archangel.

And all I have to do is simply read Daniel 12, verse one, maybe verse two, and that's not being taken out of context because I have read over and over, I've stood at this pulpit and I've written it out on the articles, over and over and over the verses before it and the verses after it, keeping it in the context.

It's Michael the Archangel taken out of the way. He's a restrainer. Who restrains in the Bible? Do a research.

If you want to, if you want to test what I'm saying, you could do a Bible research.

And look, you can use BlueLetterBible.com or BibleHub.com or a million other websites or a hard copy of Strong Concordance, however you want to do it.

And look at every time in the Bible where there's an angel restraining or the Holy Ghost restraining or the Holy Spirit restraining.

And there's always angels that restrain. So there's an angel that is restraining.

So there's an angel that is restraining. Also, again, you've got to compare Revelation and Daniel.

So when you do compare this chapter here with the book of Revelation, you also have angels restraining and really holding back, restraining and then releasing, right?

You don't see the Holy Spirit doing that in the book of Revelation. Only angels, right?

You know I'm speaking the truth. Let me hear some amens. The same thing in Daniel. Same thing throughout Scripture.

That's how you know the truth is you compare all these chapters, all these books together.

You compare. That's how you learn and that's how you know the truth.

Now, Daniel 12 verse 1 occurs 30 days before the Tribulation. How do I know that?

Because Daniel 12, that same chapter, talks about the Holy Spirit and that same chapter talks about 1290 days.

And the difference between 1290 days and 1260 is 30 days. Simple math. A sixth grader can add that up. Now look, verse 8, the wicked one, the Antichrist, would be manifested, whom the Lord, the true Jesus, will slay with the breath of his mouth and bring to an end by the appearance of his coming.

That's at the end of the Tribulation. Verse 9, that is, the one, the Antichrist, who's coming, is in cooperation with the stronghold of the Lord, whose coming is in cooperation with the strong work of Satan, with all power and signs and deceiving wonders.

The word coming here in verse 9 is the exact same Greek word used throughout Scripture to refer to the coming of Christ.

So this is a fake coming of Christ. This is a fake pre-tribulation rapture. This is why the pre-tribulation rapture doctrine is demonic. It's because when the Antichrist appears in the sky in a fake coming of Christ, in a fake pre-tribulation Rapture, 30 days before the Tribulation, that is the abomination that it's talking about.

That is the war in heaven in Revelation 12. In Revelation 12, all of these are the same event.

Matthew 24:15 and Daniel 12:1 and this verse in Thessalonians and Revelation 12 are all the same exact event.

The fifth seal, Revelation 6, same event. And it is a fake coming of Christ. So it's the Antichrist, it's the opposite of Christ coming in the sky. So Satan's purpose in this is to deceive the pastors, the leaders, the churches, the denominations, the Christians, the people, the population, the sheep, so that he can slaughter you.

It's a trap. It's a demonic trap. But because people who claim to know God have embraced this trap and have fallen in love with this trap, and they will fight for it, they fight for this, that makes them workers of Satan.

Every pastor, every so-called Christian, Pastor Hagee, John Hagee, is a very famous one that fights like hell for the pre-tribulation rapture doctrine.

He's a worker of Satan. And he has millions of followers, he's a bestseller, one of the bestsellers on the Wall Street thing, New York Times bestseller.

You know why? Because a true man of God would never make that list because the world loves itself.

As the Bible says, the world loves itself. Jesus would never have a bestseller other than the Bible itself, and that's it. Because the world doesn't like the truth, because the truth exposes their sins. As the Bible says, the light exposes darkness.

All of this is easy stuff.

So the Antichrist comes how? With power, with signs and deceiving wonders, in verse 9. The Antichrist is not coming like just a man on the temple mount, claiming to be God, like people claim.

That don't even make sense. Because if it was really like the false churches try to teach, where it's just a man just standing on the temple mount, claiming to be God, well, that's already happened a million times.

There's already people claiming to be Christ all across the world, in Puerto Rico, in Africa, in Europe, in Israel, in Jerusalem.

There are people claiming to be Jesus. That has always happened, over and over and over and over.

And guess what? They only get 10 followers, 100, 200, maybe 2,000 sometimes. They get followers as big as 2,000 sometimes. And that's it.

But the real, the Antichrist himself, will get the whole world worshipping him, as Revelation 13.

Let's put a bookmark here, because I'll show you something in Revelation 13. Put a piece of paper there.

Revelation 13 about the whole world worshipping the Antichrist, not just a couple of thousand.

Revelation 13, verse 4. They worship the dragon, the whole world does, because he gave his authority to the evil beast, and they worship the evil beast, the Antichrist, saying, who is like the evil beast, and who is able to wage war with him?

But also, verse 8, the majority of those who dwell on the earth will worship him.

All of those whose names were not written from the foundation of the world, in the scroll of the life of the Lamb who has been slain.

The majority of the world, King James and all the other translations, says all the world.

But it's not going to be all the world, because I know that the saints are not going to worship the Antichrist.

So when it says all the world, that Greek word for all, can be translated as a majority or even as some, but it's not just going to be some, when he's given authority over every nation, he's working miracles, he's going to heal the sick, he's going to raise the dead, he's going to bring all types of fake archaeological artifacts to try to prove that Islam is the correct religion.

They're going to be claiming, oh, we found such and such a manuscript from the first century AD, proving that Jesus was a Muslim.

That's going to happen, that they're going to claim it. They're going to try to claim it. False replicas, false scriptures, they're going to use every trick in the book. They're going to be healing people. They're going to be healing the blind, the deaf, the mute. There can be all kinds of great miracles. Matthew 24 tells you that. Even this chapter tells you that. Great miracles, and Jesus said repeatedly, don't believe it when they're working all these great miracles. Don't worship them. Don't let them deceive you.

But a lot of people will fall for it and worship the Antichrist and Satan and the false prophets because that way they can stay alive.

They don't have to be martyred. They don't have to die. They get their government food and their government water and government money, and they can stay alive.

They don't have to die for Christ. They don't have to take up their death stake and follow Christ and deny themselves and make a stand for the truth and fight.

They don't have to be a keyboard warrior. They don't have to be a warrior for the Lord.

They don't have to fight for the Lord. They can just take the free food and sell their birthright for a bowl of soup like Esau did.

That's the easy way out. And that's why everybody took the vaccine, the COVID vaccine.

Everybody that took the COVID vaccine, they deserved what they got. The sicknesses, the diseases, the cancer that they got.

They deserved the cancer that they got. They deserved the strokes and the heart attacks that they received.

They deserved the judgment of God because they have that same mentality that they just take the easy way, sell their birthright, sell their soul to Satan, so that they can get the job, the money, the career, keep their job and make it easy and not have to stand against wickedness.

It's the easy way. And people that take the easy way, God has no use for them, and neither do I.

The whole world is going, as far as the survivors, of course there's going to be a lot dead from the initial blast of World War III, but the ones that stay alive, a lot of them will be worshipping the Antichrist.

And these would be people that claim to be saved, Muslims who claim to be saved, Christians that claim to be saved, Buddhists and Hindus and all types of groups of people, all of them.

So you've got to be careful about these false Christians that are waiting for the rapture because when that sky does open up to the Antichrist, these people are going to fall to their knees worshipping the Son of Satan.

That's exactly what they're going to do. So why do you want to sit in their churches?

Why do you want to listen to their music, their songs, their videos? Why do you want to even talk to them?

They're not even worthy of rebuke. They're not even worthy of your time and attention.

Just ignore them because they're about to die anyway, most of them. I don't need to turn back to 2 Thessalonians.

Let's go to 1 Thessalonians. That's near your bookmark. 1 Thessalonians 4. This is one of these verses that they take out of context and twist and distort to try to prove a pre-trib rapture.

So let's look at this. 1 Thessalonians chapter 4. In verse 15, we're going to go all the way back to verse 14, even if we're going to go all the way back to verse 14, even 13.

Let's start in verse 13. Let's just go all the way back in verse 13. But we do not want you to be ignorant, or they are.

Hey, was that in 2 Thessalonians 2 or not, the word ignorant?

No. I guess that's not in 2 Thessalonians. It's not. I don't reckon. Okay. So continuing here in verse chapter 4, verse 13, I don't want you to be ignorant, brother, about those who are asleep.

So they are. I don't want you to be ignorant, brother, about those who are asleep.

So that you should not grieve, as do the rest who have no hope. As I said recently, false Christians, when somebody dies, they want to grieve forever and write it on the calendar, the date that they must grieve again, year after year after year, even 30 years later, on that same date on the calendar.

Oh, it's time to grieve again. And the tears start flowing. That's ridiculous. And they claim to be saved.

That's ridiculous. If we're a true Christian, we ain't going to pay no attention to such a date because we know that they're just sleeping.

I sleep every night. Well, I don't. But you sleep every night. Do you grieve? Do you cry about it? It's ridiculous. They don't have hope. They claim they do, but they don't, these false Christians.

They don't have hope. Liars. Verse 14. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, we will not be saved.

If we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, Theos will bring with him those who have fallen asleep in Jesus. Fallen asleep is physically death. That's not falling away from Christ because if they fell away from Christ, he wouldn't be bringing them.

Common sense. Verse 15. For this we say to you by the word of the Lord that we who are alive and survive until the coming of the Lord will not perceive those who have fallen asleep.

Other translations say remain until the coming of the Lord. Same thing. Same thing. This proves that the pre-tribulation rapture is a lie.

Those that survive until the coming of God, survive what? That's not talking about surviving regular life like all humanity always has, but the great tribulation, the day of the Lord. Amen.

Won't perceive those who have fallen asleep, the ones that are in the grave.

For the Lord himself would descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, with the trumpet of Theos.

Which trumpet? 1 Corinthians 15:52. The last trumpet. The seventh trumpet. Revelation 11. Revelation 10. The last trumpet. And the dead in Christ, the dead in the Messiah, arise first.

This is a resurrection. Then those who are alive and remain will be called up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we'll be always forever with God, with the Lord.

This is the easy stuff. There's nothing here about it happening before the tribulation.

It doesn't say it. So try to use these verses, to try to use these verses to teach pre-tribulation rapture, you have to assume and make an ass of yourself and interject imaginations of which it doesn't say.

It doesn't say before the tribulation, but rather it talks about surviving something which tends to lean forward, surviving the tribulation.

So there's a much better indication of surviving the tribulation rather than pre-trib rapture, especially in the context that 2 Thessalonians is the next page.

Now let's go to Luke 17. Again, these are some verses that they try to use to teach their false theology without reading every verse.

They want to leave it out. Luke 17, starting in verse 22. Let me get moisture from my throat real quick. Luke 17 verse 22.

And he said to the disciples, the days will come when you will long to see or want to see one of the days of the Son of Mankind and you won't see it.

And they will say to you, look there, look here, do not go away and do not run after them.

But just as the lightning, when it flashes out of one part of the sky, shines to the other part of the sky, so will the Son of Mankind be in His day, His coming.

Now, they twist that. They try to say that in the rapture, that the people would disappear, the Christians would disappear in the snap of a finger, in the twinkle of an eye, in the flash of lightning, that's how fast you would disappear. Where does it say that? It talks about the lightning traveling across the sky from one end of the sky to the other end of the sky.

That is something that you can see traveling. That is something that you can see moving across the sky that's evident and powerful and loud and frightening in the darkness of the sky.

That's how Jesus is coming. It says absolutely nothing about how fast you're going to vanish.

Nothing. That's how much they twist Scripture. That is a very severe twisting of Scripture. It says nothing like the way they twist it.

Nothing. Verse 25. But first, he must suffer or allow. I want to change that to allow so people can understand.

Well, when I say suffer, we've got to look at the Greek. So make a note to look at the Greek.

Does it mean suffer, suffer, or allow? Many things can be rejected. It probably means suffer, so we'll probably keep it. But I do want to check the Greek.

Suffer many things and be rejected by this generation. And just as it has happened in the days of Noah, so it will also be in the days of the Son of Mankind.

They were eating, they were drinking, they were marrying, and they were given in marriage until the day that Noah entered the ark and the flood came and destroyed them all.

Now, there's nothing wrong with eating. There's nothing wrong with getting married.

There's nothing wrong with getting married. So there's also nothing wrong with drinking.

False Christians would debate that with me, and all I've got to do is show them Colossians 2, where it says, Don't let anyone condemn you for the alcohol in the context of the holy days and celebrating the holy days.

And also Passover wine is alcohol. 1 Corinthians 11 proves that it's real alcohol and proves it was strong alcohol.
1 Corinthians 11 does. Drinking is not a sin. Nothing wrong with getting married, drinking, eating. But the problem here is that they're living life as nothing's going to happen.
And that's the way people were yesterday. And they had already received my newsletter where I had said that Iranian strikes are coming tonight or tomorrow, whichever it is.
I can't remember whether I sent it the day before or the same day. So I wish I had help.
But I had sent out that newsletter saying, fill up your gas tanks, get your supplies because you've got five days max to get ready because the Iranian strikes are going to happen either, I said, this evening or tomorrow evening, whichever one it was.
I wish I had help. But whichever way it is, did anybody do anything outside the people in this room?
No. I guarantee you, I guarantee you, out of everybody that received that newsletter, not one single person went and filled up their car tank, got gas, got fuel, bought some extra groceries.
No one. Guarantee you that. Because the people never have been saved and the people never have believed the Word of God.
The people never have loved God or His Word or His Scriptures. These people have never heard God and never want to hear from God.
They're just stubborn rebellious and they are very deserving of the judgment that's coming to them.
Very deserving of the judgment that is about to hit them. People that claim they've been saved ever since they was a child.
They've been saved for years. They hear from God all the time. Bullshit. If they really heard from God, they would have filled up their gas tanks when they got this newsletter and even before they got the newsletter, they would have filled up their gas tanks because they would have known that all hell was about to break loose if they really heard from God.
Luke 17. Verse 27. What it's teaching is people living their lives as normal as if the Great Tribulation ain't going to happen and the coming of Christ ain't going to happen and the martyrdom ain't going to happen and losing the electricity ain't going to happen.
I just live in life blindly, eagerly, while claiming to know the Lord. Verse 28. And it was the same as happened in the days of Lot. They were eating, they were drinking, they were buying, they were selling, they were planting, they were building.
They were living life as normal, in other words. But on the day that Lot went out from Sodom, it rained fire and sulfur, blue sulfur, from heaven and destroyed them all.
And it will be just the same on the day that the Son of Mankind is manifested. That's pretty ridiculous, ain't it?
On that day, the one who is on the housetop. Now, wait a minute. I'm going to show you something. Verse 30.
Context is the day Jesus comes, right? Now, we've already proven from multiple scriptures and from multiple books of the Bible that Jesus comes after the tribulation.
So we're reading this in that context without understanding. Verse 30, Jesus coming after the tribulation.
Then, verse 31, on that day, the one who is on the housetop and whose goods are in the house, his stuff is in the house, must not go down to take them out.
I do want to change the word goods because that's really a very old way of saying that.
We've got to come out with a batter like supplies or whatever, their stuff is in the house, must go down to take them out.
And likewise, the one who is in the field must not turn back. Remember Lot's wife.
Whoever seeks to keep his life will lose it and whoever loses his life will preserve it.
I tell you, on that night, dark time, there will be a time there will be two in one bed and one will be taken and the other will be left.
And there will be two women grinding in the same place. One will be taken and the other will be left.

All right, so they always want to read in these churches. They always want to read verse 34 and 35.
And verse 36, which the King James adds, that was not in the original scriptures.
But they never read verse 37. No, they don't do it. They will stop right at verse 36, which doesn't even exist in the original scriptures, the oldest manuscripts.
They'll stop right there and never, ever, ever, ever, ever, they don't read verse 37.

Because if they did, it would expose their false doctrines. Verse 37 in mainstream, they said to him, where master? And he said to them, where the dead bodies are, the carcasses are, there will also be the raptors be gathered together, raptor birds.

Here's the true rapture. The way that these people are taken away, one in the bed, one in the field, one grinding at the mill, the way that they're taken away is not by to go to heaven, but rather to be eaten by the rapture birds.

Right? That's clear. That's easy to understand. And then we can compare that to Revelation 19.

Let's turn over there. It also says it in Ezekiel, I believe. But Revelation 19, verse 17, Revelation 19, verse 17. Then I saw one angel standing in the sun and he cried out with a loud voice saying to all the birds which fly in the sky, come and assemble for the great supper of the Theos, so that you may eat the flesh of kings and the flesh of commanders and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of all men, both free men and slaves, and small and great. Amen?

Here's the rapture birds eating the flesh of the wicked people. Timing is the battle of Armageddon, the coming of Christ after the tribulation. That's when Pentecost, the coming of Christ after the tribulation, the coming of Christ after the tribulation.

That's when people are taken away in those verses in Luke 17 and Matthew 24 and Mark 13, when they always want to point at those particular individual verses.

Oh, we're going to be taken away. There'll be two people here or a hundred people here or a thousand people here, and just one will be taken away.

The Bible says they're eaten by birds, raptures, vultures. So if you want to be taken away, it means you want to be eaten by a vulture.

Well, if that's what you want, go for it. That's your business.

But these Democrats deserve it. I saw today when I was reading the news about the strikes on Iran, February 28, 2026, I see all these idiots that claim to be Christians protesting on social media against these strikes against Iran, when the Iranian people themselves are celebrated.

How dare we try to free these people who are oppressed under a Nazi regime when this Nazi regime of the Iranian government has killed 50,000 people of their own citizens.

50,000 in the past month have been murdered by that regime. And there's a countless list of terror attacks worldwide ever since the 1970s that this regime has been behind, been responsible for.

How many times have they attacked the embassies and our bases and our people? We've got sleeper cells, and they're still going to be activated.

This is a very demonic regime. A very, very demonic regime.

And yet these people that claim to be Christians, they're against attacking this extremely evil, satanic regime, Antichrist regime.

The Antichrist himself, the Son of Perdition, the son of Satan, is Bashar Assad. Evil be his name.

And he will return to power any day now. Assad will return to power. People laugh at me, they mock me, because they also laughed at and mocked Jesus, the Bible says.

We know that they mocked Noah and Jeremiah. So of course they're going to mock me.

Of course they will. But when the prophecy is fulfilled, all of a sudden they will be knocking on the door of Noah's ark, and it will be too late.

They deserve the judgment of God that is coming against them very, very, very soon.

America will be invaded. Israel will be invaded. The Philippines, Japan, which very much deserves the invasion. South Korea, Australia, Australia, which very much deserves the invasion.

All these nations do, every one of them. Even Canada, because they are part of Israel, and America, and Judea.

They're all going to be invaded, every one of them. The Antichrist will be given power over every nation.

The Bible says it. This is not my opinion. It's what the Bible says. Ezekiel 38 talks about that invasion.

It's not my opinion. It's what the Bible says. You just don't understand it. It's what the Bible says.

The electricity will go out. The water will turn off. People will starve to death. The Bible says one fourth of the world's population would die from starvation.

Another one fourth would die from disease. Another one fourth would die from the actual war itself, which means from the blast of bombs and bullets, ammunition, and other war-related fatalities, including nuclear fallout.

And only one fourth will survive. That's billions of people dead over these next three and a half years.

Every one of them deserves it. Every one of them. That doesn't mean that I don't have a lot of love in my heart. God knows.

Brother R knows. Brother J knows that I'm an extremely loving person. Extremely loving. But these people, according to the Bible, deserve what they're going to get.

There's an angel in the book of Revelation somewhere that says they deserved it. The angel says they deserved it. So how come I can't say it? The truth is the truth. That doesn't mean I don't love. It just means these people are evil and they have treated God with such disrespect.

They have treated His Word, His prophecies, and His messages with great disrespect.

They deserve what they get. These people that have known about me, about these prophecies, about these messages of the Lord Jesus, have known about this ministry for multiple years and have done nothing to help or support us.

You deserve the judgment. People that have met me face to face and know that I'm a loving person, that I'm a kind person, that I'm a tender person, that I am a patient person.

And yet, you're still not here. You're still not in this congregation today. You're not present today. Even though you know about the Alpha and Omega Bible and you know it's the most accurate Bible, you know it is.

And you know my teachings are more accurate than any other preacher you have ever heard in your entire life.

But yet, you're still not here today. You deserve the judgment of God, every one of you.

And I wouldn't take you back if you did come begging because you deserve the judgment.

The only people I'm going to show mercy on is the people that are just now learning about this ministry, just now coming into the knowledge of this ministry and will embrace the truth even if it is because of fulfilled prophecy. But they actually embrace the truth and surrender to God at this time, dedicate themselves to God at this time in the name of Jesus, with full water baptism and full commitment to the Sabbath, the biblical holy days, the Passover communion, the Passover pilgrimage, and support for Israel, support for righteousness, support for truth, and surrender everything.

Your entire life, surrender everything. And I'm talking about everything. Hold nothing back. Only then am I going to have mercy on you in these coming days, in these coming weeks.

If you hold back and not willing to surrender absolutely everything, then don't contact me, don't waste my time.

But if you're willing to take up your death stake, deny yourself, and give up everything you own, and I do mean everything you own, everything you own, everything, and walk away.

If you have to walk away from husbands, if you have to walk away from wives, children, parents, grandparents, houses, land, jobs, careers, walk away from everything as they did to follow Jesus in the time of the disciples, they left their wives, they left their children and their jobs, and they left everything to follow Jesus.

And it is only that type of person that I will show mercy to in these next few days and weeks.

Only that type of person. Only those people will I show mercy to. And the power of God rests in me. God has given me this power and this authority that what I bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and what I release on earth shall be released in heaven.

The power of God Almighty rests in this place, in this ministry, in this church. God chose this ministry, no other ministry on the earth, this entire earth.

God chose this ministry and this ministry alone. As far as a international outreach, there may be individual, hidden, secret groups that are small and not known, but I'm talking about as an international ministry, as an international organization, it's this ministry alone that God has used to bring His prophecies, His Word, His truth, His doctrines and His messages to try to alert people and prepare people and wake people up and to teach them the Word of God.

So if you embrace that and will give up everything and give up your life, walk away from everything to come and follow Christ Jesus, then I will embrace you and only those people will I embrace, no one else.

Because this is life and death and judgment is here. The great tribulation is at the door.

This ain't time to baby people. I ain't got time to baby people. I'm not going to pacify anyone, no one. I know I sound harsh and strict.

I have to be when it's war. This is life and death. This is not games. Life and death.

A leader in this time of life and death has to be strong. I'm not going to be weak at a time of war and life and death.

It's time for people to grow up and be able to handle adult language and adult attitude.

It's time for people to grow up and be able to handle adult language, adult attitude, and not be a baby that wants to be pacified.

I need every one of you that believes this to be a keyboard warrior today, today and tomorrow.

You need to be looking at my social media post of where I have said that the Iranian strikes would not be last week or the week before or the week before, but rather it would be these final days before March 3rd and March 4th. Especially on X, Twitter, but other places as well, the evidence is there, the record speaks for itself. Multiple people, everybody in fact, was saying, oh, the Iranian strikes, they're going to happen tonight, they're going to happen this weekend, and they said that four weeks ago and three weeks ago and two weeks ago and a week ago, continually and continually, continually.

The Iranian strikes are happening tonight or this weekend, and it didn't happen, and it didn't happen, and it didn't happen, and it didn't happen.

But I continued, and I was consistent. It's going to be in the final days right before March 3rd, and I even said, specifically February 26th through March 3rd or perhaps waiting until March 3rd itself, but very possible in those final days of February.

I specifically had said that and even sent out the newsletter sometime within the last two days also saying the same thing.

So every one of you, you are my witnesses, and the record is on Twitter, it's there, you can copy it, you can paste it, you can share it, you can take screenshots of it, but I need everyone today to become a keyboard warrior and get on social media, get on Facebook, get on YouTube, get on Instagram, and get this out there that I was the only one that said not four weeks ago, not three, not two, one, but this weekend, specifically as we head toward March 3rd, and here we are right now, three days away from March 3rd, or even two days away now.

You need to fight. This is a fight. We are in a war, and I need help. I need my keyboard warriors to fight and get the word out there so that people that have never heard these messages of Christ before, they are going to know, see your social media posts, and say, wow, this person was the only person that was not saying it was four weeks ago and three and two and one week ago, but specifically calling out this weekend and the days right before March 3rd, and the March 3rd and March 4th will still be fulfilled as well.

I can't do all this by myself. The Bible, more than once, calls us the army of the Lord, and it's time for the army of the Lord to go to action, to go to work in this way.

Evangelism, the word of the testimony, it says in Revelation 12 that we overcome Satan by the word of our testimony. It is now part of your testimony that I had sufficiently called out this weekend.

That has now become part of your testimony. If we're going to overcome Satan, it's by the word of you becoming a keyboard warrior testifying of this testimony.

And then after you do it, let me know you did it and how you did it. Did you post on Reddit? Did you post on YouTube? Did you make a video? Did you do this? How did you do it?

Let me know. Speak up, communicate. I can't read your mind. If I can't see it and don't know it, it might help other people, but it's no encouragement to me and I need encouragement just like everybody else needs encouragement.

There's a lot of people over the years that have been satanic keyboard warriors that have fought against the Word of God and against me, against this ministry, that have slandered me and told lies against me and false witness against me and fought against the Word of God in multiple ways across the Internet.

I wish I had an army of keyboard warriors to stand up for me and stand up for the Word of God and say, hey, I've met this person and here is the truth.

Things like this should come from your own heart. I shouldn't have to beg it from you or commend it out of you.

Things like this should come from your own heart because I have always preached that we're warriors. I've always preached that we're the army of the Lord and that we need to stand up and fight.

And be active and not just the audience. I have repeatedly talked about church members needing to be active on social media and to stand up for me.

This ain't the first time I've mentioned that. It's about the third or fourth or fifth time.

And I know this ain't about me, but I am a servant of the Most High God. And the Bible says that when you accept the word of His prophet, then you receive the word of God.

When you accept the word of His prophet, then you receive the same reward. I think it's important for the church in the first century to support Paul, to be there for him.

To have been there in different generations in different times for all the different servants of God throughout history, it would have been important to have been there for Noah, to have been there for all the different servants of the Lord. To defend them and support them in every possible way. We're an army and I'm a sergeant and you should support your sergeant.

I can't fight without men having my back. A leader can't fight alone. I need the troops to rally behind me and to have my back at all times. Especially as we move forward in the coming days and weeks, I need people to be there for me.

As we move forward in the coming days and weeks, I need people to watch my back and to have my back both online and physically and locally.

As well as all the prayer warriors to have my back. We need prayer warriors like never before.

We've always needed them desperately. And now even so much more. We need people who are going to be warriors that will surrender their lives and everything they own and leave their lives and surrender their lives in order to be part of the congregation, locally, to be part of the kingdom, to be part of the work of God.

Now, after the strong delusion, the Muslims are going to be emboldened to kill the Christians in every nation on earth. The Muslims and the worshipers of the Mahdi will be in emboldened to martyr anyone that claims to be a Christian or a conservative or a Jew or an American.

This will be in every nation on earth. It don't matter whether you're black or white, gentile or not gentile.

If you claim to be a Christian, even if you're a false Christian, if you claim to be a Christian, if you claim to believe in Jesus, then you are part of the martyrdom that is coming upon this earth during the 30 days as well as afterwards.

We can expect attacks on American infrastructure, water, electricity, so forth.

A confirmation from God today. Upstairs when I turned on the audio for the computer and there are how many sound files? 161 currently.

Currently 161 different audio files on the computer that are programmed into the computer for the computer to pick at random 24 hours a day, 7 days a week to pick at random to play on the internet for our ministry online radio station that's on the internet.

And when I turned on the audio today to see what to turn on, just to turn on what the audio was, it was playing that one audio file called, let's name that again, R, Death by War or something.

What's that called? I'm looking on my list here real quick trying to find that. More deadly than war. And that's no coincidence that that was the audio file plan at the time that I turned on the speaker system to and that was what was being verbalized at the time.

We see this happening very extremely often here in this ministry how God takes over the computer, plays the audio files.

There are confirmations of the sermons, confirmations of the teachings. And that particular audio file was talking very specifically about attacks on the American water supply and infrastructure and electricity.

And yet that is a very important prophecy of this ministry that Jesus gave me specifically years ago, many years ago, that He gave me dreams about the attacks on the American water and electrical infrastructure.

And that's about to be fulfilled any time now. I don't know whether it is in the next few days, but it is definitely within the next 35 days.

Any time within this next 35 days, any time within these next 35 days. It could be today, tomorrow, or the 35th day. Any time within these 35 days. A major huge, huge, huge, very huge attack on the American electrical and water infrastructure.

So if you're in the United States but also many other nations as well, you need to prepare a stockpile of water supply, how you're going to use the toilet, are you going to go outside to use the toilet, are you going to use dirt as for cat litter in a five gallon bucket, how are you going to drink, how are you going to cook without electricity, how are you going to survive.

I sent out the newsletter sometime within the last two days and it said all of this, basically most of this it said, and I have repeated myself over and over and over and over and over and over and over and over and over and over.

This attack and the strong delusion and the need to prepare supplies and now the day is coming.

So you need to get busy, every one of you, it don't matter what nation you live in, you need to get very extremely deadly serious, right here, right now, about how are you going to protect yourself and survive, what are you going to do, but one thing you better not do ever is deny the name of Jesus.

And don't sell your soul for electricity, food or water or survival. Don't deny the name of Jesus just to survive.

Anybody in front of me have any questions? Now we're going to put it on a song and we'll be back right after that song for your questions, your testimonies, not what you're thankful for, but what God has done in your life for these new listeners to give them hope and to help them understand that miracles, real miracles, happen in this ministry, in this congregation.

That's the type of testimony that overcomes Satan. You need to hear the testimony of what God has done that you have witnessed.

That is the type of testimony that destroys the enemy, gives people victory, gives people deliverance that they so desperately need right now.

They need to know that there's a church that really is the Church of Jesus Christ, the real Church of Jesus Christ, where the power of God is actually moving.

There are miracles because the Bible says in Mark 16 that there must be miracles among the true believers.

You don't find true miracles at most other churches. They always claim Jesus gave them a job or Jesus healed them of cancer because they filled out the application and they was healed of cancer because they went to chemotherapy.

But there is a church on earth where there's real miracles. They need to know that.

So we'll be right back after this song. Let me choose a song real quick. Can we hear Give Thanks to Jesus? Alright, let me find it on the list here, Give Thanks to Jesus.

Is that the new one or the one before that? That's song number 17. We'll be back with your question.
