

Sermon Transcript: British Imperialism is Not Evil

June 30, 2022

Hello, you are listening to the live broadcast or perhaps a recorded broadcast from June the 30th, 2022, June 30th, 2022.

This is the live broadcast and live worship services for the fourth new month of the year.

Good to see everybody.

It is hot early in the morning here in the southern states of America.

It is hot.

But it is a good day. It is the Lord. It is the day that the Lord has made. Amen. Praise God. It is the day the Lord has made.

Good to see the sister in Alabama joining us, signed in and registered on Mixlr so that she could chat with us. Praise God.

God willing, she's going to be baptized here very, very, very soon. Praise God.

And got a lot of things going on. Praise God.

Let's turn to the book of Daniel and then we'll go in prayer. Daniel chapter two. Page one forty nine.

If you have the paperback copies of the Alpha and Omega Bible. Now we update the Alpha and Omega Bible continually for perfection, adding more notes and fixing typos and improving the translation and adding more cross references from one verse to another verse.

And because of these edits, the page number might change occasionally.

But it's page one forty nine or so around in that region, depending on when you got your copy.

We're starting in Daniel chapter two today.

OK, let's go in prayer. Let's stand wherever you are, everybody, wherever you are.

It's all stand in honor to the Lord as we pray. Lord Heavenly Father, praise you, Lord.

Thank you for this new month and this new day. Thank you for getting us through the previous month and thus far this year.

You are faithful to see us all the way, all the way to the end, all the way. We know that you are.

You always have been, always will be faithful and true. Please help us, Lord, to follow your direction.

Please help us to learn your voice better, to know when it's only our thoughts and when it is the enemy trying to trick us and when it is truly your voice.

Please help us to learn your voice. Please help us to hear your voice more clearly and more powerfully.

Please speak to us in the way that we would understand the best.

Sometimes for some of us that is through music or scripture or TV or creature or some other avenue, you work many different ways and you speak in many different ways. Please help us to learn that as well.

Sometimes to grow as a family, as brothers and sisters, as one body, not treating one another as if we are just the general public, strangers, but treating one another within the congregation worldwide, internationally, treating one another as brothers and sisters, as intimate, close family. Please help us because this is your will.

One body, one mind, one accord, suffering together and rejoicing together.

We ask for this, for it is your will. Please help us with today's sermon, this message that we're about to receive.

Please help me to deliver it effectively and please help your people to grow an understanding as well as in the skill of witnessing to other people, to our family members, our spouses, our friends, our co-workers and strangers, how we are to witness to the world, to each other, to share in love the passion of Christ and the glorious truth.

And let us not hide our lights, let us not hide our lamps, but let it shine to all mankind, far and wide and nearby, that they may see your glory.

We praise your holy name, Father. May your will prevail and all of this in Jesus' holy name.

We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

And the congregation said, Amen. Praise God, you may be seated. Praise the Lord.

Daniel 2 verse 21, so I'm going to flip the page.

Daniel 2 verse 21, page 150.

Now, I do encourage people to take notes wherever you might be.

And I will be posting notes after the sermon in our MeWe social media group, as well as telegram.

Some people follow the ministry on telegram because MeWe doesn't work for certain people in certain nations.

I don't know why, but some people have a difficulty with their connection, the Internet connection to the MeWe, and so some people follow us on Twitter as a backup.

But MeWe is the primary social media website for our ministry of where we chat with one another, get to know with one another, fellowship with one another, at least we're supposed to be doing that, and sharing what's happening in the news so that we are aware of the situation in the world and keeping an eye on events as Jesus told us to do.

And that is the will of God so that we may be prepared and not caught unaware of the situations. Amen.

And so I post the sermon notes after the sermon every week in these places, as well as on the Internet newsletter, proveallthings.weebly.com.

And you found that link at the bottom of the page on every page of the website where the newsletter is located.

That link is easy to find, proveallthings.weebly.com.

Two E's in weebly or whatever it's called. So that's another place that we post the sermon notes every week as well.

But nevertheless, I do encourage people also to take your own notes because I don't put everything that I say in the notes.

The notes are very condensed and very brief, just short, brief notes.

And therefore, if you take your own notes as I preach, as I teach, you might most likely write something down in your notes that I don't have written down in the notes.

So something that stands out to you, something that is important to you that will help you remember things.

And also the notes, both your notes that you take as well as the notes that I post on the Internet, these are good to review later the same day or the next day or later that week or even months later or even years later to go back and review sermon notes to refresh your memory.

And this is important because not only are you learning, but you're also trying to memorize verses, where things are in the Bible, and how to witness to other people, what verses to use when you witness to people to prove certain points for the glory of God and to help share the gospel, the truth, with people that you love.

And this is very fundamental and very important.

We all of us should be witnessing to other people.

It is a responsibility. It is a duty as a person that loves other people as ourselves.

If we love other people as we love ourselves, as the Bible tells us to do, then we want other people to learn and embrace the truth.

Many of them will not do that.

Most people that we share the truth with will absolutely reject the truth.

So we must do this knowingly that most of the people we share with are not going to accept the truth.

Let's not do this eagerly. Let's not do this eagerly.

Let's do it with awareness, with reality, not living in a fantasy land.

But nevertheless, in the spirit of love, wanting people to learn the truth and accept the truth, we share it nevertheless, whether they reject it or not.

It is still our responsibility to share the truth with the people we love, with everybody we love, with everybody in our family, with all of our best friends, with people that we talk to on a daily basis.

Now, of course, it's not always the right thing to do in a work environment, depending on who those people are.

That is something that is not absolute in every situation.

When you're in a work environment, it is sometimes best to keep your mouth shut.

But if there are certain people within the work environment, co-workers that you think are more open-minded, more easily to talk with, you're actually friends with them and you see opportunity there, then that may be an opportunity to go ahead and share with them as well.

But a lot of people that you work with is not a good idea to try to share the gospel, because it could be a dangerous situation and you have to use wisdom.

And really, also the Bible teaches that not everybody is worthy to receive the truth.

Not everybody is worthy. The Bible tells us to not cast our pearls before swine.

It says this, Jesus himself is the one that said it.

Not the Apostle Paul, not somebody in the Old Testament either.

Jesus said to not cast our pearls before swine.

That means that we should judge people about whether they're even worthy of receiving this truth.

Amen. Because there are some people that are so demonic that common sense and wisdom declares, just leave that person alone, let them be.

They have cursed themselves and God will take care of that situation to judge them and punish them.

And it's a waste of our time to try to teach the truth or witness about the truth to such people.

And it could be a dangerous situation. Amen.

So we have to use wisdom in these things.

Now, with all that said, today's topic is a very controversial topic.

It is a topic that is not brought up often in the churches.

They don't want to talk about this topic.

However, it is brought up in some churches in the wrong context and in the wrong way. Teaching people lies.

And not only in the churches, some churches teaching lies about this, but in general, in the public, it would come up a little bit more often about British imperialism.

British imperialism, I-M-P-E-R-I-A-L-I-S-M.

What is imperialism?

Definition of the word imperialism is the state policy, the policy of a government.

Practice and advocacy of extending power and dominion, especially by direct territorial acquisition or by gaining political and economic control of other areas, often through employing a fist of iron, especially military force, but also even salt pie.

In other words, conquest, conquest, controlling other nations.

So they say British imperialism, when they're talking about how the British Empire conquered Africa, India, a lot of Europe and other places around the world, even Canada, the British Commonwealth of Nations, how all these different nations worldwide were conquered and controlled by the British throne, the British Empire for a long time, even to this day, some of them.

And so they call that British imperialism, British conquest, where they are controlling other nations and keeping those nations under their control.

Now, a lot of people claim that this is evil, this is demonic, that it should not occur, that every nation should control themselves, that nobody should have anybody else to control them, that we should not be invading nations, that there should not be war and there should not be one nation over another, so forth.

But let's see what the Bible says about all of this. Let's just see what the Bible says.

In verse 21, Daniel 2 verse 21, talking about God, it says, He changes times and eras.

He appoints kings and removes them, giving wisdom to the wise and prudence to those that have understanding.

He reveals deep and secret matters, knowing what is in the darkness and the light is with Him.

Amen. The light is with Him. Amen.

He appoints kings and removes them.

It is God that determines kingdoms and war and the outcome of war and what kingdoms are going to arise upon the earth and how long those kingdoms are going to continue and succeed and conquer and when they're going to collapse.

It is God that makes those decisions and brings those situations into fulfillment.

Especially when you look at the whole context of this chapter, Daniel 2 talks about the statue that Nebuchadnezzar saw in his dream and that Daniel interpreted through the power of the Holy Spirit.

The statue represents different kingdoms that would come and then be conquered by the next kingdom and would last so many years in history and then be conquered by another kingdom and then another and then another all the way down until the end of this generation. Amen.

And it is God that brought Nebuchadnezzar. It is God that brought the Persians.

It is God that brought the Greeks. It is God that brought the Romans.

It is God that will even bring the Syrians into the nation of Israel and the Iranians and the Persians even Ezekiel 38 says that I will, God speaking, I will put a hook in their nose or jaws and bring them into the land of Israel.

God will. God will bring Russia and China and Syria and Iran into the Israelite nations, the British Empire nations and the American nations and the land of Judea.

It is God that will establish the kingdoms and bring them to power and how long they will last and when they collapse.

So when people talk about the British Empire, they leave out the realization that it is God that brought about the British Empire. Amen.

And has determined the extent of the world, how much of the world, what population of the world would come under the control of the British Empire.

How many nations would be defeated and conquered by the British Empire.

It is God that determined it. Amen.

But when people talk about the British imperialism, the conquest of the world, they leave out God.

As if the British Empire, which is the largest, number one largest empire that ever existed in all of human history.

This is a fact. And yet they look at it with carnal human fleshly way of thinking, leaving God out as if the largest empire that ever existed in all of human history that all God was doing was blindly sitting on a throne, looking the other way or maybe sleeping.

That's the way they act. People do.

People act like, well, this is the biggest empire that ever existed in all human history, but God didn't have nothing to do with it.

Well, according to the Bible, he brought the Babylonian Empire great success and even the Egyptians and the Israelites and the Persians and the Greeks and the Romans and even the end time Antichrist and the empire that he's going to have.

But the number one largest empire that ever existed in human history, God did not have anything to do with it.

It is really sad and frustrating the way that humans think.

I was speaking with a person just yesterday who claimed that the British Empire conquered Africa only out of evil intentions, evil purposes, such as to steal all of Africa's resources, mineral resources, gold, silver, diamonds, oil, whatever, to steal the resources that the British Empire was evil in doing this.

This same person also thinks that slavery is something done mostly only by white people, only by white people, but yet that's not historically accurate either.

And yet this is the brainwashed thinking of people who read a lot of so-called educational books and go to Sunday churches and who respect the well-established controllers of modern Western thought.

This is the typical average way of thinking of the people who respect the well-established controllers of modern Western thought.

Those controllers of modern Western thought, I'm talking about universities, they control the way people think, they program people, brainwashed people, the universities, the colleges, the Babylonian churches, the Sunday churches, and the communists, including Martin Luther King, who was a communist, and Nelson Mandela, who was a terrorist and a communist.

And yet they respect these people because they have been programmed and brainwashed to respect these people.

Rewriting history, leaving out huge facts, leaving out the bombings and the murders that Nelson Mandela was responsible for, leaving out those terror attacks, leaving out the communist beliefs of Martin Luther King Jr. and how he rejected the biblical account of Adam and Eve and the fall of mankind, and they leave out how Martin Luther King Jr. did not even embrace Jesus as God and many other important facts.

But they are taught and programmed and brainwashed to respect such communist people. And they are brainwashed to believe that the entire white race, the British Empire, and the American founding fathers were nothing but racist bastards, evil, demonic people, and that their conquest of the Native American Indians was demonic, and that the conquest of the African nations was demonic.

This is what they are raised to believe.

Although this person considers himself to be a very conservative Christian, these beliefs of his shows that he has embraced many leftist, liberal, communist lies.

Although he is a white man and claims to be a very conservative Christian, he has embraced liberal, subliminal messages that the white race is evil.

He would never actually say it like that. No, he would never actually say it exactly like that. But his beliefs about the British Empire speak louder than what he is able to speak himself.

His subconscious has been penetrated with lies.

He ignores the fact that the Bible says that God is the one who controls war and determines the winners and losers of war, and that it is God who establishes kingdoms and brings them to their end.

He ignores all of that.

He also rejects that if the Israelite nations were to return to running our nations the way that God in the Bible instructed us to run our nation, that the entire world would be a much better place to live.

He rejects that statement that if we were to return to biblical standards, God's commands, God's instructions of how we run our nation, that that would be a better life for the entire world.

He rejects that statement.

The reason he rejects that statement is because he believes that the Bible is outdated, is something that is barbaric, that the God of the Old Testament is barbaric, wicked, demonic, and that the things that God commanded and instructed for mankind, for the nation of Israel to do, is demonic.

He wouldn't exactly say it with those words exactly, but that's exactly what is in his subconscious.

That is exactly his way of thinking, his reasoning.

We can't return to biblical standards and God's commands and God's instructions of how to run our nation and how to run the world because that is demonic, that is barbaric.

Because the modern, western way of doing things is more holy, more righteous, more modern, better, more righteous than the commands of God from 2,000, 3,000, 4,000 years ago.

That's the way of the past. That's not the way of the current life because we are wiser and more righteous than God.

That is the way of thinking of the majority of every church out there, every church out there, every pastor, every TV evangelist, every number one best seller, they would never say it exactly in those words. Of course not.

But if you cross examine them, if you try to really just get out the details, do you believe in this?

Would you agree to return back to these biblical standards and be very sophisticated?

Then the truth would come out about what they think and how they think. Amen? The truth would come out.

Most modern day Christians believe that the God of the Old Testament is a cruel, evil monster.

I even had one woman tell me that a couple years ago, two, three years ago, whenever it was.

And yet the truth is we serve only one God.

The same God of the Old Testament is the same God of the New Testament and he has not changed.

They think the God of the New Testament is the God of love and the God of the Old Testament is demonic, evil, barbaric, wicked.

And yet they're the same God and he has not changed. He is the same yesterday, today and tomorrow and forever.

He does not change. He has always been the God of love. He has always been the God of righteousness.

He has always been the God of justice. He has always been the God of wisdom.

The problem is not with God. The problem is not with God and the problem is not with the Bible.

Even though we know that there are some corruptions of the Bible that have caused problems, the number one problem is not really with the Bible, even with all of its corruptions. Because, hey, even with the King James and all the corruptions that came with the King James Version, all the words and chapters that were added to it and books taken away from it, even with the King James Version being that extremely corrupted, I was still able to come to the knowledge of the truth by reading the King James Version.

I learned about the seventh day of the week and all of God's holy days, even while I was reading the King James Version Bible.

Now, of course, as we grow in more and more truth, as we grow in more and more knowledge, as we grow in maturity in the Lord and our relationship with the Lord, as we continue to grow in God and God growing within us, we must eventually move past the King James Version to a more accurate, less corrupted version of the Bible.

But nevertheless, even with all of its corruptions of the King James Version, I was still able to come to much truth.

So there's really no excuse for the people.

And even in that version of the Bible, we serve the same God of the Old Testament and the New Testament, and that he does not change. Amen.

The problem is not with God.

And it's not really the number one problem is not with the Bible translations, even though they are a problems with those Bible translations.

That's not the number one problem.

The number one problem is actually human thinking, human thinking, human reasoning.

Let's turn to the book of Isaiah, Isaiah 55, human reason.

Page 40. Thank you. Isaiah 55.

Isaiah 55 verse 6, we're going to read from verse 6 to verse 9.

Isaiah 55 verse 6, seek you Jesus, seek you Jesus.

And when you find him, call upon him.

And when he should draw near to you, let the ungodly leave his ways, and the transgressors leave his counsels, his own way of thinking.

And let him return to Jesus, and he should find mercy.

For he should abundantly pardon your sins.

For my counsels are not your counsels.

Other translations say, for your thoughts are not my thoughts, or your way of thinking is not my way of thinking.

Counsels might be thoughts, nor are my ways as your ways.

God's way is not our way. Amen.

God's way and God's thoughts are not our thoughts.

His way of thinking, His way is so much different from ours.

Amen, verse 9.

But as the heaven is distant from the earth, so is my way distant from your ways and your thoughts from my mind.

There is a huge difference between God's way of thinking and the way He looks at things, and the way that humans think and look at things.

A huge difference.

So when people use their own human reasoning, many times it is for human reasoning.

A lack of wisdom, a lack of maturity in the Lord, a lack of Bible knowledge, an ignorance of the Bible, and an ignorance of the biblical way of thinking.

The reality is that the Bible is a Middle Eastern book.

And God, who authored the Bible, Amen, has a Middle Eastern way of thinking.

He really, really, really does.

That's where Adam and Eve were put.

They were put in the Garden of Eden was not in America, was not in Africa, was not in Europe, was not in Australia or Korea.

The Garden of Eden and Adam and Eve and the beginning of mankind all occurred in the Middle East.

And these empires of Daniel was in the Middle East.

And the apostles and the disciples and the prophets of God throughout the biblical history of the Old Testament, the Middle Testament, and the New Testament, they were all in the Middle East.

So it's a very Middle Eastern book with a very Middle Eastern way of thinking and talking and acting.

And if we are to be biblically minded, if we want the mind of Christ, which we should be seeking and even praying for, the Bible says that you have the mind of Christ.

Well, if that's what we seek and that's what we should have according to the Bible, then it should be more of a Middle Eastern way of thought rather than an African thought or a Korean thought or an Australian way of thinking or an American way of thinking or a British way of thinking.

It should be more of a Middle Eastern way of thinking.

And the Middle Eastern way of thinking really hasn't changed in all of human history.

Even as God does not change, the Middle East is stuck in what it has always been, the same way of thinking, the same culture, the same way of thinking.

The liberals and the communists, they say that the leftist, demonic way of life of rejecting God's ways is progressive.

That's what they claim.

To embrace homosexuality, which is against the Scripture, against Middle Eastern way of thinking, that to embrace homosexuality and transgender and transgender surgery, to embrace these things because human thinking says that homosexuality is just love.

When it's not just love, it's lust, it's sex, it's deformity of the mind.

It is a mental illness.

It's been actually listed legally as a mental illness by professional psychiatrists for decades and decades.

But the liberal leftist, communists, atheist people who claim to be Catholic and claim to be Christian and claim to be Lutheran and claim to be Baptist and claim to be Pentecostal, the reality is they are Satanists in their hearts and in their minds, with their mouth praising God, even as Jesus said, with their lips they worship me, but with their heart they do not.

Teaching for the doctrines of God the commandments of man, amen.

Jesus warned us about such people, amen.

They call it being progressive, moving forward, out away from the Middle Eastern way of thinking, out from the ancient way of thinking, out from the way it was not only two and three and four thousand years ago, but even the way it was two hundred years ago.

Come on now, come on now.

We don't have to go back four thousand years. We don't.

Because if you go back only two hundred years, or even a hundred and fifty years, well how long has it been since 1900?

One hundred and twenty-two years.

If you go back only a hundred and twenty-two years, and a hundred and thirty years, and a hundred and twelve years, if you go back only that short of a period of time, how different life was, and the way of thinking, and the way of reasoning, and the maturity of people, and the knowledge of the Bible.

Wow! Only a hundred and twelve years ago, everything you know was different.

The average way that a person thought about everything, the age of consent, what marriage was, how many husbands, I mean how many wives a man can have, everything, everything, everything was different.

Every little detail of religion, and how you live your life, what was right, what was wrong, it was all different only a very short period of time ago.

The American Civil War was only 1865.

That wasn't that long ago.

In such a short period of time, the entire world has been turned upside down and made a complete reversal away from what mankind always did believe, always did believe, and thought, and thought, and acted because of the invention of electricity, and computers, and machinery, and cars, and airplanes, because of these inventions, modernization, progression, moving forward out of the ancient ways, the ancient path.

The Bible says return back to the old path, the ancient path. Amen?

A path is something you walk on.

Now we drive it, run over the squirrels, run over the rabbits, running to the deer, hanging to human beings, polluting the air, buying gas from Saudi Arabia, funding the Islamic nations with our tax dollars and our gas dollars, buying everything in the store made in China.

Is this progression?

We are funding communist China every time we go buy anything made in China, which is everything on the shelf in America almost.

Funding communist nations like China by almost anything we buy in the store, plus funding the Islamic nations, Saudi Arabia, United Arab immigrants, and other nations every time we buy gas, or oil, or diesel, or diesel fuel, or whatever your car runs on, petroleum.

And this is modernization and progression.

And now they want you to think, well, we'll do away with the petroleum, and we'll go to electricity instead of the electric cars, which are constantly blowing up, catching fire.

And where does that electricity come from?

It comes from nuclear plants, which is outrageous.

Nuclear energy is an absolutely insane, demonic invention.

And from burning coal and gas and so forth, it goes right back to the petroleum industry again.

You can't even have a windmill unless you have some kind of a petroleum lube to lube that great big giant turbine in the air. Amen.

And what about the plastic parts of it that come from petroleum?

And what about the trucks of the maintenance man coming to fix it every day that are still running on petroleum?

And so forth and this keeps going on and on and on.

It's a lie.

It's a lie when they try to say, okay, we're going to progress, move to modern, even more modern, more progression with electric vehicles and get away from the petroleum, when actually it is Saudi Arabia that is behind that and the communists and the Democrats and the leftists and the liberals that are behind that.

So even if you did successfully remove all the petroleum from this, you'll still be funding the Muslims.

You'll still be funding the Muslims.

You'll still be funding Saudi Arabia.

You'll still be funding the leftists and the communists and the Democrats.

You're not going to change it.

It's still the way it is.

It's still not progression.

But the way that humans think is not the way God thinks.

And we've got to get back to the way God thinks in doing things God's way, not our own way.

You know, that was the sin of Adam and Eve.

It wasn't about just an apple.

It was about choosing for themselves what's right and what's wrong.

Human reasoning.

Oh, I think, I think, this is my opinion rather than God says. Amen.

Let's turn to the book of Genesis.

Genesis chapter 22.

Page 57.

Genesis 22.

We're going to start in verse 17.

We're just going to read verse 17 and 18.

And the reason we're going to read these verses is because now I'm going to transition over to talking about the ancestry of the British Empire.

How did the British Empire even get their power, their empowerment, and why God allowed the British Empire to come to be in, and why God blessed the British Empire to be able to conquer a huge amount of territory across the world to become the largest, number one largest, therefore most powerful empire to ever exist in all of human history?

Now, people think America is not in the Bible.

I hear that all the time.

I know you've heard it.

That's pretty ridiculous.

And they also think the British Empire is not in the Bible.

But if you really think about that, the Bible not only talks about things in the past, just history, but the Bible also talks about the future.

The Bible talks about even the end time, even how people would act, how people would speak, how people would talk, how people would think, what people would teach, and about empires in the end time.

Does it not?

Does not the feet and the toes and the horns and other things in the Bible talk about or refer to the end time empires, of course.

So it would not be logical to think that the Bible that does talk about end time empires, end time prophecy, book of Revelation, Daniel, Ezekiel, Isaiah, amen, multiple books that are prophetic, that it would not say anything at all about the largest end time empire and the largest empire of all of human history.

And also America, the most powerful single nation to ever exist as well.

The one that created the nuclear weapons, the one that gives money out and supplies and leads not only nuclear energy and nuclear weapons, but even the invention of the airplane, the locomotives, the train, the computers, the internet, and the list goes on and on.

All this came from America.

And to think that the Bible would leave out America would also not be logical thinking, not logical thinking.

So in Genesis 22 verse 17 it says, "Surely, blessing I will bless you, or with blessing I will bless you.

And multiplying I will multiply your seed as the stars of the universe and as the sand which is by the shore of the sea, and your seed or your descendants shall inherit the cities of their enemies.

And your seed, your children, your descendants shall all the nations of the earth be blessed because you have hearkened, you have listened, you have obeyed to my voice."

This is God talking to Abraham.

Now we know that Abraham, his descendants were not just Israelites alone, but also the Arabs.

There was Ishmael, Ishmael and Jacob, not just Isaac and Jacob, and before that Ishmael and Isaac.

So within these different generations formed not only the Israelites from the descendants of Abraham, but also the Arabs, the Gentiles, from Abraham as well.

So we could say that Abraham's descendants were as numerous as such a huge population as the sand of the sea and the stars of the heaven, such a great huge population of both Arabs and Israelites.

But it talks more also not only about the population, the number of people that would come from Abraham, but it also talks specifically about blessings and how these people would inherit the cities of their enemies.

Now the King James Version says the gates of their enemies, but the Greek Septuagint says the cities of their enemies.

And it really doesn't matter whether it's gates or borders or cities, because you've got to get the point of it rather than just one word.

The overall point of it is that there is a blessing that is promised to some of the descendants, that some of the descendants of Abraham would inherit the land of their enemies.

Now when you think of the Arabs, Saudi Arabia, Syria, Jordan, United Arab immigrants and so forth, Turkey, so forth, that's not really the case for the most part.

The Arabs have remained in the land of the Arabs.

They really don't, for the most part, with very few exceptions.

For the most part, the Arabs really don't control the land of their enemies, for the most part, with only a few exceptions.

But when you think of the Israelites, and when you realize that the Israelites are not just the land of Judea, but the Israelites is the British Empire and America and the American territories, then yes, the Israelites, the British, the British Empire, this imperialism does control the land of our enemies. Amen.

Of what was our enemies because we invaded them.

They were our enemies at one time.

And then we inherited that land that was passed down to us, way hundreds of years after the war, we inherit that land.

So when you consider who could fulfill this prophecy, the blessing went to the Israelites, not to the Arabs.

Even though the Arabs did receive some blessings in the Bible, yes, they did.

I believe Ishmael was blessed.

But the biggest portion of the inheritance as a patriarch family head of the house would split the property among his different sons.

And really, you got to face the reality, every man has a favorite son.

He loves all his sons, he loves all his children and his daughters too.

But really, that human nature is for a man to have a best buddy among all his buddies and a best son among all his sons.

And that was the case of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, that they did have their best sons that they favored.

And even the mothers are the same, it's just human nature, you can't escape human nature.

And there's nothing wrong with this.

People have different relationships.

But the inheritance, the greatest inheritance, the greatest blessings, by God's choice, not really Abraham and Isaac's choice, but by the Heavenly Father, even as the Heavenly Father does have favorites.

He loves all his children, God loves all of his children, yes, but he favors those that are the most reverent to him, those that obey him the most.

He reverences, I mean, He respects more the people that respect Him, amen.

And because Abraham and Isaac and Jacob did respect God, and due to this very day, respect God more than the Gentiles, I mean, we just have to face the reality when you look at the pagans, the Native American Indians, how they were so much in witchcraft and how the Native American Indians denied the biblical account of creation.

And Adam and Eve and Noah's flood, and the list goes on and on and on, how they made up their own lies and their own stories to counter the truth, and did not give God the glory, but rather they gave the glory to eagles and wolves and turtles.

Come on now. And the Africans were the same, which is how to confess this, that the land of Africa was filled with witchcraft even as the so-called Native Americans, how that population in the Americas, and the Mexicans, the Mayans, how they were filled with witchcraft and overflowing with witchcraft, the same situation was in Africa and India, amen.

So, it was righteous and just that God would bring the British to conquer the Africans and the Indians in America and the Indians in India, that God would bring the British to conquer both groups of Indians in the British Congress of the world, on both sides of the world.

God really did chase down the Indians on two sides of the world.

God did, amen. It was God's choice, amen.

When people point the finger at the white race and the British Empire and the American founding fathers, they ignore God's providence and God's plans, amen.

And they act as if God was sleeping while all this occurred.

In fact, the atheists would even say, where was God in all of this?

When the British Empire and the American founding fathers was taking slaves through Jamaica and through other regions of the world, where was God in all this? Why did God not step in and stop it?

The answer is, God did not stop it because God wanted that to happen and it had God's blessings because God was conquering witchcraft.

It was the righteous thing to do.

It don't matter what color you are or where you're from or what language you speak, for there's also a lot of white sleeves.

And that part has been left out of the history books.

For the most part, I was reading just yesterday, praise God, how He confirmed this message several times yesterday, several times.

I'm reading just yesterday how when the early English people coming to America, how they not only brought black slaves, but also white slaves, how they was taking prisoners in jail and in prison across Europe, across England and the British Commonwealth, how they was bringing white prisoners to America to help build houses and stores and so forth.

And it was not just only black slaves.

And that this is true not only for the form of slavery, where the person is totally against their will, but even for the other type of slavery where the person has agreed to sell themselves and sell their services for seven years, that both types of slaves, both types of slaves included both white slaves and black slaves.

And yet, where is this in the history books?

Why did they not teach this in school?

Why do they not teach this in college and universities?

Because the colleges and universities are the controllers of modern Western thought, programming you and brainwashing you to think the way they want you to think.

Now, hiding on purpose history, hiding on purpose and rewriting history on purpose, even as they did with Martin Luther King and Nelson Mandela.

Now, don't get me wrong.

There are some true black heroes that I very much admire and honor.

Colonel Allen West and many others that are famous black conservatives with Christian white thinking, even though they're Babylonian.

Many black ones, Candace Owens and many others, and Herman Cain, God rest his soul, and many others.

There are multitudes, multitudes of black heroes that deserve honor and respect and that deserve a holiday in American history.

But not Martin Luther King and not Nelson Mandela, because they were both hardcore communists and they, these liberals that control the universities, that control what's written in the history books, they have rewritten history leaving out huge, giant details of what these men taught and believed and thought and what they funded and what they really, truly stood for.

Just like George Floyd.

He was a drug addict.

He was a hypocrite. He was an evil, demonic man.

There was nothing good about him at all, nothing.

And yet they have rewritten history to make George Floyd a hero.

So what you have evidenced in your own lifetime in recent years is exactly the same thing that happened with Martin Luther King and Nelson Mandela, a rewriting of history, because they control your thoughts and they're programming society to think one way, only the way they want you to think.

They don't want you to know all the facts, only what they want you to know.

Let's move forward in Scripture here.

And verse 18 talks about that all the nations of the earth will be blessed by these descendants.

If you look at the Arabs and the Africans and the Indians, have all the earth been blessed by the Indians?

No. Has all the earth been blessed by the Africans?

No. Has all the earth been blessed by the Native American Indians?

No. Or by the Arabs?

No. No. Absolutely not.

But who has blessed the entire earth?

More than America and the British Empire and the Judeans.

These are the people that have blessed the entire earth.

Now, of course, we've done our own share of corrupting the earth as well, because that is mankind.

Mankind is wicked among all nations and all races and all languages. All of mankind has forsaken God.

But when you look at the blessings, how whenever there's an earthquake or some kind of disaster or a hurricane or whatever, how America and Israel and England always in every case attempt to send medical help physically in the form of humans, helicopters, ships, whatever it takes, supplies, surgery, doctors, experts, money, food, everything that you can imagine gets shipped over there by the shiploads and another shipload and another shipload. We have blessed the entire earth.

And also America, rightfully so, has played the policeman for the entire earth.

How that when there was a dictator such as Hitler, how America and the British come to the rescue.

If it hadn't been for the British and America, Germany would have taken over the entire earth. And I know there was other people fighting the Nazis as well.

But if it hadn't been for the British and the Americans, Hitler would have won and would have conquered really the entire earth.

And many other ways that we have blessed the world, even with the name of Jesus. Amen.

There's only one name by which mankind may be saved.

There's not two names, three or four or five names or a hundred names of different languages, but rather only one name by which mankind, all of mankind, all races may be saved by this one name.

And yet that name is not known in Korea and in a lot of the African languages and other languages across the globe, except for really English, English.

That language of British imperialism. Amen. Praise God.

The language of British imperialism is what preserves the name of God by which all nations and all races may be saved.

Even when it comes, the time that the sun and the moon should be darkened and the stars of the heavens shall fall in meteor showers, when it comes that time of the sixth seal, and it comes that time when 144,000 virgin Israelites should be sealed, to be protected from the wind and the destruction coming from the earth in the seventh seal.

Those 144,000 young virgin men are all Israelites.

Every one of them, 12,000 Jews and 12,000 from Joseph and 12,000 from Denmark.

Oh, no, Denmark is not marked, but 12,000 from Reuben and 12,000 from so on and so on of the different tribes of Israel.

They're all Israelites.

What that tells me is that God will continue as he promised. Amen.

And he always keeps his promise. Amen.

That God will continue to bless Israel, all of Israel, including the British Empire, including the British Commonwealth and America, because we are the tribes of Israel.

It's more than just the tribe of Judah. Come on now, read the Bible.

Here continue to use the Israelites, the Anglo-Saxon white races, the British English, the English speaking people to proclaim the name of Jesus to every nation on earth, which will result in the greatest, what we call revival, the greatest revival and the greatest number of people to ever be saved in all of human history because of the English and the British language. Amen.

It's going to be those 144,000 Israelite men, not women, 144,000 English speaking men that will be the evangelists of the final year of the Great Tribulation to get this gospel of the kingdom out into all nations and then the end shall come.

It is the English that would carry the cross of Jesus and the name of Jesus into every nation of Africa and South America, into India and all across the world.

So people need to stop cursing God's anointed.

People need to stop cursing God's empire because the throne of David is God's throne.

The throne of David is God's government.

The throne of David, which Queen Elizabeth currently occupies in power, the way that she has power upon the earth still yet today on David's throne, is God's power, God's kingdom.

Amen.

Israel is God's kingdom, God's laws.

What nation on earth today still has God's laws more than any other nation on earth is Israel in the Middle East?

It's so sad and so frustrating that so many people have fallen for the communist and Islamic propaganda to believe that the Judeans, the Jews in Israel are not Jews.

So sad, so frustrating to see people fall for that propaganda, that lie of the devil.

The land of Israel, the nation of Israel, the people of Israel, the politicians of Israel, they are the ones that have more biblical law in their government and being enforced by government more than any nation on earth.

And yet you dare to tell me that they're not God's people and that they're not Jews, that they are the synagogue of Satan? You're the synagogue of Satan. You're the one that's the synagogue of Satan.

You're the one that has fallen for the Islamic prejudices and racism against the Jewish people.

You're the Nazi. You're the Nazi.

666. John saw the Nazi swastika and the name of Allah and the communist symbol of the sickle and hammer, the three symbols that represent the nations of the earth and the political movements of the earth that hate Israel and hate Jews.

And yet you, as a so-called Christian, a so-called Bible believer, have embraced the same ideology, the same way of thinking, the same way of thinking, the patrolled way of thinking, the programmed, the brainwashed way of thinking that Israel is evil, that Israel is of the devil, that Israel is Satan's children.

Now listen, I know they've got a lot of sin. I know they reject Jesus Christ as the Savior, the Messiah.

I know this. I'm not here grant other.

But America has also murdered how many millions and millions and millions of babies more than the number of humans that have been killed in war. World War I and World War II and Vietnam combined.

So if you say I don't support Israel because of their sins, because of their blasphemy, because of their abominations, then you must also say I don't support America because we have murdered more babies than all of the wars of this century and the century before this all combined.

The reality is that all of the human governments and all of the people of the world have rejected God.

But the Bible is clear that God is a throne upon this earth.

Belonging to David that has been passed down to the descendants and blessed and the blessings of these people, not only in the British Empire, but even in the Judeans.

And that when the sixth seal come, there's going to be 12,000 Jews sealed as well.
And that Jesus was a Jew. Come on now. Jesus was a Jew.

But you're saying that these are not true Jews, Pastor Tim.
I'm going to tear my glasses up right now.
I am so mad, angry, because of the Nazi way of thinking.
The Islamic, the Accompanist, the 666 hatred against the Jewish people.
Oh, but Alex Jones, he said such and such and such. And I went to another YouTube video, and another YouTube video, and another website, and another website, and another website, and another book.
And they all say that the Jews are of the devil.
And what about Rockefeller and the other New World Order leaders?
And I come right back and I say this. What did John see for 666?
He didn't see the flag of Israel.
No, he didn't, even though the flag of Israel is demonic.
But he didn't see the flag of Israel.
He saw the Communist symbol of Russia and China.
He saw the name of Allah.
He saw the Nazi swastika.
And these are all groups that were in cooperation of one mind, of one spirit, of one accord against the nation of Israel.
How difficult is that to understand?

The very fact that the nation of Israel is so hated, so despised across the world, is proof, undeniable, that they are true Jews. Amen?
If they were Arabs, they would be loved and embraced by the world.
If they were Syrians or Palestinians, they would be embraced by the world.
But it is the Israelites that are hated, that are despised, that are persecuted, that are murdered.
The Holy Ghost is absent in these people that hate Israel.
They think they're saved. They think they hear from God.
But the reality is that those people that hate the Jews and hate Israel and call for such Islamic and Communist and Nazi propoganda, they don't have the Holy Ghost, because if they did, the Holy Ghost would say, Stop! You're falling for a trick. It's a lie. Don't believe this crap.
The Holy Ghost would put up red flags and warn you and stop you in your tracks to protect you and protect your soul.
You can tell who's really saved and who's not really saved by the doctrines they embrace and the hatred that they embrace, the doctrines that have hate, and the teachings of hate against God's people, God's kingdom.
Just because they have much sin does not prove they're not God's people, because read the Bible, read the Bible, how Manasseh rebelled against God, and Ephraim rebelled against God, and Judah rebelled against God, and the list goes on and on among all the tribes, and Dan did, and they all did.
They all fell away from God. That's why God brought the Babylonians.
That's why God brought the Assyrians to invade them.
That's why God's going to bring the Iranians within the next year or two or whenever it's going to happen.

God's going to punish them. He punishes His own children, the Bible says. Amen.

He's going to punish them, but that doesn't mean that they are not God's people just because they have fallen in sin. Amen.

We have all fallen in sin.

Let's move over to chapter 48, Genesis 48.

I don't want to keep you all day. Let's move forward.

Genesis 48.

Genesis 48, verse 1.

We're going to read down through verse 5.

Genesis 48, verse 1.

And it came to pass after these things that it was reported to Joseph.

I remember it went like this. It went Abraham, then his son was Isaac, then his son was Jacob, then one of his sons was Joseph.

And so this is like the fourth generation down or three generations after Abraham.

It was reported to Joseph, Behold your father Jacob is ill, he is sick.

And having taken his two sons Manasseh and Ethan, Joseph's sons, he came to Jacob who was renamed Israel. Jacob was renamed Israel.

And it was reported to Jacob saying, Behold your son Joseph came to you.

And Jesrael having strengthened himself, Jacob having strengthened himself, set upon the bed. And Jacob said to Joseph, The Almighty Alpha appeared to me in Luza in the land of Canaan and blessed me and said to me, "Behold I will increase you and multiply you and will make of you multitudes of nations."

Underline multitudes of nations.

"And I will give this land to you and your seed, your descendant, your children after you for everlasting possession."

Now, those lessons we was reading about in chapter 22.

Again, I said that the greatest amount of that blessing was not to the Arab descendants, but the Israelite descendants.

And this proves this because now we go three generations after that.

After Abraham, we go to Isaac. Then we go to Jacob.

Then we go to Joseph. And then we go even another generation, a fourth generation after Abraham to Ephraim and Manasseh.

So that Ephraim and Manasseh, they are grandchildren of Jacob.

Now Jacob is renamed Israel. So these are the Israelites.

So Abraham was not an Israelite. Abraham was a Hebrew, but not an Israelites. Amen.

Because there was no Israelites upon the earth until Jacob was born.

Because Jacob, his name changed to Israel.

So there was no Israelites until Jacob was born.

There was a lot of people that believe that all the people like Abraham, I mean, yeah, Abraham and others were Israelites, but they wasn't. Amen.

So anyway, the blessings very clearly come down to the line of Israel.

And then down to Ephraim and Manasseh. Amen.

Now Ephraim, that is the forefather of the British Commonwealth.

And Manasseh is the forefather of the Anglo-Saxon.

Let's just say it the way it is, the British Americans that came over, not the Polish Americans, not the black Americans, not the Indian Americans, but the British Americans that came over as well as the Danish Americans and all the European Anglo-Saxon white Americans, OK, to make it simple.

And so that's Manasseh.

And the blessings come down to them.

If we go down to verse 15, verse 15, talking about Ephraim and Manasseh, he, Jacob, Israel, blessed them and said, quote, The Theos, God, in whose sight my forefathers were well-pleasing, even Abraham and Isaac, the Theos who continues to feed me from my youth until this day, the manifestation of God, who delivers me from all calamities, blessed these boys, and my name should be called upon them.

They should be Israelites.

And the name of my forefathers, Abraham and Isaac, and let them be increased to a great multitude.

Going back to verse four, a multitude of nations on the earth.

So this proves again that when we talk about Israel, we're talking about more than one nation on earth.

We're talking about a great multitude of nations on earth.

And yet, those great multitude of nations are a multitude that has blessed the world and controls the land of their enemies.

If you look at Egypt and the African Confederacy, whatever they call it, there is a union of African nations.

There is a union of African nations.

They do not control the enemy land outside of Africa.

What African nation controls any nation outside of Africa?

It doesn't exist.

And what African nation blesses other nations?

It doesn't exist.

There is not even one nation in Africa that blesses the entire world.

It doesn't exist.

So this black Israelite theology is absolutely ridiculous and cannot be proven with scripture.

You have all kinds of accusations that Ethiopia is a certain person in the Bible, or I saw yesterday this ridiculous.

There's so many crazy people on this planet, absolutely ridiculous.

I saw yesterday some woman on me claiming that Afghanistan is one of the Israelite tribes. Afghanistan!

I tell you what, no matter how old I get, I just continue to be amazed how ridiculous, how foolish, how gullible people are, how they will fall for anything that itches their ears, something that pleases them because, oh, I'm from Afghanistan, or my parents were from Afghanistan, therefore I want to believe this lie.

That's the way people are.

As the Bible says, as Paul told Timothy, that they would heap to themselves teachers that tickle their ears.

Amen? Tickle their ears.

They want to hear, they want to believe a lie, even as 2 Thessalonians 2 tells us, that they love a lie, they love a lie.

Amen. They have not the love of the truth. Amen.

So, Israel is more than one nation.

And when you look at Israel in the Middle East and compare it to America and the British Commonwealth, they're the same people, the same values, the same morals.

Going back to Judeo-Christian values, of course Israel doesn't go to Christian values, but all of that points right back to the Judean history.

The Arabs don't care about Judean history. Amen.

The Arabs hate the Jews.

The Arabs lie about the Bible.

Come on now.

The Arabs don't honor God, they honor the moon god.

Of course, even some of the Jews do as well.

But again, you can have bad apples among any group of people.

Any group of people.

You can have bad apples and bad people and bad leaders among any group.

But when you talk in general, in general, in general, in comparison with the other nations, Israel compared with the Arabs, there's a huge difference there of values, morals.

And Israel by far does honor God more than by comparison of the Arabs, which hate America, hate Israel, and hate freedom.

Now let's get down to verse 19.

And he would not move his hand and said, I know it son, I know it.

He, Manasseh, America, should become a people and he should be exalted.

But his younger brother Ephraim, the British Commonwealth, should be greater than he.

And his seed, descendants, should become a multitude of nations. Amen.

So anytime the Bible keeps repeating itself, multitude, multitude, multitude, anytime it keeps repeating itself, you better underline it, you better circle it, and you better think about it.

Because it's repeating itself to get your attention, to help you realize this is important, pay attention.

And that, Israel is not one nation.

It is multiple, multiple nations with a huge population that has blessed the entire earth and control the gates of our enemies.

There's nobody that can fit this description better than the British Empire, the Americas, and our brother Israel of the same bloodline.

Now also, verse 5, go back to verse 5, that Manasseh and Ephraim was born in the land of Egypt.

Think about that. Manasseh and Ephraim, the sons of Joseph.

Remember Joseph was in control of Egypt under Pharaoh.

So the Americans and the British have an ancestry, not only of Israelite ancestry, but even Egyptian ancestry.

So why else would there be an Egyptian pyramid, which I know there's also pyramids in Mexico and across the world, but when we think of pyramids, we typically think of Egypt.

Amen.

So why else would there be the Egyptian pyramid without the capstone, just like in Egypt you have the great pyramid that is missing the capstone.

It is a learning back, it is pointing back to our Egyptian ancestry.

You can say that's pagan or whatever you want to say, but it still points back to the Egyptian ancestry of still providing one more point of proof upon another point and another point and another point of proof of who we are as Americans. Amen.
And also Egypt being an ally to us to this day. Amen.

Egypt and America and Israel, think about that.
Israel until recently, until the Abraham Accords, really did not have that many peace agreements with Arab nations except for Egypt.
And Egypt is a strong, important and close ally of America.
That's something to really think about.
Egypt has always played an important part with the Israelites and our ancestry.
It's also important to understand that a lot of the leaders of Egypt in history were not black people nor Arabs. Throughout history, a lot of them were Greeks.
They were white people that were kings and queens of Egypt.
A lot of them, even Cleopatra.
She was not Arab. She was not black.
She was not dark skinned, but rather she was from the Greek Empire.
If I remember correctly, I'm pretty sure of that.
And many other famous Egyptian pharaohs, leaders and kings and queens of the Egyptian history were not black and were not Arab.
That was Greeks and other white people.
There is a reason for that. There is a reason for it.
And as I was trying to tell this person yesterday, if the whole world or even America were to return back to the biblical values, morals, commandments and instructions of God, that the whole world would benefit.
The whole world would be blessed. Amen.

If you were to take the laws of the Americas back before it was corrupted by the Democrats, if you were to go back to the time of George Washington and apply those laws upon America today and go back to exactly the way the government was in the time of George Washington after the Declaration of Independence, of course, and the Constitution, and even before that, the whole America and the world would be blessed by following God's ways.
How you live, how you think, your opinions, the way you think, the way you look at things, going back to the old path, the ancient path, the ancient way of living, it would be a better world.
But no, that's too barbaric. That's too barbaric.
It's the traditional way of thinking of almost every pastor, every Christian out there.
That's wrong. That's a sin. That's wrong. I can't prove it with the Bible.
And the New Testament doesn't say anything against it.
And the Old Testament doesn't say anything against it.
But I, I, with my modern Western program brainwashed thinking, declare that it is wrong, it's a sin, it's barbaric because that's the way I was taught in school, and that's what my pastor says, and that's what all the Christians say, that's what the books say, that's what the college says, that's what the university says, and how dare we disagree with the universities?
How dare we disagree with the churches?
To return back to biblical standards would be barbaric, evil, demonic.

What, what is wrong with these people?

They're robots. That's what's wrong with them. They are robots.

That's what's wrong with them.

But there are still some people with some common sense in the world.

Some people in Zimbabwe, which is a nation that is dear to my heart because of Brother Meekness and his wife and son, they live in Zimbabwe.

So that nation is near to my heart because I want the best for our brothers and sisters in Christ.

So it's important to me what's going on in the news, and I actually try to keep up a little bit with what's going on in the news in Zimbabwe and other nations in Africa.

It's important to me because it's important to my brothers and sisters in Africa and Nigeria.

And Nigeria is important to me because of people that I previously knew there that I loved until I learned the hard way that they were using me and so forth.

But there are several African nations that are close to my heart, including South Africa, even before Brother Angie, because of multiple people that have come and gone through the ministry from South Africa and because of the atrocities that I know that are occurring there as a human being, feeling for other humans, wanting justice for the world.

And because South Africa was brought under British imperialism, seeing how the white people there are so persecuted and murdered on a daily basis, how Nelson Mandela and his Communist Party, literally, literally, Communist Party, and how they're still under a Communist Party today, how they programmed the black population there to hate and despise the British population there, the white population there, to hate them and despise them despite the progress, real progress, that was made under the British rule.

So, let me get to my point here, some people in Zimbabwe and other African nations, some people in these nations actually promote the ideal of returning their nations to be under rule again by the British Commonwealth.

And these are black people living in Africa, born and raised in Africa, and they have enough common sense and intelligence to know that it was better under British rule.

Amen? It was better under British rule.

They know this, they acknowledge this, despite their skin color, despite the programming of the universities and the books that teach them to hate Britain and to hate white people, and despite the mainstream media and all the propaganda out there, they still have enough common sense to think for themselves as a human being and to pray about such things and to read the Bible and to seek the mind of Christ and to confess such things that life was better under British rule and that they should return to British rule.

So, I admire such people of such intelligence and common sense. Amen.

And yet, most of the world would say that that would be a mistake to return it back to British rule, that that would be awful, that that would be horrible.

And yet, there's nothing better that could happen for Africa, nothing better that could happen to Africa than return back to British rule.

That would be the greatest thing that has ever happened to Africa in this century, is to return back to British rule. What a blessing that would be. Amen.

They should be praying for it. Amen.

And the same is true with India. If India, which they're still a member of the British Commonwealth, but Queen Elizabeth, she's going to have to suffer for some of the decisions she has made of being really a liberal, of deleting a lot of her power and authority, even though she still has a lot more power and a lot more authority than most people realize. The British throne is still a very powerful throne, but nevertheless, she has let go of and given away a lot of her power, and that's very sad and sinful, sinful to have given away so much of her power back to the African nations, back to India, so forth. But just like I said with Africa, if the Indian nation were to return back to allowing the British to rule them 100%, to come back under entirely, entirely British rule and not have any of the Indian politicians, oh, how much better they would be. How much better they would be to not be ruled by Hindus. Amen. To not be ruled by people that worship cows. How great that would be. It would be a great blessing for the entire nation of India and all the Indian people to not be ruled by a man that worships cows. There are curses upon such people. When you get rid of such a leader and replace it by a leader that has a little bit of common sense, then there are blessings that come. Amen. God is good.

All right, Brother Jared, your turn, if you got anything to share. "Islam is supposed to be an ancient religion, but it's hypocritical how much advanced technology they support." Yeah. Amen. Good point. Islam, he said, is supposed to be an ancient religion and yet is very hypocritical. How much of the brand new advanced demonic technology that Saudi Arabia and United Arab immigrants and so forth is embracing. Saudi Arabia actually wants to lead the world, the entire world. Something to think about there. Saudi Arabia wants to lead the entire world with advanced technology, building the city of NEOM, N-E-O-M, which I believe to be the end time city of Babylon of Revelation 18. And so that's very hypocritical to claim to be an ancient religion with ancient values and morals. And yet lead the world with robots, artificial intelligence, which is actually demonic intelligence. And so. Yeah. It's also very ironic. They delude themselves. Yes. Yes. A lot of hypocrisy everywhere as we look for these demonic groups.

Let me see if there's anything in the chat here. Unfortunately, this chat Mixlr, sometimes I'm not really able to see what the people are saying until I get back to my laptop. Sometimes I can see. I don't know it's variable, but I'm going to put here. I think if I type something that it activates the chat room to refresh so that I'm just going to put the word test. And that just refreshes my chat room. Yeah, that's what it did. Refresh my chat room so that I can actually see what people have been saying. So just like I just need to be refreshed somehow or another. And it does it when I type. So, yeah, a brother in Korea. I mean, not Korea or brother in Jamaica was laughing at the idea that Afghanistan is a child of Israel.

And that is very laughable. That is insane. What people think.
And I've seen so many other theories out there about this nation and that nation and this nation and that nation, even the Native American Indians, that they're Israelites.
It's just absolutely ridiculous. All the different theories out there that really can't be proven with the Bible and common sense values, common sense.
And then. OK, so that's all from the chat room.
And I believe that's all the points I need to make.

So, Saturday, 11 o'clock in the morning, hope to see everybody again there.
And let's say 4th of July, I keep forgetting to say this.
Fourth of July, everybody knows that we do we do as Americans, including myself and the local congregation.
We do as we do observe for July. I've had emails even recently. I've had emails all my life about this topic.
I'm not ignorant of this topic and I still see no evidence that the fourth of July is clear.

However, we will be boycotting fireworks, that part of the fourth of July celebration.
fireworks is not directly related to the fourth of July. You can have fireworks at a rich person's birthday party.
You can have fireworks on a different days of the year. It's not directly related to the fourth of July.
So just because of us being against fireworks doesn't prove anything about the fourth of July as a separate matter.
But sometimes I think we might be perhaps wrong about the fireworks that is not really fire worship.
But even if we are wrong, that's still not going to change my mind about boycotting the fireworks part of the festival.
Because even if fireworks is not fire worship, but I still believe that that's a big possibility.
There's still a big possibility in my mind that it could be in the eyes of God, fire worship.
But even if it's not and even if I'm wrong about that one point, there's still something that is wasting literally, literally millions and millions and millions and millions and millions.
It's probably over a billion dollars a year wasted on this entertainment that could be used to help the gospel, to help the poor, to feed people, to help homes, to help whatever, multiple ways or even to pave the streets, infrastructure, whatever, to help hospitals that are struggling to stay open, whatever.
There's a lot of ways that money could be used and rather than burning, it's literally burning money.
That is such a vain waste of resources.
That reason alone, I think, is sufficient to be boycotting it.
It's such a blowing of money.
It's just ridiculous. It's insanity to just blow your money up.
It's blowing it up. It doesn't exist after that. It blows up.
And so but then also how it pollutes the air and pollutes the water, which is something we really need to be seriously concerned about how they are polluting the water.
The water is so severely polluted across the world, even in America.
That's something to be truly concerned about.
And then also how it scares babies and pets and dogs and cats that we love and cherish and scaring the birds, which is another concern about animal wildlife and so forth.

There are a lot of reasons to say that we should not be doing the fireworks.
A lot of reasons.

So what we do normally on the 4th of July, we go watch the parade.
And there's nothing wrong with saying about that parade, except for the Shriners.
And when they show up, we just detest them and say, you know, it's horrible.
It's awful. But 30 seconds later, they're gone.
And the next people come up. There's, you know, there's nothing wrong with watching the parade.

The Shriners last 30 seconds. We detest them when we see them.

They move on. They're out of the way. It's over to the next group.

We clap and cheer the police officers.

We clap and cheer the firemen, the firefighters and the police dogs.

Come on now. Who doesn't love a police dog?

We should go to the 4th of July parade just to see the police dog and the fire trucks and the police officers.

Amen. And the military men. Amen.

And we're celebrating God's providence of how God brought the British to America and defeated the heathens, the pagans, which my own ancestors.

But I confess the sins of my ancestors. And I say this was right.

It was a good thing. Now, of course, I cry when I see the tragedy of the Trail of Tears and so forth like that and how different people betrayed the peace agreements and different things that happen.

I cry because I'm human and I hate when another human suffers.

But then I have to get right back into the mind of Christ and say, yeah, the bottom line is that God did bring the British to America.

Wipe out these heathen riches, which is exactly what they were that were that were into satanic activity that deserved the invasion and the conquest, even if they were my ancestors.

Amen.

Same thing with Africa. So forth.

And so we celebrate the providence of God, God's way, God's way of thing.

We celebrate God's mind by recognizing that God was behind George Washington.

He didn't have everything right. George Washington didn't.

He had a lot right. But he had a lot right.

And it's very clear and evident, undeniable that he had God's favor.

I'm not a perfect man. I'm not a perfect person. I'm not a perfect pastor.

I'm not a perfect prophet. I'm not a perfect apostle.

But I've got God's favor. And the same thing with George Washington.

You can point your finger all you want to at certain things, but he had God's favor.

And that's the bottom line. Amen.

And we need to be very, very, very careful as when when people try to curse or touch or speak out against God's anointing.

That's a very dangerous situation. But a lot of people have no fear of God.

And they just want to jump and attack God's anointed people, God's anointed nation.

Amen. And God's providence.

People still have the Adam and Eve way of thinking that the way they think is more righteous than God.

Very sad. But I will let you go.

We'll continue to learn and to teach. Oh, I also want to recommend three articles on the website.

These will be in the notes. These will be on the notes and telegram.

Prove all things newsletter on the website and MeWe social media group.

The page for Manasseh.html, which gives more than enough solid undeniable proof of American and British ancestry to the Israelite tribes.

isawthelightministries.com/manasseh.html

All small letters. Also, the article about the Confederate flag and God's blessing upon the Confederacy and the Confederate flag.

isawthelightministries.com/confederateflag.html.

No spaces, all small letters.

And then also finally, an article about the curses of God that were brought upon the Native American Indians, the African nations and even the Jewish nation.

That's at I saw the light ministries dot com slash curses dot html.

All small letters. isawthelightministries.com/curses.html.

Those three articles I recommend because they are related to today's topics.

Thank you for your patience with my long windedness.

And thank you for joining us for our live worship service.

I'll see you Saturday, God willing, if the creeks don't rise.

And until then, may God bless you in amazing ways if you accept the providence of God.

All of this in Jesus name. Amen.
